MOVING TO ABBEVILLE

Mrs. J. H. Walker and Miss Helen Walker are returning to Atlanta today after an extended visit to Mr. Walker. They have secured rooms with Mrs. J. E. Cheatham and will move to Abbeville before the first of February. They will receive a warm welcome from our people and will be an addition to our town.

A GOLDEN WEDDING.

On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. John M. Gambrell will celebrate their golden anniversary and the day will be made the occasion of great rejoicing among their children and friends. The White House turkey—a thirty-five pound bird will be slaughtered and the First Lady in the land, according to the Gambrell family, will partake of and enjoy the dinner.

Mr. John Gambrell and Miss Eliza Cassandra Clinkscales were married on Jan. 15th, 1871 at Williamston, S. C., the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. A. Wood and Dr. Samuel Lander. The wedding was a day time affair and only the members of the family were present. Mr. and Mrs. Gambrell came to Abbeville in 1872 and have remained here since except for two years spent in Mississippi, moving back to Abbeville in 1880. The marriage has been a singularly happy one and the couple have been blessed in their home life and in their children.

The children are Claude, George, Eliza, Ellen, Lillian, Alma and Virginia.

Dr. Claude C. Gambrell married Miss Bessie Edwards and they have three children, Elizabeth, Claude and Helen.

George C. Gambrell married first Miss May McLauren and their children are Eleanor, who makes her home in Abbeville and Marion, who is in the Navy and is in California. The present Mrs. Gambrell was Miss Mary Jim Meadows, of Alabama.

Miss Eliza Gambrell married Mr. W. E. Cason and they have one living daughter, Cassandra.

Miss Ellen Gambrell married Mr. George Penney and they make their home in Abbeville.

Miss Lillian Gambrell married Mr. C. S. McColl, of Bennettsville, and they have two children.

Miss Alma Gambrell married Mr. Otis McMillan and they make their home in Greenwood.

Virginia, the youngest daughter, died several years ago leaving two children, Elizabeth and Walter, who live with their father, Mr. Walter Zimmerman in Duluth, Minn.

Invited to be with the family Saturday are Dr. and Mrs. Jno. G. Clinkscales, of Spartanburg and Mrs. Ellen Bates, of Batesburg, the only surviving brother and sister of Mrs. Gambrell.

All the members of the family will be here Saturday and each child will present their parents with a twenty dollar gold piece as a small token of their love and affection.

Mrs. Gambrell was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Clinkscales, who lived beyond Martin's Mill in what was then called the Temple of Health neighborhood. She has always been a woman of bright and happy disposition and she has gone about doing good. Both Mr. and Mrs. Gambrell have always been members of the Methodist church and they have reared their children in the faith. It is a fine thing to have lived such a life as this couple has and in the evening of their lives to be so beloved of their children and friends. The people of the city unite in wishing them many more years of happiness and in congratulating the children on having such parents.

With the family Saturday will be Lula Adams who has been the friend of the family, being reared with the children and on Saturday she comes back to be with them and to serve a dinner worthy of the best in the land.

BACK TO CHARLESTON

Mrs. W. G. Harper is returning this week to Charleston after an extended visit to her aunt, Mrs. J. C. Ellis. Mrs. Harper is looking well and her visit has given pleasure to a wide circle of friends.

LEAVING ABBEVILLE.

Mrs. Lucia Robinson was in town Tuesday attending the meeting at the Baptist church in the morning after which she was the guest of Mrs. E. C. Horton at dinner.

Mrs. Robinson is moving soon, with her brother, Mr. Con Norris, to Greenwood County, Mr. Norris having bought a plantation near the town. Their friends see them leave with regret and wish them prosperity and success wherever they go.

PLENTY OF HOME BREW

There is plenty of home brew persimmon beer being made around town by the boys. Kegs are in demand and there has been a run on faucets at the different stores. Hap Neuffer started out Saturday morning in his father's car to bring in the "wash," and he was admonished to "hurry back." There was a persimmon tree on the "side of the road" but it was no "friend" of the boss man of the Neuffer household for Hap tarried long enough to gather in about a half bushel of persimmons, arriving home with the doctor's car at about one o'clock. There will be plenty of persimmon beer around Hap's home in a week or two.

WHAM-PITT.

The following announcements have been received in Abbeville:

Mr. Clarence M. Pitt and

Miss Anna Lou Wham announce their marriage. On Thursday, January the sixth nineteen hundred and twenty-one. The marriage took place in Baltimore. Mrs. Pitt is a sister of W. P. and J. M. Wham and is pleasantly remembered in this city. She has made Baltimore her home for the past fifteen years.

FINLEY—BROWN

Miss Eva May Finley and Mr. Willie Brown were happily married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Finley, Sunday afternoon, January 2, 1921, at three o'clock, the ceremony was performed by Rev. C. E. Peele.

The reception room was beautifully decorated for the occasion in green and white. The wedding march was played by Miss Clara Beauford and as the first sound of the music was heard the door was opened and Misses Ione and Viola Beauford, dressed in blue satin and carrying a bouquet of white chrysanthemums, entered and was followed by the bride and groom. The bride was attired in white satin. The ring ceremony was used.

The bride is a popular young woman of Long Cane community and has many friends throughout the county who wish her much happiness. The groom is a prosperous young man of Greenwood. They will make their home with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Finley.

Much happiness is extended to this young couple throughout the county. Contributed.

AT THE SOUTHERN

A SICK BABY

Doris, the pretty little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jackson has been quite sick for the past week with scarlet fever. She is better now and friends of the family hope to see her out again in a few days. Doris had what the doctors call a "light" case of fever.

PRESBYTERIAN NEWS.

Dr. Reed, of Columbia, will come to Abbeville Sunday and will preach to the Presbyterians. He will preside at the congregational meeting to be held and will moderate the call to be extended to Rev. C. M. Richards, who is now the pastor at Davidson, North Carolina.

AN ABBEVILLE GIRL IN THE PICTURES

There was much interest in the picture shown at the Opera House when "Ethel Clayton" was the star in "A Lady in Love," many of the people recognizing in Miss Ethel Clayton, Miss Hazel Corrie who once made her home in Abbeville. Manager Verchott is interested in verifying this recognition and is in communication with the producers of the picture. Should Ethel Clayton prove to be Miss Corrie a crowded house will greet her appearance in Abbeville. The Corrie's lived in Abbeville many years ago and all the daughters of the household were gifted in all things pertaining to the stage, Hazel being an especially pretty and attractive child when here.

As soon as this is verified Mr. Verchott will publish in the Press and Banner this fact and our people can see an Abbeville girl in the movies.
