

A CONFEDERATE VETERAN DEAD

Mr. J. N. Hughey, a Confederate Veteran, died at the County Home Monday morning at four o'clock and was buried late Monday afternoon in Melrose cemetery. At the time of his death he was about seventy-five years old.

At the time the war broke out between the States Mr. Hughey volunteered to join the company of Captain James M. Perrin and he made a faithful soldier throughout the war. He is survived by his wife and one son.

COMING HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coleman will arrive in Abbeville on Saturday for a ten days visit to home folks. They come from New London, Conn., where Mr. Coleman has been teaching for the past year and a half as Principal of the Buckley High School. Mrs. Coleman is well remembered here as Miss Wilhelmina Mitchell, and the friends of both the young people will be delighted to see them again. It is a source of pleasure to all the people in Abbeville, who remember Robert as a boy and a young man, that he is making a success of his chosen profession.

During their visit Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Coleman will entertain at a reception in honor of the young couple.
