

Local News

: Personals :

Mr. Hiram Lawson was in town from "the Falls" Friday.

Dr. H. C. Fennel spent yesterday in Calhoun Falls on business.

Mr. H. B. Brown, of Winnsboro, is spending a few days in the city with friends.

Miss Mary Sharp is in the city for a week-end visit to her friend, Miss Julia McAllister.

Mrs. J. F. Clinkscales was down from Monterey Friday on a shopping trip.

Mrs. Onie B. Rogers, of the Penney's Creek section, was in town yesterday shopping.

Miss Kathleen Adkins went over to Chester this week to attend the funeral of Mrs. S. M. Pryor.

Mrs. A. B. Galloway, of Abbeville, is visiting her son, Mr. J. A. Chandler.—Clinton Chronicle.

Miss Mary Clinkscales, of Willington, is visiting her friend, Mrs. H. C. Fennel on North Main Street.

Mrs. Otto Bristow, of Abbeville, was recently the guest of Mrs. J. M. Anderson.—Index-Journal, 2nd.

Mrs. P. A. Cheatham has returned to Abbeville after a two week's visit to her son, Dr. Cheatham, in McCormick.

Mrs. Robert Simmons, Miss Willie Eakin and Miss Pauline Wosmansky are spending today in Greenwood looking over the shops.

Miss Maggie Link has moved her boarding place and in the future will have rooms with Mrs. Minshall on South Main street.

Mrs. Motte Gilliam, of the Sharon neighborhood, spent Thursday in the city with her sister, Mrs. Frank McNeill.

Miss Ola Winn, one of the young ladies in training at the County Hospital, had a tonsil operation today and is on the road toward recovery.

Mr. C. W. Norris, who recently moved to Greenwood was on our streets Thursday seeing old friends and giving the news from his new home.

Miss Tot McDill, of Abbeville is visiting her friend, Miss Margaret Cothran at the home of her aunts, Mrs. Susan B. Hill and Mrs. W. C. Tompkins.—Edgefield Advertiser.

Mr. Charlie Elder, who has been keeping our people supplied with groceries for years, was here Friday. He comes from Athens and he has no superstitions, for Friday is always his day at Abbeville.

Mrs. Frank Welsh and her two lively young sons, went to Monroe Friday for an over Sunday visit with relatives. They will return Monday bringing little Winona Welsh with them.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bradley returned to Abbeville yesterday after spending a short while in Greenwood as guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Klugh on East Cambridge Street.—Index-Journal, 2nd.

Mr. Johnnie Gilmer, of Knoxville, Tenn., arrived in Abbeville this week and is paying a visit to his aunt, Mrs. W. H. Mundy. He is a son of Mr. Sam Gilmer, who was reared in Abbeville County and is well remembered by our people.

RETURNS TO HONEA PATH
Glenn B. Baskin, who recently left the Anderson hospital following a successful operation, has returned to his home in Honea Path, after spending several days with his parents at Iva.—Daily Mail.

IN HONOR OF MRS. MILLER

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Harrison entertained at a pleasant dinner party Thursday night in compliment to her sister, a. qefflfioe shrdlu shrdul Mrs. Percy Miller, who is here from New York visiting her sister, Mrs. J. D. Kerr. The guests at this pleasant affair were, Miss Maggie Latimer, Mrs. Ella Latimer, Mrs. J. C. Ellis, Mr. Frank Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kerr, Mrs. Miller and Miss Lizzie Sharp.

After dinner bridge and set back were enjoyed until a late hour.

A MORNING BRIDGE

Mrs. J. Foster Barnwell entertained the second of her series of parties Friday morning at her home on Greenville street. The occasion was most pleasant, the guests being Miss Nettie Russell, Mrs. W. M. Barnwell, Mrs. W. L. Peebles, Mrs. W. H. White, Mrs. G. A. Neuffer, Mrs. Lewis Perrin, Miss Elize Bowie, Miss Plevna Seal, Mrs. G. E. Calvert, Mrs. John Harris, Miss Kate Marshall and Mrs. Jas. A. Hill.

After the games grape fruit and a salad course were served.

