A CHARMING RECEPTION.

The largest and most enjoyable entertainment of the Christmas season was the reception given last Wednesday night by Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Coleman at their lovely home on Greenville street in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hemphill Coleman, of New London, Conn., who were in Abbeville for the holidays. The Coleman home is beautifully adapted to entertaining and in its decorations of wreaths, Christmas bells, holly and mistletoe, was beautiful indeed, and made a handsome setting for the bright and animated scene.

The guests were greeted in the hall by Mrs. Gertrude Sign, and were served fruit nectar by Misses, Eugenia Coleman, Caroline Reese, Hubert Cox and Lowrie Wilson. In the music room Miss Lavinia Coleman, Miss Rebecca Sanders, Mr. Arthur Carroll and Ralph Syfan received and entertained, while in their handsome reception hall, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman made their guests welcome and introduced Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hemphill Coleman and Mr. R. G. Hemphill and Mrs. R. R. Hemphill. Assisting in entertaining the guests were also, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Rogers, Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Neuffer, Mrs. Rachel Minshall and Mr. W. E. Hill.

In the dining room the table was lovely in its service of Cluny lace with a center bowl of red carnations. The Christmas season was tastefully shown in the refreshments served, the cream being given a snow effect by a garnish of whipped cream and cocoanut. On each plate a sprig of holly gave the final dainty touch. Mints and coffee were also served. Entertaining in the dining room were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hill, Miss Marie Minshall and Mrs. Wm. P. Greene.

The dainty little girls serving were Misses Florence Neuffer, Coma Phillips, Dorothy Syfan and Mary Greene.

During the reception hours a gay throng of beautifully gowned women and handsome men passed to and fro in the house while from eleven till two o'clock dancing was enjoyed by the younger set.

The out-of-town guests for this pleasant affair were: Miss Rebecca Sanders of Greenwood, Miss Marie Minshall of Greenville, Miss Martha McDowell and Mr. Vernon McDowell of Camden, Mr. Arthur Carroll of Hartsville, and Mr. R. G. Hemphill of Fort Collins, Colo.

Make Safe Investments

The protection of principle should be the first consideration of every investor. But it's not always an easy matter for the ordinary investor to determine the safety of the issues offered him.

The character of an investment, however, is usually reflected in the concern which offers it. Investments offered through this institution warrant your confidence.
