Two Birthdays.

All good little girls very soon reach the age when they celebrate their birthday. Julia Barnwell has reached her third mile-post and last Friday invited her little friends in to celebrate the day. A souvenir doll was given each little girl guest which proved to be a stick of candy with a marshmallow for a face. Many games were played and the cakes and cream served as refreshments delighted the little folks. There was a cake with three candles for Julia and one with one candle for Benjamin Smith who was born on the same day and was just one year old.

Home Again.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson are in the city from Springfield spending some time with Miss Maggie Brooks and other relatives. This is their first visit since their marriage and they are receiving a warm welcome.

Wins Scholarship.

Ralph Lyon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alf Lyon, of this city, has been awarded the four year scholarship at the South Carolina Military Academy. Ralph was the only applicant for the appointment, and his examination being satisfactory, he received the appointment. He is a member of the last year's tenth grade in the High School, and stood among the foremost in his classes, and will reflect credit on his home town when he takes up his work at the Citadel. He is to be congratulated.

Visiting in Troy.

Mrs. W. P. Kennedy and young Pat returned to their home in Troy Sunday after a short visit with Mrs. M. T. Coleman. Mrs. Eugenia C. Hemphill went down to Troy with Mrs. Kennedy and will spend some time with her.

From Columbia.

Hon. J. Fraser Lyon and Fraser McDill came up from Columbia Saturday morning and spent a day or two in town. Mr. Lyon came on business, while Fraser was on pleasure bent.

At Linwood.

Rev. M. R. Plaxco is taking a vacation and is in attendance upon the Conference at Linwood. There were no services in the A. R. P. church Sabbath.

Visitors From Columbia.

Mrs. W. R. Bradley, accompanied by little Miss Elizabeth and Teophilo Bradley, are in the city for a ten days visit to Mrs. C. H. McMurray. They are meeting with a warm welcome from their old friends.

Buys a Home.

Mr. R. G. Hagen who recently sold about two hundred acres of his farm lands near the city, has purchased the Gary Home place on Magazine street and will move here during the fall or winter. The purchase price of the place was about $4500, which price shows a considerable profit over the sale price of a few months ago.

Prof. and Mrs. D. H. Henry of Clemson College, were in the city a few days last week visiting Mrs. Francis Henry.

DAVIS-HEMPHILL.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized this morning at the Associated Reformed Presbyterian Church, when Miss Milwee Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davis, and Mr. James C. Hemphill were married, Rev. J. T. Young performing the ceremony.

Simple but artistic and beautiful were the decorations; ferns, palms and quantities of asparagus forming a pretty background for the wedding party. Before the ceremony, Mrs. E. F. Jay sweetly sang, "I'll Go With You to the End of the World and Then to the World Beyond," accompanied by Miss Carrie Hagan at the piano. The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus. The ushers were Messrs. Emmette Davis, George H. Davis, Robert H. Coleman and Capt. Wm. L. Hemphill and were first to enter followed by the brides maids, Misses Josephine Kerr, Neel Reynolds, Mary Kennedy and Virginia Barksdale. They wore dainty frocks of white georgette with picture hats and carried asters. The honor maid was Miss Addie Bell Davis, young sister of the bride. She was prettily dressed in a pink georgette with pink hat and carried pink Kilmory roses. The bride was appropriately dressed in a blue taffeta dress with georgette coatee and pretty blue georgette hat. She entered with her father and was met by the groom with his best man, Mr. Gottlob Neuffer.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hemphill left for a motor trip through the mountains of North Carolina, after which they will be at home at the Moreland until their new home is completed, the foundation of which is being laid today.

Among the out-of-town guests present were: Hon. and Mrs. W. P. Greene, Miss Mary Greene and Wm. Greene, Jr., Mrs. Hemphill, mother of the groom, Mrs. Gertrude Sign, Mrs. D. A. Rogers, of Abbeville; Major and Mrs. J. Calvin Hemphill, of Spartanburg; Mr. and Mrs. Jno. R. Cheatham, of McCormick; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Long, of Greenville; Mrs. W. P. Kennedy, Mrs. Ivan Solomons, Miss Mary Kennedy, Alice and Ellet Dendy, Julia Jay, Daisy Gable and Mrs. Lois Cuddy, of Troy.—Greenwood Index-Journal.

Col. White Arrives.

Col. T. G. White arrived in the city Monday morning from Tennessee, where he purchased a carload of fine horses, mares and mules. These are expected to arrive here not later than 27th, at which time the Colonel will be able to offer his friends some substantial bargains. He tells us that mules are higher than ever, and that a man who owns a pair such as he sold some of the Abbeville County farmers in the spring is now liable to be arrested as a malefactor of great wealth. He saw one pair for which $900 was asked, and several pairs at $700, and they were nothing to brag on.

Meeting at Court House.

Miss L. C. Trax, organizer from National Equal Suffrage Association, will be in Abbeville today (Tuesday) and wishes to confer with the women of the town and the men who are interested in planning what the Southern women are going to do when suffrage is forced upon them. This meeting will be in the Court House at 6 o'clock this afternoon.

High Priced Land.

Mr. W. F. Nickles has purchased from J. Allen Smith the plantation within the city limits lying on the Due West road, and running across the branch to Main Street. The purchase price of the place is stated to be $150 per acre, which is the highest price yet paid for land in this section, except perhaps in a land trade. The land is highly improved, and is a very desirable place.

Rev. J. N. Isom Stricken.

The State of Thursday carried the news of the serious illness of Rev. J. N. Isom, who was stricken with paralysis Sunday night, Aug. 17th at the close of a successful meeting at Travelers Rest. He was taken to the city Hospital in Greenville. Rev. Isom preached in Abbeville county some years ago and is well known to many of our people, who will regret to hear of his illness.

Home On a Visit.

Mrs. James H. Austin came up from Bennettsville Friday and is spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Lila Mabry. Her friends are delighted to have her come home.

At the Wedding.

Miss Rebecca Jones was a visitor at the Huff-Nettles wedding in Ninety-Six last week.

As I was

As I am

"Some time ago my wife's health failed and her nerves go so bad that two hours was considered a good night's sleep for her," says Mr. John Butler of Boak, Ala., Route No. 8.
"No matter how careful she was about her food it always disagreed. She had a full feeling in her chest, a heavy dull pain in her stomach and was full of gas all the time. She was very bilious all the time and had to be taking medicine constantly. She was badly constipated and would go days without an action."
"But things are different now. I've never seen any medicine bring a person out like Dreco has my wife. She feels good all the time, takes interest in everything, sleeps all night long; stomach troubles are over with, and the constipation entirely relieved."
Dreco is made from juices and extracts of many medicinal herbal plants, which act on the vital organs in a pleasant and prompt manner.
