OCTOBER MEETING OF ABBEVILLE CHAPTER U. D. C.

The October meeting of Abbeville Chapter U. D. C. on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. C. Gambrell, began a new season of work with an enthusiasm, which bespeaks much for the coming months. Reports from officers and committees showed the chapter in splendid condition, and the addition of new members sufficient to bring the membership to seventy, thus giving the chapter three delegates to the state convention, makes it one of the most influential in the South Carolina Division.

Plans were made for a box to be sent to the convalescent soldiers at Camp Jackson next week, and a committee was appointed to arrange for an exchange in November. The most important business of the meeting was in connection with compiling the records of the descendants of Confederate Veterans, who served in the World War. A number of records had been received, and a committee was appointed to complete the work, as soon as possible.

Mrs. J. F. Bradley and Mrs. L. C. Parker were appointed delegates to the General Convention at Tampa, Fla., in November.

After all business was concluded, the chapter enjoyed one of the most delightful social hours that has ever been arranged for a meeting. Mrs. Gambrell had decorated her rooms with service flags belonging to the members, and against this beautiful background were placed the pictures of Confederate soldiers, who fought for States Rights, and of the "chips-off-the-old-block," who fought for Self-determination.

Instead of the usual program of Confederate history, the records of the soldiers of the World War, collected so far were read. Some were records of men, who left wife and children at home, and some were mere boys, fresh from the school room; the Army, the Navy and the Marines, were all represented, and every record was a splendid one, as befitted the descendant of a Confederate soldier. At the close of the afternoon, Mrs. Gambrell served a delicious salad course with coffee.

This was one of the largest meetings the chapter has ever had, as well as one of the most pleasant.

MARIE MORISSEY, CONTRALTO.

To Sing in Abbeville, Thursday, Oct. 30th.

Announcement is made to Abbeville music lovers that Miss Marie Morissey will give a concert in Abbeville, Thursday night, October 30, at the Opera House.

Marie Morissey is one of our real American singers. Her family has been in this country as long as anybody else's! And she has had a strictly American education. She is a pupil of Dudley Buck under whom she studied for four years. She proves in convincing fashion that a singer can reach a high degree of development under American tutelage.

Miss Morissey has made a specialty of songs sung in English. And that meant studying English diction with special care, for one of the reasons English is not so melodious as some other languages, in Miss Morissey's opinion, is because we are careless in our speech. Mr. Dudley Buck did more than teach Miss Morissey how to use her voice correctly. He also taught her to treat her own language "respectfully," as she herself puts it.

"The English language may not be so soft and melodious as some other languages," declares Miss Morissey, "but it suits me"—and she says this with the pride befitting a true daughter of the American Revolution, which she is.

Residents of Abbeville will agree with Miss Morissey when they hear her sing some of the American songs. She is particularly enthusiastic about songs by American composers, and no recital of hers is complete without some of them.

Next week's concert promises to be a splendid addition to the list of treats the music "fans" of Abbeville have enjoyed in the past. Miss Morissey's voice is finer than ever—a rich, sweet contralto. And the long and arduous training it has received in the concerts Miss Morissey has given to the soldiers in hospitals and camps, has added a new power to her voice.

Thursday's concert will be an invitation affair, but musically inclined Abbeville is sure to be fully represented.

GOMPERS ILL: HAS NERVOUS ATTACK WITH HIGH FEVER

Washington, Oct. 15.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, is confined to his home here in a state of nervous exhaustion. His temperature this morning was 101 degrees and his physician has ordered him to remain in bed.

Announcement of Mr. Gompers' breakdown was made by his secretary when the national industrial conference convened today. He issued the following statement:

"Mr. Gompers returned home from the industrial conference last evening very exhausted and went immediately to bed. His physician, Dr. Henry Parker, was called in to see him. He found Mr. Gompers in a state of nervous exhaustion with a temperature of 101. The doctor said it would be absolutely necessary for Mr. Gompers to remain in bed."

Mr. Gompers' illness results, labor leaders said, from months of unremitting work at home and abroad in connection with the peace treaty, the international labor congress at Amsterdam and the steel strike.

The veteran labor leader was stricken when he reached his home last night after delivering an attack in the industrial conference on the United States Steel corporation for its refusal to deal with the steel strike committee. His friends recalled that the day was the first anniversary of the death of his daughter and they said this fact probably aggravated his condition.

Those who heard Mr. Gompers' impassioned address in the conference yesterday, realized he was laboring under a tremendous nervous strain and the announcement of his illness did not come as a surprise to his associates in the labor group.

CAPTURE BIG STILL CLOSE TO PIEDMONT

Constables Rhinecocks, Kay and Davis made a raid on Sunday morning about three and half miles from Piedmont, S. C., capturing a large illicit distillery. They brought the still to Williamston and telephoned Sheriff Sanders to come for it. Sheriff Sanders brought the still to Anderson last night and while in Williamston made an investigation, hoping to find some trace of the persons who have been operating this distillery.

According to the officers, the still was well hidden, and was one of the most complete that has been captured in Anderson county in some time. The distillery was of about 75 gallon capacity and though it was not in use at the time of the capture, officers stated that it seemed to have been in use not later than Friday, judging from the appearance of the mash and litter around the still.

No arrests were made in this case.—The Daily Mail.

LOCATE ALL WHO HAVE MADE ERRORS IN RETURNS

A special drive to locate merchants and manufacturers who have followed erroneous methods in making their inventories for the taxable years 1917 and 1918—such methods tending to reduce tax liability—is about to be made by the Bureau of Internal Revenue, it was announced today.

In cases of voluntary disclosures before investigation of failure to make proper return and payment, the policy of the Bureau, it was stated, will be to forego penalties except where there is intentional evasion of the tax. Where discovery is made by Government Officers heavy penalties will apply.

In some cases inventories have been found to have been taken on the basis of average costs, though it was possible to identify the articles remaining on hand at the inventory period, and so determine their exact cost. In others, because of conservative accounting methods, flat percentages have been deducted after determining inventory values. Others used a fixed average, based upon costs of prior years, or fail to include all merchandise to which they have title in their inventory.

All of these methods, which have the effect of reducing tax liability, are contrary to the regulations of the Bureau and are illustrative, it was said, of numerous irregularities which have been found.

A warning issued by the Bureau advises taxpayers who have followed such methods to file correct returns without notice and without investigation. Some taxpayers have voluntarily notified the Bureau of the Employment of incorrect methods, and are filing amended returns. It is only fair to these taxpayers, the Bureau states, that their competitors who have made similar errors should be located.