IN HONOR OF THE BRIDE

Mrs. Otto Bristow entertained this afternoon at a lovely party, the first of the series to be given by the younger society set in honor of Miss Mary Lawson Link before her marriage on the seventeenth.

Bridge was the game of the afternoon and Mrs. Bristow entertained twenty of the friends of the bride.

After the games a salad course was served.

MRS. HARRISON'S PARTY

Mrs. F. E. Harrison entertained the second of her series of parties Wednesday afternoon. These parties have been pleasant affairs, the three tables of players being congenial and the games lively. Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Harrison's guests were: Mrs. J. D. Kerr, Miss Maggie Latimer Mrs. W. H. White, Mrs. Mamie Lane, of Virginia, Mrs. Lewis Perrin, Mrs. J. H. Austin, Miss Eugenia Robertson, Mrs. W. W. Bradley, Miss Kate Marshall, Mrs. G. E. Calvert, Mrs. J. C. Hill and Mrs. Jack Pressly. Plates of salad, aspic and other good things were served.

A COMING MARRIAGE

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wilson to the marriage of their niece, Miss Mary Lawson Link to Mr. Charles Pinckney Townsend, Jr. This interesting event will take place on February 17th, in the Presbyterian church at nine o'clock in the evening. The marriage will be followed by a reception at the Wilson home at half past nine.

Miss Link is the daughter of Mr. Robt. S. Link who since the death of her mother has made her home with her aunt, Mrs. Wilson. She is a student of Agnes Scott College and is a young woman of many charms.

Mr. Townsend has lived among us for some time and has made a favorable impression as superintendent of the Light and Water Plant of this city. He is a veteran of the World War.

A LUNCHEON PARTY

One of the pleasantest of the many entertainments given in Abbeville this week, was a luncheon given by Mrs. J. C. Klugh at her lovely home on Park Circle Wednesday morning. Mrs. Klugh is a cultured hostess and Wednesday her guests were happy in her cordial welcome, her charming hospitality and in the animated and bright conversation which abounded.

The house was thrown together and at half after one o'clock a five course luncheon was served. The table appointments were beautiful, the place cards dainty and the luncheon all that heart could wish. Presiding at the head of the table was Mrs. Sallie Bradley, the mother of Mrs. Klugh and also present was Miss Stasia Wideman, an aunt, both old ladies who still love life and look with pleasure on the joys of the youthful.

The guests at this pleasant affair were: Mrs. T. G. White, Mrs. C. A. Milford, Mrs. J. F. Bradley, Mrs. E. C. Horton, Mrs. C. E. Peele, Mrs. P. B. Speed, Mrs. J. F. Miller, Mrs. C. H. McMurray, Miss Jessie Hill, Mrs. W. W. Bradley, Mrs. Tutt, Mrs. S. L. Wilson, Mrs. G. A. Neuffer, Mrs. M. R. Plaxco and Mrs. Addie McMurray.

THE ACE OF CLUBS.

Mrs. Paul Kennedy was hostess to the Ace of Clubs Thursday afternoon at her home on Wardlaw street. These young people have a pleasant time at their meetings and the club is a success. Thursday afternoon bridge was played and sandwiches and chocolate enjoyed.

ENTERTAINING THE CADETS

Miss Elizabeth Lyon is entertaining a party of her young friends tonight at her home on Church street. Rook will be the pleasure of the evening and there will be twenty players. A sweet course with bon bons will be served.

This party will be given in honor of Mr. Archibald Hutto and Mr. Charles Puerifoy, two handsome young cadets from B. M. I., who are in the city for a few days visit to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Evans.

Annie Rogers, Nine Years Old.

Annie, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Rogers, celebrated her ninth birthday this afternoon by inviting her friends to a party. About fifty little folks were present and all enjoyed the games played, the pink cake with nine candles, the chocolate cake and the sweet confections served. Souvenir bags of candy were given each little guest, all of whom thought the party was "just lovely."

MR. AND MRS. HILL HONOR THE BRIDE.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hill are hostesses at a lovely bridge party tonight at their home on Ellis Avenue having as their guests Miss Mary Lawson Link and Mr. C. P. Townsend who are to be married on the seventeenth and the young people in town who will make up the bridal party.

