

LOWNESVILLE.

Lowndesville, Oct. 30.—The Chautauqua comes Friday, Oct. 31st. Everybody is on the qui vive, hoping and expecting great things this year, as the different companies come highly recommended. Members of the Civic League will sell cream in the auditorium before and after each entertainment every day for the benefit of the school. The High School girls will have a "grab bag" which will be a source of fun and laughter as well as profit. It is earnestly requested that the neighboring communities patronize the Chautauqua, thereby helping the town to make it a permanent institution, coming to us every year with its lectures, music and first class entertainment in every way.

Mrs. Emma Latimer left last Saturday for Abbeville, where she will make her home with her sister, Mrs. Ella Latimer. The entire town is saddened over her removal, few women had more friends than she. Her genial, optimistic spirit combined with her sympathetic interest in others, drew people to her and won the friendship of all who knew her. She will be greatly missed in the churches and homes of the town, and hearts will be saddened when they no longer see, in its accustomed places, the face of the sweet, sympathetic woman who has gone in and out among the people, in times of joy and amid seasons of sorrow for the past twenty years.

Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Anderson left Tuesday for Williamston, where they will make their home. Rev. Anderson has served, most acceptably, a two years' pastorate here and because of his age will retire from continuous work in the ministry. He has been engaged in the service for more than 35 years and will continue to serve as a relief, when his strength will permit. He and his estimable family carry with them the good wishes and prayers of all the denominations. The benign spirituality, that radiated like a sweet incense from the hallowed lives of this good man and his saintly wife, will live in the hearts of the people.

On last Sabbath, the remains of Mr. John McNair, who died in Anderson, were interred at Smyrna cemetery. He lived here several years ago, and had many friends who will regret to learn of his death.

Mrs. Walter of Greenwood, has been on a short visit to Rev. and Mrs. H. G. White.

The school building was wired last Tuesday and the Civic League is busy arranging to place a piano, permanently, in the auditorium.

Mrs. J. C. Keys of Anderson, has been the pleasant visitor for a few days, of his niece, Mrs. Weston Harper.

Mr. DeWitt Harper, a Wofford Junior, spent the week-end at home, with Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Barnes.

Miss Ellen Tennent has been enjoying the comforts of rural life for the past week with her friend, Mrs. J. W. McCalla at her home on the Savannah.

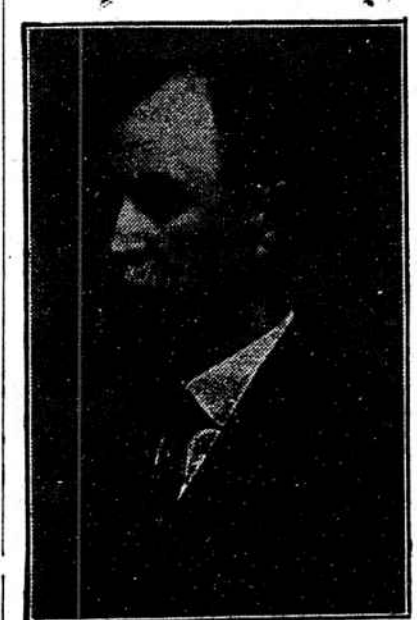

Col. and Mrs. Morse, with Miss Louise Cunningham, have returned to their home in Washington, after a most delightful visit to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Cunningham.

Friends of Miss Rosa Wharton were grieved to hear of her death last week at her home near Iva. She had visited friends and relatives here often, and none knew her, but to love her and admire her beautiful, Christian character.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bowman of Honea Path, were recent visitors of his father, Mr. W. L. Bowman and family. Mrs. Elizabeth Lockhart returned home with them after an extended visit to relatives.

Friends of Mr. Hampton Bonds will be sorry to know that he is confined to his room from illness. Miss Veva Bonds is substituting for him at the bank during his absence.
