APPEAL FOR THE #### RESCUE ORPHANAGE

The Rev. Carlisle Courtney, head of the Rescue Orphanage, Columbia, made an appeal for his work at the Baptist church Sunday morning and at the Methodist church Sunday night.

IN THE THICK OF IT.

All of us were in the thick of it because all of us were doing our best to accomplish victory. All of us however, do not bear the marks.

Whether in the uniform or not every American responded to the appeal of the country, and early peace was the reward.

Some gave their lives. Many bear marks that signify sacrifice of less degree. A scar is what a large number of them received from their part in the war.

If your part had been financial assistance, you were in the thick of it also. Do you, however, bear any mark as the result of your sacrifice, or, is a substantial bank account, accumulated by the war's lesson in economy, what you received from your part in the war.

Americans have done their part wonderfully. All are not distinguished by scars, thanks to the spirit with which the nation entered the fight.

Keep up that spirit especially at this time, and make the Victory Liberty Loan the greatest victory in government loans.
