

VISITORS FROM DUE WEST

Messrs J. R. McGee, E. W. Hagan, J. R. Winn and Capt. Armstrong were here Saturday from Due West on business. Mr. McGee was making preparations to have a public demonstration of harrows, tractors, etc on his farm near Due West next Saturday.

DIXIE HIGHWAY IS TO GO THROUGH DONALDS

The citizens of Donalds recently met to decide whether or not they were willing to sacrifice some of their shade trees for the purpose of allowing the Dixie highway to go through the town. An overwhelming majority voted for the cutting of the trees, and giving the highway the right of way. A vote of 31 to 4 was declared as a result of the meeting.

DUFF CLAMP SAYS IT

Col. McDuffie Clamp, farmer and philosopher, was here Saturday. He got into a crowd of poor down-trodden farmers who were bewailing their unfortunate plight under the reign of the boll weevil. Duff listened the thing through and then remarked that, "I aint a-skeered of them bollweevile, the ones what gits me is these here two legged white boll weevils what cuts the cotton on the street; they bore for the percent."

A GROSS OVERSIGHT.

Son Bill thinks that the Spartanburg Journal is not what it is cracked up to be. Last Friday the Abbeville High School team played its first game of football and cleaned up the Elberton team by a score of 21 to 6. Saturday night Bill looked the Journal over and then remarked in an amazed manner, "Well, there's nothing in there about our foot ball game."

This was a gross oversight and the Journal should hereafter publish the news.

METHODIST TRAINING SCHOOL.

There will be a Training school for Sunday School workers conducted at the Methodist church Sept. 26th to October 1st inclusive. The object of the school is to better equip Sunday school teachers for their work. Rev. Leo D Gillespie Sunday School Field Secretary of the Upper S. C. Conference will be here and have charge of the school. He will give a course of study on life in the making. This is a general course.

Miss Grace Killingsworth, Supt. of Teacher Training, will give a course on Junior work.

The classes are held after 6 o'clock making it possible for those who work and students in the schools to attend. The first class period will begin about 6:15 and last for 50 minutes. After about an hour for supper, there will be a second class period of 50 minutes.

All Sunday school teachers and prospective teachers should take one of these courses. Parents find them profitable. While this school is intended to reach the Methodist churches in and around Abbeville, all Sunday school workers of the community are welcome to the classes and we would be glad to have them enroll with us.

DEATH OF ELI BOWIE

Eli Bowie died suddenly at Donalds Friday, September 17th, in his 82nd year. His body was laid to rest at Greenvale church Saturday at 11 o'clock, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. J. M. Dallas.

Mr. Bowie has been a victim of heart trouble for a number of years, but his death was unexpected. He had just alighted from the Southern train at Donalds after a visit to relatives when he was stricken.

Eli Bowie was a son of the late James P. Bowie, of Long Cane township, and was a brother of H. W. (Doc) Bowie, formerly of Abbeville. He was of the numerous family of that name in that section. For a good many years he has resided near Donalds, and since the death of his wife, he has made his home with his son, J. R. Bowie, at Shoals Junction.

Mr. Bowie was a member of the Greenvale Presbyterian church. He was a veteran of the War Between the States, having been a member of the Seventh S. C. Infantry.

MAKING LIGHTNING

John Hunter, who resides on the Chapman place, near Long Cane cemetery, was captured by Deputy Sheriff Cann Saturday as he was in the act of making "a run." He had about five gallons of mash in an improvised still which he was cooking on his stove when the officer arrived. John will now find how much it costs to break the law.

POOR HOUSE TOM

The editor of the paper drove around the circle Sunday morning, going out the road towards the Shops and coming in on the Poor House road. As we were coming into town we struck up with Tom, who informed us that he was on his way to preach at Mt. Pleasant, and would like a lift.

He got in the car and about the first thing he told us was, "Stevenson is out." "Kellar is in."

We asked him if Mr. Haddon would stay at the county farm with them still, to which Tom replied, "all out, don't want Wardlaw back." We inquired the trouble with Wardlaw, and Tom told us that Wardlaw "cussed too much."

"Is Kellar old or young," Tom asked us.

When told that Kellar was young, Tom said, "He won't do, he won't mind."

"Kellar will have to work," Tom told us. "If he don't I'll turn him off," he added.

"I'm too old to work," was the next information, "but Kellar, he got to work, if he don't I'll be up to see you and Perrin, you are the bosses of the Court House, ain't you," Tom asked, adding, "You has been there long enough to be the bosses."

