RECEPTION FOR MRS. TUTT

Mesdames Brown, Charles, Cheatham and Strom entertained at a beautiful reception at the home of Mrs. L. N. Brown in honor of Mrs. L. W. Tutt, who is leaving for her new home in Abbeville.

The decorations were beautiful in their simplicity. The mantles were banked in autumn leaves, smilax and ferns, vases of pink cosmos and ferns, carrying out a color scheme of pink, white and green. Punch was served on the porch.

The guests were met by Mrs. Brown and introduced to Mrs. Tutt and the teachers of the High School. Mrs. Charles gracefully led the guests into the beautifully decorated dining room. The table had as a decoration a beautiful center piece with cut-glass reflector and brass candleabra. Suspended from the ceiling was a basket of pink cosmos and pink tulle streamers extended to the four sides of the table, carrying out the pink, white and green color scheme, unshaded candles adding a soft glow to the beautiful scene.

Refreshments of cake and pink and white block cream were served. About forty five guests called during the afternoon and a delightful afternoon will long be remembered—that of yesterday—by Mrs. Tutt's friends.

As Mrs. Tutt was leaving to make her home in Abbeville, she was presented with a beautiful basket of flowers.—McCormick Messenger.

Mrs. Tutt's wife of Mr. L. W. Wofford Saturday at Clemson. Mrs. Tutt, the man in charge of the grading of cotton in Abbeville. She will be welcomed to Abbeville by the good people of this city.

STATE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

Rock Hill, S. C., Oct. 10.—Lucco Gunter, President of the State Teachers Association of South Carolina has just announced that he has secured Dr. A. Duncan Yocum, Professor of Educational Research at the University of Pennsylvania, for the speaker on the first evening of the meeting of the State Teachers Association, to be held in Spartanburg, November 25th, 26th and 27th. Dr. Yocum is widely known as an educator and an able and attractive speaker. South Carolina teachers are to be congratulated on having the opportunity of hearing Dr. Yocum. He has been one of the popular speakers at the N. E. A. meetings of recent years.

A meeting of the local committee with the President and Secretary, was held last week in Spartanburg. Every detail was carefully gone over.

Spartanburg is planning to take care of the Association in a very fine way. The splendid musical num-