The Hill's lovely home is decorated in white carnations and the score cards for the evening are of orange blossoms. At one table is a miniature bride and groom giving a dainty foretaste of the seventeenth. There are twenty young people invited and bridge is the game of the evening.

A salad course is to be served as refreshments.

U. D. C. MEETING.

Secession Chapter U. D. C. will meet Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock with Mrs. H. R. Zimmerman. Mrs. R. B. Cheatham will be associate hostess. All members will please remember that Charleston is the subject of the historical program and come prepared to tell some little thing of interest about the "City by the Sea."

Mrs. F. W. Wilson, Pres.

THE Y. W. A.

The Young Woman's Auxiliary of the Baptist church met with Miss Maud Wood Thursday evening. After business affairs were over a social half hour was enjoyed, Miss Ruth Howie entertaining the members with music, Tea and sandwiches were served. Mrs. Paul Kennedy is president of this organization and keeps it in flourishing condition.

OPERA HOUSE PROGRAM.

FRIDAY

George Fitzmaurice's seven reel production
"THE RIGHT TO LOVE" WITH
Mae Murray and David Powell
(Stars of "On With the Dance")
ALSO A COMEDY
15c 35c

SATURDAY

DOUGLAS MacLEAN and DORIS MAY in
"MARY'S ANKLE"
(You remember these stars in
"23 1-2 Hours Leave." See them in this one—you'll like it)
ALSO A SUNSHINE COMEDY
15c 25c
REX BEACH'S
"GOING SOME"
With an All Star Cast
ALSO A COMEDY
10c 20c

A PLEASANT MEETING.

Circle No. 4 of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church held a splendid meeting at the home of Misses Louise and Charlotte Brown Tuesday evening. Officers for the year were elected as follows: Leader, Miss Sara Perrin; secretary, Miss Mamie Bowie; Treasurer, Miss Bessie Lee Cheatham.

The subject for discussion at the meeting was "Christian Education" and Miss Sara Perrin as leader read several instructive articles. There was a good crowd in attendance despite the inclement weather.

The young people have a flourishing organization.

"NOTHING BUT THE BABY"

The contest for the name for the Music Parlor at McMurray's has brought forth many bright and attractive names for this popular place. On each coupon is the question "What musical instrument have you in your home?" The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Link Evans submitted her name and responded to this question, "Nothing but the baby."

FURTHER IMPROVEMENTS

The ladies of the Methodist church are making further improvements in the church. New hardwood floors are to be put down and the benches are to be gone over. Fourteen hundred dollars has been set aside by the ladies society to meet this expense.

AT THE GRAB

Mr. F. K. McAdams, who has taken charge of the "Grab" at the shops has taken Charlie Darracott on as his assistant for the night work. These are two lively young men and they expect to run an up-to-date eating counter.

AN ATLANTA VISITOR

Mrs. Russell Wade, who is well remembered here as Miss Madge McLesky is here from Atlanta and will spend some time with her friend, Mrs. D. Townsend Smith.

OPERA HOUSE FRIDAY ONLY

George FITZMAURICE
Seven-Reel Production

"The Right To Love"

with MAE MURRAY and DAVID POWELL
Stars of "On With the Dance"

A beautiful young American wife—sold for power into Turkey!—treated by her husband like a girl of the harem! Her only solace her baby—and the memory of a great, pure love.

But when, for the "other woman's" sake, even her child was taken away—

Come see a romance athrow with all that woman's heart has known! Flooded with splendor and the spell of summer nights on the Bosphorus.

Admission . . . . 15c and 35c
Century Comedy Extra
"LAUGHING GAS"

THE ECHO

"McMURRAY'S :: MUSIC :: STORE"

THE HOME OF THE VICTROLA

.....and a.....

BIG LINE OF OFFICE SUPPLIES

We extend to you an invitation to visit our new music parlor—"The Edho"—at any time and hear all the new music as rendered by the world's greatest artists and reproduced by the world's best talking machine.

THE ECHO
"McMurray's Music Store"