SCHEDULE THIRTIETH DIVISION SPECIAL

According to a schedule received yesterday from Columbia, the Thirtieth Division Special will reach Abbeville next Monday, April 28th, at 3:15 P. M., over the Southern from Greenwood, and will leave at 4:30 P. M., over the Seaboard for Greenwood.

HONORING THE BRIDE.

Miss Margaret Cothran entertained at a pleasant card party Tuesday complimentary to Miss Antoinette Thomson, whose marriage to Mr. Joe Little will be the social event of next week. Twelve young people gathered to do honor to the charming bride and spent their time in the enjoyment of several lively games of cards.

After the games a salad course with mint sherbert was served and at the close of the afternoon the bride-to-be was presented with a handsome piece of lingerie.

The occasion was most pleasant and was enjoyed by the following young ladies: Miss Antoinette Thomson, Mrs. Willie Speed, Mrs. Wilson Johnson, Mrs. Goode Thomson, Jr., Mrs. W. Joel Smith and Misses Mary Charles Link, Mary Lawson Link, Lydia Miller, Janie Morse, Sarah Perrin, Charlotte Brown, Mrs. Otto Bristow and Mrs. J. M. Morgan.

The party given by Miss Mary Q. Link on Wednesday was the second in the series of pleasant entertainments given to Miss Thomson. Cards were the amusement here and in addition to the young ladies named above, Miss Link has as her guests, Miss Fannie Stark, Mrs. Benjamin Maulzby, Mrs. Jas. Sherard and Miss Mammie Bowie.

Delightful refreshments of salads and cream was served at the close of the games.

Mrs. Wilson Johnson was hostess Thursday morning to a party of sixteen young ladies who did honor to the bride-to-be and enjoyed a happy hour or two playing rook. After the games attractive plates of salads were served. The morning was a pleasant one to all who attended.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. S. G. Thomson, Jr., opened her pretty home and entertained the bride and a party of merry friends.

This morning Miss Janie Morse will entertain for Miss Thomson and the round of pleasure will round up with a charming party given Tuesday by Miss Sarah Perrin.

Little Miss Marie Langley entertained a few of her young friends on last Saturday afternoon at an Easter egg hunt. The excitement of hunting eggs, and many interesting games were very much enjoyed.

The feature was suggested by dainty marshmallows and candy eggs accompanying the other refreshments. Every body had a good time and departed feeling very grateful to the hostess for the happy hours together. May they all live to enjoy many more such pleasant occasions.
