

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. Carlisle was in from Calhoun Falls Monday on business.

Rev. M. R. Plaxco made his usual visit to Due West Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Evans were in the city trading Saturday.

Thomas Harrison and Jack Elgin went down to Newberry Sunday.

Mrs. Bert Ferguson was in the city from Honea Path Monday.

Dr. Hicks of Calhoun Falls, was in the city last Saturday on business.

Miss Sherrar spent last week in Greenwood on professional business.

Mr. John White is at home after a trip to Norfolk on business connected with the Seaboard.

Miss Corrie Graves was in the city last Friday shopping in our millinery stores.

Miss Frances Richey is at home from Atlanta visiting her mother, Mrs. C. R. Richey.

Miss Leila Link has returned to Spartanburg, where she is a student at Converse College.

Miss Irene Burch of Elberton, is in the city on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Sam Shiver.

Mrs. P. J. Leach and Miss Edith Leach went over to Atlanta one day last week shopping.

Mrs. J. C. Shepard has returned to Abbeville from a two weeks visit to relatives in Laurens.

Mrs. John White has gone to her home in Rockymount, N. C., for an extended visit to her parents.

Miss Clifford Beckum of McCormick, spent the week-end in the city the guest of Miss Benie Watson.

Miss Eugenia Coleman spent Wednesday in Due West with Miss Ruth McLane and Miss Virginia Galloway.

Miss Esther Graydon leaves this week for Brenau College, where she will visit with her old college friends.

Russell Lawson came up from Columbia and spent Sunday with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Lawson.

Mrs. Tom Marchant has been in Abbeville for the past week spending the time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Speed.

Mrs. J. L. Kennedy and Mrs. G. W. Cade were in the city last Saturday. Mrs. Cade was accompanied by her two bright little children.

Misses Dot and Lina Evans, two of the bright young school teachers of the county, were in the city trading Saturday.

R. H. Kay went over to Calhoun Falls and spent Sunday with friends. He says it is a good place to spend the day.

Mrs. J. M. Ogilvie and children went down to Columbia last Thursday and spent until Sunday with her mother.

W. J. Bryson is at home after an extended visit through the west. He had a fine time and likes the westerners.

The Bridge Club was entertained most pleasantly last Friday at the home of Miss Plevna Seal. The meeting was enjoyable in every way.

Mrs. S. P. Morrah of the Bellevue section, was in town shopping Monday. She was accompanied by her pretty daughter, Miss Sarah Morrah.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wilson and Mr. S. J. Link went out to "Maplehurst," the home of the Wilson family, and spent the day Sunday.

Miss Gladys Thomson has returned to her home in Pell City, Ala., after a pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. Foster Barnwell on Greenville St.

Mrs. Albert Power came down from Brownies Saturday and spent the day with Mrs. J. L. McMillan. She was accompanied by her young son, Richard.

Carroll Swetenberg was in the city Sunday and Monday. He came up from Augusta and spent the time with his parents.

Saturday was a busy day in the city, many people in from the country trading with our merchants and getting ready to start their crops.

Mrs. C. H. McMurray is going over to Greenwood this week, where she will spend some time with her brother, Dr. John Lyon.

Miss Ruth Howie and little Miss Elizabeth Howie accompanied their father to Atlanta last Monday and spent several days in the city visiting and taking in the sights.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Brownlee were down from Due West Monday. Mrs. Brownlee was awarded the automobile in the Medium contest and she received the car and rode home in it.

Miss Gladys Tarrant of Mt. Carmel, was in the city last Thursday shopping in our up-to-date stores.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe V. Elgin and Joe V. Jr., went up to Anderson Sunday and spent the day with relatives.

Miss Fannie Stark is visiting in Augusta for a while. She is the guest of Mrs. T. L. Davis.

Mrs. Johnson Kilgore is here from Clinton on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Stewart Miller on Magazine street.

Miss Edna Bradley visited in Due West last Friday and was a guest at the Junior-Senior Banquet Friday night.

Mrs. S. L. Patterson and her daughter, Miss Susie Patterson were up from Mt. Carmel last Thursday shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Hill, Mrs. H. H. Hill and Andrew Hill went up to Anderson one day last week in Mrs. Hill's car.

Miss Margaret Cothran, that attractively pretty girl of Abbeville, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Susan B. Hill.—Edgefield Advertiser.

Miss Nona Barksdale and Miss Madge McLesky went over to Greenwood Friday and spent until Sunday with Mrs. J. K. Durst.

The rain Monday morning was very welcome to all those people who go out every morning to see how much the vegetables have grown over night.

Miss Elizabeth Faulkner and Miss Kate McDill went up to Due West Friday afternoon and stayed over until Saturday afternoon visiting their friends.

Mr. W. J. Bryson is at home after a two weeks visit to Achille, Oklahoma, where he went to attend the wedding of a cousin. He also visited in different points in Texas while away.

