

Women— your influence Sells Bonds

The success of a campaign of this kind is only partially achieved outside the home, for an hour of talking and lecturing won't sway a man as quickly as will one minute of his wife's persuasion.

You realize the importance of the bonds—the necessity for insuring peace—the value of the investment. Make him see it, too.

Traveling Man Says "Thought My Time Had Come"

"Had Given Up Hope of Ever Being Well Again. It is Awful to Feel That You Have No Chance, But Dreco Changed it All."

"I cannot fully express my appreciation of what Dreco has done and is still doing for me," declared Mr. Jas. T. Brockerr, the well known traveling salesman who "covers" Georgia, but whose home is in Greenwood, S. C. He gave this statement at Palmer & Sons Drug Store in Athens a few days ago.

"It is no wonder to me the enormous sale Dreco has, since I know some of its powers," he continued. "For I feel that it has actually saved my life and it deserves the highest praise any one can give it."

"I have spent thousands of dollars in search of health. Every stomach remedy I heard of, I bought, I had catarrh of the stomach and nothing ever did me any good but this Dreco. My kidneys were weak and my liver inactive, but the great Dreco has remedied all the ills. Nothing is too good for me to say—in fact, I don't know how to make it strong enough."

To keep the health up to the highest standard, one must keep his stomach in perfect order so that he can digest and assimilate the food properly, thereby eliminating dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, gas on the stomach, backache, sallow complexion, dark rings under the eyes; in fact, all the symptoms that follow stomach disorders. Dreco, the herbal tonic, gives the desired results in these distressing symptoms.

Dreco is now sold by all good druggists throughout the country, and is highly recommended in Abbeville, by P. B. Speed.—Adv.

LOWNDESVILLE

Lowndesville, April 23.—Mrs. Lucia Epps Dent died at her husband's home in Columbia, April 16th, in the 71st year of her age, after having been in failing health for several months. Mrs. Dent has made her home in Columbia since her second marriage about ten years ago. During the life time of her first husband, Mr. Samuel Epps, she lived in this community and by her industrious and upright life, left an impress for good upon the lives of her friends and neighbors. Having no children of her own, she adopted and reared an orphan child, who is now Mrs. Henry Carlisle, a noble Christian woman, who is an honor to Mrs. Dent's training and who speaks of her foster-mother in terms of deep gratitude and tenderest love. Mrs. Dent was a member of the Methodist church and adorned her profession by a consecrated life full of deeds of kindness and sacrifices for others. The body was not brought to her former home for burial, but was interred in the Dent cemetery near Columbia.

Mr. George Fields died April 19th at his home near Harper's Ferry in the 76th year of his age, after a short illness from heart trouble. In his young manhood he connected himself with the Baptist church and gave four years of his life to the cause of the Confederacy, and his comrades say he was a faithful soldier. Through all the hardships and vicissitudes of his long life, he, probably did the very best he could, and was an industrious, peaceable citizen. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. F. Anderson, and the body laid to rest in the Ridge cemetery.

Much to the regret of the town and surrounding community, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Fennell have moved to Abbeville to make their home. Dr. Fennell had been practicing dentistry here for several years and was meeting with much success. He is a splendid up-to-date dentist and is thoroughly equipped in every way. He is a graduate of an Atlanta Dental College and practiced in Savannah several years before coming to Lowndesville. Several weeks ago, he spent some time in Atlanta studying new methods and new drugs used in dental surgery. Every body is sorry to lose him and his estimable wife, but as he was seeking a larger town and a broader field in which to operate, Lowndesville's loss is Abbeville's gain.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kirkpatrick of Donalds, is the guest of the family of her son, Dr. T. O. Kirkpatrick. Mrs. Kirkpatrick is a sweet, gentle lady of the ante-bellum days, whose genial nature and interesting conversational power, gain for her a warm welcome among her acquaintances on her annual visit to her son.

Mrs. W. P. Whitmire of Hendersonville, N. C., has been a visitor at the home of his cousins, Mrs. D. K. Cooley and Miss Ella Floyd.

Miss Annie Nickles, one of Greenwood's sweetest and prettiest school girls, spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. M. P. McCalla.

Mr. A. M. Bonds is placing lumber and brick on the lot adjoining McNair's shop, for the erection of a garage, which will be conducted by Messrs. Harper and Nixon.

A few of the Confederate soldiers and several of the World-war soldiers were in Abbeville last Thursday participating in the festivities of Soldier Day. They all speak in glowing terms of Abbeville and the splendid dinner served them by the Red Cross workers.

Mrs. Mary Miller Bell, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Louise, who has nursed her mother so faithfully during her long illness, has gone to Anderson, where she is taking treatment from Dr. Carter, an Osteopath.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Bell, April 18th, 1919, a daughter.

Mrs. Ada McAdams and her interesting little children of Iva, have been visitors for the past week at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Fennell.

Mrs. Bessie Baskin Simpson and her little son of McCormick, are the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Baskin.

Mrs. Jas. Hawthorne of Latimer, was a recent visitor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Meseley Huckabee, who has been in failing health for over two years, but her general condition is greatly improved at present.

Rev. J. A. Clotfelter has gone to Laurens to attend the Presbytery, which is in session at that place.

Dr. Kirkpatrick has purchased a Studebaker car, and Mr. Willie Broadwell is driving a fine No. Six Buick.

Friends of Mr. DeWitte Harper will be interested to know that the naval unit to which he belongs, has been ordered to New York, with the expectation of being sent to a foreign port in the near future.

Shoppers to Anderson this week are Rev. and Mrs. Clotfelter, Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. Boozer Bonds, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Broadwell, Dr. Kirkpatrick and two daughters, Misses Virginia and Lucille.

Mr. Arthur Sutherland and Miss Sarah Simpson of Monterey, were married by Rev. H. C. Fennell a few days since, in the presence of quite a large crowd that had gathered at the manse to see the marriage rites performed. While the home of Rev. Fennell is not so well known as the old Gretna Green of matrimonial fame, yet it is so very popular as a Hymeneal resort, that he is fast becoming known as the "marrying parson" of Abbeville County, and doubtless, he has officiated at more marriages than any other minister of this county.

LES MISERABLES.

William Lyon Phelps Lampson, Professor English Literature of Yale University, was so impressed by the William Fox picturization of LES MISERABLES, with William Farnum playing the part of the immortal Jean Valjean which will be shown at the Opera House Thursday, May 1st, that he wrote a letter of commendation to Mr. Fox.

"I was deeply affected by LES MISERABLES," wrote Professor Phelps. "The artistic and spiritual values of the great novel are both preserved to a remarkable degree in the adaptation; and the acting is excellent. I wish everyone in America could see this picture."

Discussing the production, Prof. Phelps said the educational value of such pictures as LES MISERABLES would not be over estimated.
