POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Motto of the confidence man: "Watch and prey." Many a man who seeks fame finds nothing but infamy. Too many men pray for things they are too lazy to work for. A slip of the tongue is often more serious than a slip of the foot. Home is a bower of bliss to some men only when it's the left bower. Any man whose will power is all in his wife's name, is to be pitied. No, Claud, a man isn't necessarily a simpleton merely because he lives the simple life. However, the woman who pays cash, comes to her complexion honestly. Friendship bought with money isn't proof against the coin of your enemy. The poor men who wed an heiress believes in the gold cure for financial ills. They say that a dog didn't want to go into the ark because he had a bark of his own.
