DEATH OF MR. G. A. VISANSKA.

herits his father's good sense and business judgment. He has made a success in business as well as being one of the leading figures in the affairs of his adopted city. He married in 1902 Miss Sarah F. Bentschner, of that city.

Samuel A. Visanska is a prominent physician of Atlanta. He specializes in children's diseases, and has made a success in his profession. He is an affable and likable companion, as well as a good physician. He married Miss Florence Fuld, of Atlanta.

The two younger sons, Walter W. and Ernest L., are lawyers, the former residing in Atlanta, where he has practiced successfully for several years. At one time he was Secretary to one of the judges of the Supreme Court. He is married, his wife being Miss Florette Steinheimer, of Atlanta. Ernest L. Visanska, graduated at Yale, and took the law course at the University of Virginia. He located several years ago in Charleston. He was soon recognized as a young man of conspicuous ability and unusual promise. He had been there only a little while until he became a member of the law firm of Smythe, Frost & Visanska. On the retirement of Mr. Frost from the firm, and the death of Mr. Augustine T. Smythe, the firm name became Smythe & Visanska, the members being Mr. A. T. Smythe, Jr., and Mr. Visanska.

His daughters, Mrs. Rosenberg and Miss Belle, who is unmarried, lived with their father up to the time of his death, exhibiting at all times that same tender love and care for him which he did for them. They were a blessing to him in his old age as he was to them in their tender years.

A great concourse of friends gathered at the home of Mr. Visanska to attend his funeral Thursday afternoon at five o'clock. The services were conducted by Rabbi Jacob S. Raisin, of Charleston, and were simple and appropriate. He paid a deserved tribute to Mr. Visanska as a citizen and also as a leading man among his own people, emphasizing his deep interest in the Jewish Church in which he was a leading man in the State. The remains were carried to Columbia and buried beside the grave of his wife and children.

At his home the following acted as active pall-bearers, Messrs. Allen King, Henry Wilson, J. Allen Long, Albert Henry, Bradley Reese, J. Foster Earnwell, Fred Cason and J. S. Bowie.

The honorary pall-bearers were: Hon. Eugene B. Gary, Hon. Wyatt Aiken, Dr. G. A. Neuffer, Messrs. Hugh Wilson, R. M. Haddon, R. S. Link, James Chalmers, D. Poliakoff, J. Allen Smith, J. C. Ellis, F. E. Harrison and Wm. P. Greene.

Messrs. Wilson, Smith, Aiken, Ellis, Barnwell, Link and Greene accompanied the family to Columbia and acted as pall-bearers there along with Mr. Melvin Israel, who came up from Charleston to attend the funeral.

Some years ago, at the marriage of his grand-daughter, Mr. Hugh Wilson, who knew Mr. Visanska for sixty years, wrote a sketch of him for this paper. We take the following from that sketch as contained in the files of June 5, 1912.

MR. G. A. VISANSKA.

He is noted for his long and good life.

He is noted for activity and energy.

He is noted for honesty and truthfulness.

He is noted for recuperative qualities that enabled him to defy, defeat and to conquer adverse circumstances.

He is noted for great public spirit that prompted him to do more for the uplift of Abbeville than any other half dozen men.

He is noted for the high character of each one of his children.

He is noted for having no son that has loitered at home. All have gone about and each actively and independently forging out his own fortunes.

He is noted for the happiness of his household and the unswerving loyalty of his children to him and to each other.

He is noted for having the friendship and good will of all neighbors and customers who have dealt with his store.

He is noted for the high offices which he holds among the Jews, representing them as he does, in many of their religious rites and ceremonies.

He is noted for having lived for forty years in a town where no evil tongue has assailed his good name.

ITALY WON'T MAKE SEPARATE PEACE

Rome, Nov. 4.—Italy has adhered to an agreement signed by the allies not to make a separate peace, says Messagero.
