BEATTIE—PERRIN

Invitations have been received in Abbeville to the marriage of Miss Emily Hamlin Beattie to Wm. Bratton Perrin, both of Greenville, S. C., the marriage to occur Wednesday, October 27th., at Christ Church, in that city.

The people of Abbeville are greatly interested in the coming event. Miss Beattie is known to many of our people and is justly popular with all her friends. She is a daughter of Mrs. John Edgeworth Beattie, of Greenville, and a young woman of many accomplishments.

Mr. Perrin, while of late years a resident of Greenville, is in fact an Abbeville man. He is a son of Mrs. L. W. Perrin of Abbeville. His father, the late L. W. Perrin, was for many years a lawyer at the Abbeville bar. He is a brother of Mrs. T. G. White. The young groom-to-be grew to manhood here and was always popular with his friends and many relatives. These friends and relatives have watched with interest his success in life and now they congratulate him on the happy event which is soon to take place.

Numbers of friends from Abbeville are planning to attend the wedding.

JUNIOR ORDER MEETS

The members of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics met last night at the lodge hall, South Main Street, for the regular business meeting. A large number of the members attended the meeting and a renewed interest in the affairs of the order was manifested by those present.

In order to stimulate this interest still further it was decided to give a big oyster supper at an early date. A committee of arrangements was appointed for this purpose, and the members are looking forward now to an evening of great enjoyment. The committee will announce the time and place of the supper at an early date.

The earliest completed clock of which there is authentic record was made by a Saracen mechanic in the 13th century.

COMEDY DOCTORS IN WALLACE REID FILM

"Sick Abed" is New Kind Of Bedroom Farce.

Doctors as a rule are pretty serious folks. Especially when you meet them professionally. Nevertheless, a large part of the laughs in "Sick Abed," Wallace Reid's picture at the Opera House Friday, are furnished by two medicos. As a matter of fact, they are quack doctors and know little more about doctoring than they do about plumbing. Lucien Littlefield and Bobbie Bolder, both well liked screen comedians make the roles hilariously successful. According to the story, Wallie is shamming illness in order to extricate a friend from a matrimonial scrape in which he has become enmeshed.

"Sick Abed" was adapted from
