THE FAIR

By Douglas Malloch.

We wrest no subterranean store from out of caverns deep and dark,
Nor with the blood-red hand of war make harvest of a nation's tears.
Ours is the wealth of God's good soil, and on his earth we leave no mark
But furrows of the farmer's toil, the business of a thousand years.

Here we assemble what we grew, here we have gathered of the yield,
The products of the work we do, our answer to the ones who ask.
These are the children of the seed, arisen in the fertile field,
A world of weary ones to feed—a noble duty, honest task.

Even in joy of labor done we have our hour for deeper thought,
To see the glory of the sun in smiling fruit and golden grain;
E'en in the frolic of the fair we realize how God has wrought
Till herds increase and blossoms bear, fed by his sunshine and his rain.

All mindful of our work again another season yet to be,
Let us come forth rejoicing then to pass a merry week away—
Proud of the treasures that are ours, with merriment and industry
Taking of earth both fruit and flowers, taking of life both work and play.
