

LOWNESVILLE

Lowndesville, March 5.—The outstanding debt on the new $7,000 Methodist church has been liquidated in full. The congregation is to be congratulated upon the completion of their handsome, brick edifice, which is not only an ornament to the town, but is a monument to the loyalty and progressiveness of the Methodist people. Arrangements are being made to hold the dedicatory services on the second Sabbath in April, the 13th. Bishop Darlington, who presides over the diocese of both Carolinas, will conduct the exercises on this occasion and it is expected a large audience will be present.

Dr. and Mrs. Jas. B. Latimer of Charleston, will reach town this week on a visit to his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick. Dr. Latimer belongs to the U. S. N. with the rank of Captain, and has been acting physician and surgeon for the naval unit stationed at Charleston for the past year. Several months ago he was married to Miss Todd, Supt. of Roper Hospital. On account of pressure of duties this is his first furlough since his marriage.

Little Kittie Kay Speer celebrated her fifth birthday by having several of her little friends to spend the afternoon with her. Much to the delight of every one, this sweet little girl has entirely recovered from her severe burns.

Miss Ellen Lawrence has been on a short visit to her father, Dr. J. H. Lawrence, who is stationed at Camp Greene.

Miss Annie Mae Hutchison spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. L. P. Pettigrew, at Barnes.

Mrs. Ella Nance, who has been visiting friends and relatives, has returned to her home at Abbeville.

Mr. Rembert Allen has gone to Washington, D. C., where he will enter a university and further pursue his architectural studies.

Mrs. Maude Simmons Floyd and her little daughter, of Greenville are on a visit to her mother, Mrs. McGregor, near town.

Miss Ruby Ficquette has returned from Leesville, where she taught the past winter.

Mrs. Fanny Speer, with Miss Frances and Jack, spent several days in Anderson last week.

Rev. H. G. White of the Baptist church, will preach at First Creek next Sabbath at 11 o'clock. Mr. White is a hard student, a deep thinker and expounds the Scriptures with force and power.

Mrs. D. K. Cooley has returned from Greenwood and reports Miss Ella Floyd as slowly improving. Miss Annie Liddell has gone to Greenwood to remain with Miss Floyd un-

Messrs. M. B. and Clarence Kay spent Monday night at Antreville with Mr. C. G. Kay.

Mrs. Tom Ables left Monday morning for Elberton, Ga., to visit Mrs. Tuppy Boyd. Mrs. Boyd went to Georgia to visit her daughter, Mrs. K. I. Bryant, and while there she contracted influenza and has been unable to return home. Her friends hope she will soon recover and return to Santuc.

Misses Annie and Louise Kay visited little Frances Kay Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Culbreth and little daughter spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Culbreth.

Miss Lila Morrison spent Monday afternoon with Miss Mary Kay. Her friends will be glad to know that she has recovered from an attack of the flu.

Mr. W. E. Morrison is visiting the Messrs. Munday near Hodges this week.

Washington, March 4.—Failure of congress before final adjournment today to take any action on pending bills providing for repeal of the daylight saving act made certain that the nation's clocks again would be advanced an hour during the period between the last Sunday in March and the last Sunday in October.

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Apply few drops then lift sore, touchy corns off with fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Freezone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic!

A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Freezone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.—Adv.