In all the excitement of Field Day do not forget the entertainment for the benefit of the Library next Tuesday night in the Court House. The price of admission is twenty-five and fifty cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Wilson, Miss Nannie Seal and Miss Chilcote went over to Laurens Sunday and spent the day. Miss Chilcote visited friends while the others took in the sights of the city.

Mrs. Epting returns today to her home in Williamston, after a pleasant visit to her daughter, Miss Bessie, and to her many relatives in Abbeville. Mrs. Epting had much pleasant attention shown her while in the city.

Dr. Jack E. Pressly has returned from Columbia, where he went to bring a patient back from the city. He paid a visit to the State Hospital for the Insane and expressed himself as much pleased with the institution.

Young Edward Harden had the misfortune to break his leg last Wednesday while wrestling at the school house during the play hour. Dr. Pressly was sent for in hot haste and the young man was soon fixed up so that he was on the road to recovery before he could get home.

GONE TO BALTIMORE.

Mr. S. J. Link and his daughter, Miss Mary Link left this week for Baltimore, where they will spend several days seeing the sights.

A DANCING PARTY.

Miss Maggie Brooks entertained the young people of the city at a pleasant dance at her home on Pinckney street last Friday night. This dance was given in compliment to Mr. Lowry Wilson and Mr. Frank Cason. The dance was an enjoyable affair.

U. D. C. MEETING.

Abbeville Chapter U. D. C. will meet Tuesday afternoon, April 11, at 4 o'clock, with Mrs. A. M. Stone. Mrs. C. C. Gambrell, Pres. Mrs. J. Howard Moore, Rec. Sec.

D. A. R. MEETING POSTPONED

The regular monthly meeting of the Andrew Hamilton Chapter of D. A. R. will be postponed until Wednesday, April 12th, 1916.

Mrs. James Lawson, Secretary D. A. R.

THE BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.

The regular meeting of the Benevolent Society will be held in the Baptist Church Monday afternoon, and a full meeting is desired. This is a change in the day of the meeting and notice is given that hereafter the meetings will be held on Monday afternoon.

TRAVELING ON THE SABBATH.

Messrs R. L. Mabry, Jim Sherard, Walter Sherard, Francis Mabry and ta Sunday to take a look at the Sunday to take a look at the burned district. They made the trip in Mr. Mabry's car, coming home by way of Edgefield.

BORN

At Abbeville, April 1st, 1916, to Mr and Mrs. Stewart Miller, a daughter.

THE DOCTORS TO MEET IN CHARLESTON

The South Carolina Medical Association will meet in Charleston this year, April 18th, 19th and 20th. Dr. Neuffer is President of the Association and will attend. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Neuffer.

SPEAKING AT ARBORVILLE.

Dr. Haynes was in the city for a short while this week on his way home from Arborville school, where he had been to make a speech on health sanitation. The Arborville school is one of the progressive schools in the county and wants to keep up with the up-to-date things in school life.

HARRIS-CATHCART.

News has been received in Abbeville of the marriage of Mr. W. H. Harris and Mrs. W. C. Cathcart in Augusta, some time ago. Mr. Harris was at one time on the Seaboard in Abbeville and many of our people remember him and wish him happiness in his marriage. Mrs. Cathcart was a Miss Bolick and is well known in Abbeville.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY.

L. T., the young son of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Hill, celebrated his seventh birthday last Saturday afternoon and invited a party of little friends to help him enjoy the party. The time was passed in playing games and in the enjoyment of ice cream and cake. All the friends of the family hope the young man will grow up to be a great man and that he will have many more birthdays.

MAKING THE DOCTORS SMOKE.

Last Wednesday night Dr. G. A. Neuffer entertained the doctors of the city and the doctors who were in Abbeville in attendance on the Hollingsworth case, at a delightful smoker at his home on Main Street. Punch, coffee, sandwiches, olives, cheese and crackers were served throughout the evening and a most enjoyable time was spent.

OVER FROM ATLANTA.

Mr. Walter Visanska came over from Atlanta Saturday and spent until Monday with his sister, Mrs. Rosenberg. He came over especially to see the fine new baby at the home of Mr. Sol Rosenberg. Time has passed by Mr. Visanska—and he looks as young and as lively as he did when he played "shiny" with us when we went to school in Parkers lane.

THE SECOND GRADE SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT

The second grade held a very pleasant entertainment Thursday afternoon in the school room. Ten cents was charged as admission and the money turned over to the teachers for the float for Field Day Parade. Something over three dollars was made. The programme consisted of recitations, readings, spelling matches, etc. The little fellows did their best and they are a credit to their very excellent teacher, Miss Bessie Epting.

