SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat, which clogs Kidneys, then Back hurts and Bladder bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here—take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clear thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says: "I sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble."

A KING AND LOVE.

(Translated from French.)

Know you what I, a king, all ardent seek,
Thru night and day unceasing crase?
'Tis love!
A crown I wear, and this should me suffice,
"A king a joyous heart should hear,"
'Tis easy said!
Alas! if I lack this, I then lack all.

I have a thousand men, but not one love,
A kingdom, but no woman's heart and soul.

The loves of other men I see: their low
Notes, call in shady groves. The tell-tale blood
Speaks in each face. Adored, they me outrank.

Men love me now for noise of fame, the gold
I fling, the scepter that I bear, the throne I have;
And yet no power I have to bring this dream,
That one fair maid shall love me for myself,
Because that I am I, a man, and not the king!

And why does one crave you, elusive love?
To you is due the clasping hand, the mating vow,
The sacred nest, the pain of birth, You lend the eye its light, the brow its pride,
The heart its strength, the soul its height.

If one loves not, what means the sun with useless flame,
And April with her opening door, Sweet May
Who pours her cup and makes the trees to flower?
What matters song of bird or sigh of wind
Or forest shade, if one loves not.
—Teacher of English.

THE TEACHER.

(From the Chicago Record-Herald.)
When Harold runs away from school,
And steals down to the swimming-pool,
Whom do we hold in ridicule?
The teacher!

If Willie's wild and Tommie's tame,
Or Ned is nervous, it's a shame!
And who is sure to get the blame?
The teacher!

Who is too lax, or too severe,
Too weak, or prone to rule by fear,
Too cranky, notional, or queer?
The teacher!

Who's this on the cartoonist's page,
So lean and sharp and sour with age,
With spectacles and bird and cage?
The teacher!

And when the funny writer folks,
Set out the reader's smile to coax,
On whom does Johnnie play the jokes?
The teacher!

And yet when Tommie, Jack and Ned
Have reached the heights, and years have fled,
They find they followed where she led,—

The teacher!
Her young heart beats the march of Fate,
Her dreams come true, or soon or late,
She is guardian of the Great White Gate!
The teacher!

Report of Home Demonstration Agent

On Monday, Feb. 16. Poultry and Canning clubs were organized at Little Mountain. I went to Edgewood but found school closed. Worked in office remainder of the day.

Tuesday, organized Midway Poultry Club at Campbell school. This club has 14 members has elected officers and will raise many white wyandotte chickens. I then met with the Home Demonstration Club at Brownlee. This club won first prize last year and has made a good beginning for 1920.

Wednesday, organized Poultry Club at Sharon; made places for meeting with South Side Demonstration Club.

Thursday, went to Due West to organize clubs but found school quarantined because of influenza. Organized Poultry and Canning Club at Donalds and Vermilion.

Friday, organized Poultry Club of 13 members at Antreville, also organized canning club. Met with Home Demonstration Club at Antreville. Twenty-six women gave their names as members for 1920. This club is determined to do much good work this year.

Saturday, worked in office. Following is schedule for week ending Feb. 28:

Monday office work.
Tuesday, office work. Miss Bailey, Ass't Home Demonstration Agent will come to Abbeville for several day work in county.

Wednesday, will organize clubs at Warrenton and Monterey. Will meet with Women's Club at Monterey—Subject, "Economy in Clothing"—Miss Bailey.

Thursday, organize clubs at Santuc, Arborville and Cold Springs.

Co. Home Dem. Agent.

CLEMSON COLLEGE NEWS

Clemson College, February, 22.—The Clemson Five beat the Georgia Tech Five by a score of forty to seventeen, in a lively game of basketball Saturday. The victory was celebrated Saturday evening by a bonfire and snake dance.

The dance, given by the Ladies

School Improvement Association, Friday evening February 20, was quite a success. Albert Leslie came up from Abbeville and participated in the pleasures of the evening. Other Abbeville boys present were: Alpheus Leslie, Andrew Hill, William Hughes and George Cann.

The flu and mumps situation, while not improving, is no worse. To date, there are twenty-seven cases of flu and forty-eight cases of mumps. So far there has been no pneumonia. Dick Swetenburg, the star half back of the Sophomore foot-ball team was sorely missed in the game with the Seniors Saturday. He is sick with the mumps, but is improving and it is hoped that will see him on the campus again in a few days.
