

MT. CARMEL.

Mt. Carmel, Jan. 16.—Mr. D. W. Harling returned home Saturday from a ten days visit to his daughter Mrs. Frank Stevenson of Helena, Ga. Misses Edna and Corinne Smith returned home last Monday from a delightful visit to Elberton, Ga. Misses Nannie Lou Curtis and Ruby Smith, Messrs. Arthur Smith and Raymond Wells spent the week-end in Georgia with Mrs. Henry Dunoway. Miss Emily Mae Hester entertained quite a number of her friends informally last Saturday evening. An elaborate five course supper was served. Among those present were: Misses Carrie McCelvey, Maggie Sutherland, Gladys Tarrant, Maggie Knox and other young ladies, also Messrs. Ben Sutherland, George McCelvey, C. E. Williamson, Lawrence Hester and others. Mr. Lawrence Conner spent Wednesday morning in McCormick. Miss Pickens Tarrant leaves Monday to resume her studies at Cox College, College Park, Ga. Messrs. Frank Stuart and Fred Black spent a few days in Mt. Carmel the past week at the home of Dr. and Mrs. P. K. Black. Mr. Dean and Miss Sophronia Dean returned home Friday from a very pleasant visit to friends and relatives in Columbia and Charleston. Dr. P. K. Black is driving a brand new Ford now, even if the roads are bad. Messrs. T. E. Leard and J. H. Chiles of Troy, were business visitors in Mt. Carmel Monday. Mrs. T. B. Frazier spent the past week in Monterey with her aunt, Mrs. Mamie Lanier. Miss Isabel Boyd and Messrs. James and Samuel Boyd spent the week-end in Sharon with Miss Sara Harkness. Messrs. Sturkey and McCain of McCormick, were business visitors to Mt. Carmel Monday. Mr. Ben Sutherland of Anderson, spent Saturday night and Sabbath morning in Mt. Carmel with home folks. Mrs. Minnie C. Watson returned home Wednesday from the Anderson Hospital, where she has been for some time. Her many friends are delighted to have her home again. Mr. T. E. Rivers of Greenwood, was a business visitor in Mt. Carmel Monday. Little Gladys Scott has been quite ill with the measles, but we are glad to state that she is very much better now. Capt. and Mrs. James McCelvey of McCormick, spent Sabbath with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. McCelvey. Mt. Carmel had another sensation the past week in a mad goat. It was bitten the same night the mule was bitten. The goat was killed before any damage was done. Mrs. Lucretia Paschal accompanied by Mr. M. T. Wells, went to Columbia last Monday in response to a telegram stating that Capt. Disbut Jackson, her grandson by marriage, was critically ill. A later telegram announced his death. Mr. Wells returned home Wednesday, but Mrs. Paschal is still in Columbia with her granddaughter, Mrs. Jackson, who is critically ill with pneumonia in the Baptist Hospital in Columbia. The news of Capt. Jackson's death was a shock and a grief to his many friends here, where he is well known and loved. He has often visited Mt. Carmel, and each visit would endear himself more to the people of Mt. Carmel. The family have the deepest sympathy of our little town, and we all hope that Mrs. Jackson will soon be restored to health. John White leaves Friday for Portsmouth, where he goes on business for the S. A. L.

Mr. and Mrs. William Addison is spending some days in Due West, the guest of Mrs. Sallie Addison. Miss Louise Smith has returned to her home in Troy, Tenn., after a visit to friends in Due West.

THE SAILOR'S PRAYER.

Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep. I trust that no sailor will take My shoes or sox before I wake. Lord please guard me in my slumber And keep my hammock and its number, May no clues or lashings break And let me down before I wake; Keep me safe within thy sight And grant no fire drills in the night. And in the morning let me wake Breathing the scent of a sirlain steak. God protect me in my dreams And make it better than it seems, Grant that the time will swiftly fly When I myself, will rest on high In a snowy feather bed, Where I long to rest my head; Far away from all these scenes, And the smell of half baked beans; Take me back into the land Where they don't scrub down with sand, Where no demon typhoon blows, Where the women wash the clothes. God, thou knowest all my woes, Help me in my dying stress, Take me back, I will promise then Never to leave home again. Amen.
