BROADWAY'S KICK IS JAZZ MUSIC

New York, March 6.—As if to prove that Broadway can take its liquor or leave it alone, New York and his girl are crowding the temples of the great god, jazz, in larger numbers than ever before. Prohibition has made no more impression on amusement industry than a split pea shot against armor of a battleship.

Tonight we are promised a "positive sensation, direct from the sultan's harem," when Fatima, exponent of "daring oriental dances," will do her little turn at the golden glades. From all advance accounts it sees that harem girls have a little shimie number that makes the gyrations of the old-time girl in pink resemble the pious gestures of religious refuse. New York and his girl will have to see Fatima.

Generally speaking, the cabaret has developed into a very pleasant ous entertainment called the "revue" for lack of a more pact name. The dance halls are blossoming out in her tinsel glories and the young people are swarming to them because there are no waiters to tip, and an evening's fun may not come to more than $4 or $5.

Reisenweber's Cafe, which has three floors, is crowded every night and is supporting a revue company of forty five singers and dancers by means of a cover charge of 50 cents. This afternoon a new company of girls was rehearsing the numbers of a show that is to break loose on the amusement hungry people of New York next Monday night.

A New Crop of "Wit."
 The star song of the act, to the tune of "Torreadoro," goes something like this:
 "Torreadoro rambled on the scene; Three Spanish onions hit him on the bean."

The producer, Max Rogers, who supplies similar shows to the hotels in a half dozen big cities, explained that the new songs are wittier than the old ones. In the past people were more tolerant of inane dialogue because they could anaesthize themselves with liquor, he said.

Within a couple of blocks of one another three great dance halls are booming. Roseland, Jazzland and Broadway Gardens, draw thousands of dancers every night and Saturday night the traffic is so heavy that boys and girls form a long line waiting to get into Roseland that extends down Broadway.

Even Supply the Partners
 Jazzland and the Broadway Gardens are in basements. Like Wilson's academy, Jazzland is for men only—that is, the house supplies the partners, who are called "instructresses" and Roseland has 175 house partners who are ready to wait with unaccompanied customers, 125 being girls and fifty men.

Such dance halls are raising the nickel and dime to the status of money, the average price of a dance

DRY GOODS ASSOCIATION OPENS ITS CAMPAIGN
 New York, March 6.—The National Retail Dry Goods Association opened its campaign against profiteers today by placing large posters in all buyers offices in New York, urging its members to resist price advances and insist on deliveries. The merchants are asked to report all "unfair manufacturers and wholesalers" to the department of justice.

The action of the association, it was announced, is in response to the request of Howard E. Figg, assistant attorney general of the United States, for its cooperation in eliminating profiteering.

NO ALIBIS ARE ACCEPTABLE IN INCOME TAX RETURNS

Washington, March 6.—Alibis of the negligent will not be accepted as excuses to escape penalty for failure to file income tax returns for 1919, the bureau of internal revenue announced today. Statements must be in by Monday, March 15th.

"Did not know" or "forgot about it and similar pleas will be of no avail to the tardy, the bureau said, but a person who is physically unable to get his returns in on time because of illness, may secure a thirty day extension on application to the collector of his district. Returns must be made by every person who had a net income for 1919 of $1,000 or over, if single, or of $2,000 or over, if married.

An Anti-Palmer Party.
 Philadelphia, Pa., March 6.—Representatives of the faction in the Democratic party in Pennsylvania opposed to the leadership of Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer met here today and planned a ticket to oppose candidates supported by the Palmer faction at the party. Judge Samuel B.

Shull, of Monroe, Mr. Palmer's home county, was chairman of the meeting. A Question of Scorched Liquor.
 Shreveport, La., March 6.—Jesse Johnson, prohibition enforcement officer for Louisiana, has been asked to decide whether the owner of whiskey rescued from his home while the raiding was on fire is entitled to recover the liquor.
