

LOCAL NEWS

Dr. F. E. Harrison went over to Greenwood on business Monday.

James C. Hemphill came over from Greenwood and spent Sunday with his home folks.

The members of the Abbeville delegation came home from Columbia for the recess over Sunday.

Mrs. T. C. Poole left yesterday for a visit to relatives in Chester and Abbeville.—Newberry Observer.

Mr. R. W. Bristow, of Darlington, was in our city several days last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bristow.

Robert S. Owen spent Sunday in Columbia, returning to Abbeville on Monday.

Misses Blanche McClellan and Evelyn Kay have returned to their homes in Anderson after spending a week here with relatives and friends.

Mason Kay was a visitor to Abbeville last week, coming up from Columbia and spending the time with his brother, R. H. Kay.

Miss Bessie Murray came over from Greenwood and spent several days last week with the family of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McLesky have been in Columbia for the past week, looking in on the Legislature and seeing their friends.

The friends of Mrs. Henry Pressly will be glad to know that she is improving rapidly and hopes soon to be out again.

Miss Agnes Devlin came down from Due West this week and spent several days with her friend, Miss Maggie Brooks. She is always a welcome visitor.

Miss Nelle Edwards leaves this week for Allendale, where she is to be for the Spring season. She has enjoyed her vacation and her friends have enjoyed having her at home.

Miss Virginia Aiken came over from Clinton and spent a day or two with Mrs. B. S. Barnwell, getting here Friday and returning to Clinton Monday. She came over for the High School debate which was to have been held in the Court House Friday night.

If you see your boy going through all kinds of monkey shins or walking around with a fixed look in his eyes do not be alarmed about him, he is simply practicing hypnotism or dreaming about the immense fortune he is going to make as a hypnotist. Since the shows at the opera house last week most of the young boys in town can tell you more about hypnotism than the man who wrote the first book on the subject.

"UNCLE BILL" IS BACK.

The many friends of Capt. W. Y. Miller are delighted to know that he has returned to Abbeville and will spend some time with his sister, Mrs. Stark. He is his usual lively self and scatters sunshine wherever he goes.

OUR PRETTY ORGANIST.

The past two Sabbaths Miss Howie has been playing the organ in the Seceder church. She has a soft and graceful touch and plays the music more than ordinarily sweet. Miss Howie is the organist of the Baptist church, is an accomplished musician and a pretty young lady.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

Prof. Fassoux, a professional hypnotist, was the attraction at the Opera House for three nights last week. He seemed to be an adept at the business and pleased the large audiences which greeted him every night. The regular program of pictures were shown in connection with the show.

FOR MRS. HAGERMAN.

Mrs. H. L. Hagerman, one of the season's brides who is being entertained at a number of delightful affairs, was again honor guest yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Luther Marchant and Mrs. T. M. Marchant entertained at a large bridge party at the home of the latter on North Main Street.

The rooms were tastefully decorated in green and white cut flowers, with a profusion of potted plants being used. At the conclusion of the games, Mrs. F. F. Beattie was presented a lovely handkerchief as prize for top score, while the honoree was given a beautiful potted primrose. A salad course was served.

Those invited were: Mesdames R. E. Henry, Joseph Cunningham, Proctor Bonham, C. S. Webb, Jno. H. Williams, Vivian Manning, J. F. Matthews, Lad Mills, Jas. H. Morgan, Jr., C. F. Haynsworth, Dave Henning, Jr., W. R. Cely, Claud Smith, Harold Smith, W. W. Wallace, Hudson Williams, Zimmerman, L. Thompson, F. F. Beattie, Wm. Parrish, Miss Juliette Henry, and Miss Susan Arnold, of Greenwood.—Greenville Piedmont.

PREACHING AT LITTLE MOUNTAIN

There will be services at Little Mountain church on the 5th Sabbath of this month at the usual hour.

DRUG STOCK FOR SALE.

The stock of drugs and the store fixtures belonging to the estate of C. A. Milford & Co., will be sold at public auction on salesday in February. The stock of drugs is appraised at $6,000 and the fixtures at $5,000.

MOVING TO ABBEVILLE.