From all of which it appears to us that Kellar is going to get up before day and eat breakfast by lamplight in matters pertaining to the county farm, else he will not have the approval of Tom.

eight to a dozen horses daily and nothing had attracted particular attention to this customer. The blacksmith said that he found on the foreshoe the personal line just over the heel clip which he always has put on his handiwork as the secret identification mark which all horse-shoers use. This was done, he explained in order to know their own work in case of complaint.

Haggerty was sure he knew the horse, although when he examined its remains he said he believed it had been clipped closely since he handled it.

Buffalo, Sept. 19.—Edwin P. LIQUOR SMUGGLED OVER BORDER

Vast Quantities of Liquor Are Being Brought To New York.— Openly Sold in More Than A Thousand Places.

Washington, Sept. 19.—Vast quantities of liquor are being smuggled over the Canadian border into New York state and thence into New York city, according to statements made here today.

So great is the traffic that the thousand or more places in New York where whiskey is more or less openly sold are no longer dependent upon releases from bonded warehouses but can be supplied in large part through these smuggled stocks.

In admitting that the border between Canada and New York state contains many "holes" so far as prohibition enforcement is concerned, Prohibition Commission Kramer said today.

"The assertions that liquor is being smuggled into New York from Canada is substantially correct. At the present time I cannot say just how great this traffic is. It is obviously difficult to patrol the great stretch of territory included in the Canadian border.

"We have agents at the principal points of entry from Canada to the United States. But obviously the Canadian customs officials charged with the inspection of vehicles and baggage must share responsibility for effective enforcement of the prohibition law.

"The border problem is one of the most difficult we have to solve. While it is unquestionable that many rum runners have gotten by we have captured a large number of vehicles and confiscated large quantities of liquor on the New York-Canadian border. Experience will teach us how to make the border patrol more effective, if we succeed in getting an appropriation from the next congress sufficient to provide adequate enforcement of the law.

"Only enemies of prohibition could seize upon the fact that liquor is being smuggled into the United States along the vast extent of the Canadian border from Vancouver to the Atlantic, a great part of which is semi-wilderness, to indicate that enforcement of the law is not practical. Prohibition enforcement is already effective. It will become increasingly so."

COX BOOSTS HIRAM JOHNSON IN CALIFORNIA

Although They Differ on International Affairs, Cox and Johnson Agree on Domestic Problems Nominee Asserts.

Sacramento, Cal., Sept. 17.—In an address here today opening his California campaign, Governor Cox, of Ohio, Democratic presidential candidate praised Senator Hiram Johnson, Republican, as an exponent of progressivism and again flayed "big business" and Republican leaders supporting Senator Harding.

Although they differ fundamentally on the League of Nations, Governor Cox said he admired Senator Johnson for frankness and lack of ambiguity or hypocrisy.

"He and I do not agree on international policies," said Governor Cox to a large theatre audience at a noon meeting. "but I respect the man for his candor.

"I have looked with admiration on the fight which he has made throughout the years against reaction. He fought it with Roosevelt and he continued consistently the contest which began in 1912, through the primaries and the convention of 1920 just as Roosevelt would have done.

"As an Ohioan, I give to you the assurance that the observation made by a distinguished citizen of our state to the effect that Hiram Johnson was a blackguard and unfit to associate with decent men is not the view of our people.

"Let me recall a parallel between the campaigns of 1912 and 1920.

"Eight years ago Col. Roosevelt charged that the nomination was made by reactionary forces in defiance of the rank and file as expressed in the primaries. In 1920 precisely the same thing was done and Senator Johnson was humiliated the same as Col. Roosevelt.

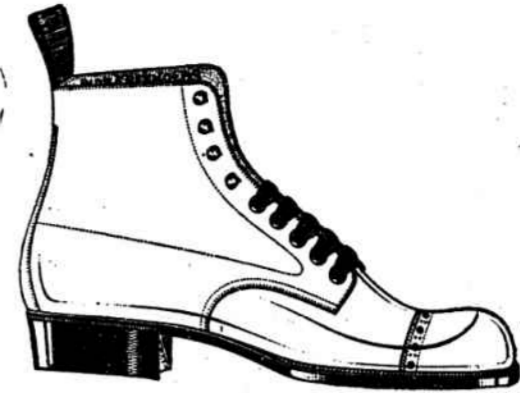

"I am unable to see by what process of reasoning the political party which has given to Boss Barnes of New York a distinct status of leadership in this campaign can expect the progressive friends of Theodore Roosevelt and Hiram Johnson to give it support. Barnes was the captain of the pirate ship.

"Never were so many obligations to designing interests being assumed by the party of reaction as in this campaign. Under the belief that disturbed conditions following the war make political victory certain, methods are followed unblushingly and without concealment."

A recent invention is a vestpocket adding machine which is guaranteed to juggle with figures up to 50,000.