IMPROVING THE PLACE.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shiver have purchased the house on Vienna Street in which they have lived recently and are making extensive improvements on the house. A handsome fence has been put up, the piazza has been enlarged and everything has been painted. The purchase of a house guarantees the Shivers as permanent residents of the city, which is good news to their many friends, and to the different organizations of which Mrs. Shiver is an energetic member.

FOR THE LATEST WAR NEWS—both Europe and Mexico—read the Atlanta Daily Journal. Delivered to you every morning before breakfast. J. C. Cox, Local Agent.

Make your land produce double by planting the Velvet Bean with your corn and leave the land in better shape than at the beginning. Get your beans now from The Rosenberg Warehouse Co. 3, 28.

Don't plant a row of corn without a row of Velvet Beans. You will make as much or more corn, enrich the land and you get the beans besides. Get Beans from The Rosenberg Warehouse Co. 3, 28.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Cards inserted under this head are strictly cash in advance.

FOR SOLICITOR.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for Solicitor of the Eighth Circuit, subject to the rules of the Democratic Primary. H. S. BLACKWELL.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for Solicitor of the Eighth Judicial Circuit, subject to the rules of the Democratic primary. T. F. McCORD.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for Solicitor of Eighth Judicial Circuit, subject to the rules of the Democratic Primary. GEO. T. MAGILL.

FOR SHERIFF.

We are authorized to announce W. L. MILLER, of Mt. Carmel, as a candidate for Sheriff, subject to the rules of the Democratic Primary.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Stone went up to Galgal last Sunday and attended the Sunday school convention. They report a delightful day and a good crowd in attendance.

Miss Nannie Seal has been quite sick for the past two or three days and has been absent from the store. Miss Nannie has many friends all over the country who miss her from the store and hope for her an early recovery.

VISITORS FROM GEORGIA.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, of Moreland, Ga., were in the city last Thursday spending the day with Mrs. W. P. Greene. Mr and Mrs. Johnson are on their way to the low country and are making the trip in a car and are visiting friends on the way. Mrs. Johnson is a daughter of the late Dr. Young of Doraville, Ga., a man known to all followers of the A. R. P. faith, as a great physician and a good man.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson went from Abbeville to Due West, where they visited Rev. J. P. Pressley.

SALES DAY.

Monday was salesday and a considerable number of people were in the city to attend the sale. The Master, in the case of Hampton vs. Morrison, sold a ten acre tract of land to J. B. Hampton for $200.00

In the case of Hester, Receiver vs. Keiser, three lots of land in the town of Calhoun Falls were sold by the Master to Carrie Walker for $1550.

Two lots in the city of Abbeville, on Harrisburg Street, belonging to Lula L. Moore, were sold at suit by W. E. Henderson and bid in by D. H. Hill for $75.00.

In the case of McGee vs. Bowen, the sixty acre tract of land was purchased by plaintiff for $625.00.

The Kirby home on the hill above the Oil Mill was sold by the Master to William P. Greene, attorney, for the sum of $1100.00.

The home of Mrs. C. D. Baer on upper Main Street was not re-sold, the bidder at the former sale having transferred her bid to T. M. Miller, who complied with the terms of sale.

Fifteen lots in the town of Calhoun Falls were sold at the suit of Pfeiffer vs. Savage for $447.00, I. G. Savage being the purchaser.

The store room formerly occupied by the C. A. Milford Drug Company, was sold at the suit of the Geer Drug Company and purchased by it for the sum of $6000.00.

Mr. Clinkscales, the trustee of the estate of J. Walter Clamp, re-sold two tracts of land belonging to this estate. The ninety-three acre tract of land being bought by J. M. Nickles, attorney, for $4000.00, and the seven acre tract by J. B. Pruitt for $565.00.

If you dance you'll want a Victrola

Then you can dance whenever you want and always have perfect dance music.

With a Victrola you have noted dance orchestras and bands at your instant command to play whatever dance numbers you wish.

We will gladly play some of the newest dance music for you any time you find it convenient to stop in.

The instrument shown in illustration is the Victrola X, $75. Other styles of the Victor and Victrolas $10 to $250. Easy terms, if desired.

McMurray Drug Co. Abbeville, S. C.

Fire Insurance

We have four fire insurance companies that will continue to do business in this State.

Talk it over with "Peebles" for Fire Insurance, and all other kinds of Insurance.

Money to lend on Real Estate in amounts from $1,000 to 5,000.

Abbeville Insurance & Trust Co. W. L. PEEBLES, Manager

The Daylight Corner

A Man's Store

New Spring Oxfords

New Shirts

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Annual Spring And Summer Display of THE GLOBE TAILORING COMPANY Cincinnatti, Will be Held At Our Store On APRIL 7TH. AND 8TH.

The Complete Line Will Be Shown In Full Length Drapes

Globe Expert In Charge, G. F. Wearn New Felt and Straw Hats