Mr. H. C. Finch and family have moved to Abbeville from Greenville, and Mr. Finch has taken charge of the Opera House. He is running the Universal pictures and is giving "The Romance of Elaine" every Monday night.

Mr. Finch has moved into the Richey house on Greenville Street.

MR. KLUGH HERE.

Mr. W. A. Klugh, who is an Abbeville County man, but who now resides near the Greenwood County line, was here Monday and called to see us. He says he read the letter to Billy Gaines and our reply thereto, and that we are right. He says cotton has sold higher in Abbeville during the entire season than in Greenwood.

NEW COUNTY TREASURER.

The Governor has appointed James Chalmers as County Treasurer to succeed the late Treasurer, James F. Bradley. The appointment was announced Monday morning. Several persons were applicants for the position, but Mr. Chalmers seems to have had the inside track.

Mr. Chalmers is a life-long resident of the city. He was educated as a lawyer and admitted to the Bar of the state, but never practiced. For fifteen years he was Clerk and Treasurer of city council of Abbeville. He resigned that office some eight years ago, and has since been in the insurance business and engaged in looking after his farm in the Western part of the county. He is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office.

COUNTY TEACHERS MEETING.

Saturday, Jan. 29th, at 12 o'clock, the teachers of Abbeville county are called to meet in the Court House.

Prof. Easterling, of the South Carolina University, will address the meeting on "The Picture Side of Mathematics."

Miss Epting, of the City Schools, will give a demonstration with a class in reading and phonics.

Plans for the next Field Day will be discussed. Officers for 1916 will be elected. All teachers are urged to be present. The progressive teacher will be. Trustees are also invited and also the public.

To keep up with the best, you must seek the best in your life. The teacher who attends these meetings are the ones who will most likely "make good" in the profession.

A CARD.

Abbeville, S. C., Jan. 25, 1916.
To the Editor of Press and Banner:

In announcing my candidacy for Mayor, I deem it not out of place to say a word to the voters of the city. I have no platform to offer. There are no issues on which all candidates may not agree. We all stand for an economical administration of the affairs of the city. I have no criticism to make of the present administration; but the voters of the city have been exceedingly kind to Dr. Gambrell; they have elected him and re-elected him, and he should now stand aside gracefully and let the matter be threshed out by the rest of us.

I have lived amongst you long enough to know the most of you, and have never before asked any political favor and only ask this office for one term. If I am elected I promise to give you as good and economical administration as my predecessor.

Yours very truly,
Patrick Roche.

UNITED STATES ATTORNEY.

Washington, Jan. 21.—The senate Tuesday confirmed the nominations of J. William Thurmond to be United States attorney, western district South Carolina, and Charles J. Lyon to be United States Marshal, western district South Carolina.

GREENVILLE TO HAVE NEW $100,000 COURT HOUSE

Greenville, Jan. 21.—Plans having been completed for the erection of Greenville's magnificent new court house, actual construction is expected to start some time next month. The contractor, J. A. Jones, of Charlotte, has been requested by H. Olin Jones, supervising architect, to come to Greenville next week with a view of getting affairs in readiness preparatory to the beginning of work. The structure will cost in the neighborhood of $100,000, it is estimated.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

THE NEW WHITE WAY.

The City has begun the work of putting in the new white way on the street leading to Magazine Hill.

Last year the white way was put in up Main Street and to the High School on Greenville Street. This year the work will go on on Magazine Street. This will be a great improvement and it is a good thing that the council can make the change.

There is no city in the state with a more satisfactory lighting system than Abbeville and the style of our lamps and posts is more graceful than any in any of the larger cities.

CITY REGISTRATION.

The city books of Registration are now open for registering all qualified electors and will remain open until April 1st, 1916, at the office of City Clerk. T. G. PERRIN, Registrar.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

FOR MAYOR.

We are authorized to announce Patrick Roche as a candidate for Mayor of the City of Abbeville, subject to the rules of the Democratic Primary.

The friends of Dr. C. C. Gambrell hereby announce that he is a candidate for the nomination for Mayor of the City of Abbeville in the Democratic Primary, subject to the rules of the party.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for Mayor of the City of Abbeville, and agree to abide the result of the Democratic Primary.
