GIVING A PARTY

Little Misses Frances and Mildred McCombs gave a party Thursday afternoon to thirty of their little friends among the girls of their age. They spent the evening in playing "drop the handkerchief," thimble and other games of childhood. At the end of a perfect afternoon ice cream and cake were served.

D. A. R. BRIDGE PARTY

Committee No. 1 of the local chapter D. A. R. gave a progressive bridge party at the home of Miss Nettie Russell Tuesday afternoon. About twenty guests were present. The prize, a large box of candy, was won by Mrs. S. G. Thomson and the consolation, an immense bouquet of sweet peas, was won by Miss Jessie Hill.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Wyatt Aiken and Mrs. W. A. Harris.

MISS JESSIE HILL ENTERTAINS.

Miss Jessie Hill entertained the Ladies' Society of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church at its regular meeting Thursday afternoon. There was an excellent attendance of members and the affairs of the society were reported in excellent shape. A children's party will be given soon. The society voted to join the Missionary Union of the church and the Union paper will be taken. Mrs. John L. Hemphill, who was a visitor, told of the work in her chapter at White Oak, Ga. Miss Jessie Hill as hostess welcomed the society to her new home and after serving delightful sandwiches and tea showed her friends over the house.

The afternoon was a most pleasant one.

HARRIS-McNEILL.

Mr. Charles McNeill, of Abbeville, and Mrs. Myrtle Harris, of Madisonville, Ky., were married at 11:30 o'clock Thursday, June third, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Cochran in this city. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Louis J. Bristow, of the Baptist Church in the presence of a few intimate friends.

The bride has many friends in Abbeville who will be glad to know that she will be a permanent resident of the city in the future. She came to Abbeville several years ago as assistant to Mrs. Cochran in her millinery store, and has been here each season since that time. Those who have known her have been impressed with her womanly qualities as well as her good sense and judgment. Mr. McNeill has been a salesman in the store of W. D. Barksdale for nearly twenty years. No young man has established a better reputation for industry and faithfulness to his employer's business than has he. He is a young man of fine qualities and a future of useful work is before him.

The bridal couple left over the fast Seaboard train for points in Kentucky where they will visit among the relatives of the bride for two weeks, after which they expect to return to Abbeville and begin house-keeping at their home on Parker Street. Their neighbors on that street and on Greenville street will be glad to know that they are not to lose Mr. McNeill and they will account the bride a very desirable addition to the good people who already dwell in that section.

THE WORKING SOCIETY

Mrs. C. S. Jones entertained the Ladies Working Society of the Methodist church very pleasantly at her home on Tuesday afternoon at five o'clock.

During the business session splendid reports from the Finance Committees were made.

The ladies were delighted to have Miss Maggie Latimer with them again after an absence of several months. Refreshments were enjoyed at the close of the meeting.

The society will meet with Mrs. J. M. Anderson in July.
