

THE HERKIMER MEMORIAL ROAD

The idea of officially designating certain roads by the names of distinguished men formerly interested in them or in the district traversed by them is slowly spreading. For example, a sentiment is spreading in the Mohawk valley in favor of calling a portion of the New York state highways the General Nicholas Herkimer Memorial Road. The colonial soldier whom it is proposed to commemorate in this way was born in Danube, N. Y., about 1715. He was a militia lieutenant in the French and Indian war and a brigadier general in 1776. He was in charge of the operations against Sir John Johnson when Fort Stanwix was threatened by a combined force of Indians, Tories and British regulars, and was mortally wounded in the battle near Oriskany. His military career forms one of the most interesting pages in the history of the Mohawk valley, and the official designation of this road by his name, already urged upon the legislature, is an act of respect to the memory of one of the founders of our national independence much to be desired.

ALLEGED TIGERS ARRESTED.

Fifteen white men and two negroes have been arrested in Greenwood charged with selling blind-tiger liquor. They were arrested on Monday and confined in jail until bond could be arranged, Magistrate Kerr requiring a cash deposit, or a justified bond, in the sum of two hundred dollars.

Consensus of press opinion accredits "Maid to Order," which will be one of the early attractions here, as a rapid-fire musical comedy with a well defined plot that winds about the uncles and pseudo uncles of Jack Darling, who are three in number, and gives rise to no end of complications. It is replete with bright, catchy, tuneful song numbers and presented by a clever cast of comedians, singers and dancers and a singing chorus.

"Maid to Order" which will be one of the early attractions here, is a breezy, unctious musical comedy whose action is interspersed with song numbers and ensembles of unusual popular appeal. The fun develops around the entanglements in which a young man finds himself because of too many uncles, one real and two manufactured. A singing and dancing chorus adds to the general excellence of the musical comedy.

SPRAINED HER ANKLE ON UPTOWN SIDEWALK

Dear Editor:—While the town council is working the streets please call attention to that mean step off by the Greek Candy Kitchen, near the court house. My ankle was sprained badly there and I will never get over it. One lady fell down there flat, and someone gets a jolt there every day.

Yours truly, Sufferer.
Abbeville, Dec. 11, 1916.

CHIEF JUSTICE AT HOME.

Chief Justice Eugene B. Gary returned home on last Friday, and will be here for the remainder of the winter months. The fall term of the Supreme Court now convenes several weeks earlier than formerly which gives the members of the court a stay at home and at work during the disagreeable weather. The Chief Justice will commence on the work of filing his opinions very soon. He never rests when there is work to be done.

IN CHARLESTON.

Charleston should feel honored this week on account of the fact that three Abbeville men and the next Governor are with the people of that good city. The Abbeville men are: Dr. F. E. Harrison, R. N. Tiddy and Thomas Grant Perrin. Everybody knows who the next Governor is.

BLAZE AT BISHOPVILLE.

Bishopville, Dec. 10.—The residence of County Treasurer T. C. Perrin was burned Friday night. It is thought that a defective wire was the cause of the fire. Only a part of the furniture was saved. The building and furniture were partly covered by insurance.

Mr. Perrin is an older brother of Capt. J. L. Perrin of our town and is well known among the older Abbeville people, who will be sorry to hear of his recent loss.
