The Bridge club will meet Friday afternoon at 4:30 with Mrs. J. D. Kerr on Greenville street.

Mrs. M. T. Coleman came home from Columbia where she is engaged in Red Cross work, and will spend until Tuesday with her home folks. James Coleman was here from Clemson for Sunday as was Mrs. W. P. Kennedy and Pat from Troy. A pleasant reunion was held.

The park in front of the city hall is being put in good shape for spring flowers. The Civic Club cares for these beds and has found it hard to keep them up to standard during the scarcity of labor. Zinneas, Salvia and periwinkle will beautify the beds this summer.

Mrs. E. R. Thomson and Mr. W. C. Sherard spent Sunday in Iva. They went up to be present at the ninetieth birthday of Mrs. Asseneth Sherard, mother of Mr. Sherard and grandmother of Mrs. Thomson.

Mrs. Sherard is known by a number of the older people of the county. Before her marriage she was a Miss Sharp of Due West, a sister of the late Robert C. Sharp, of that place. Her friends congratulate her on passing the ninetieth milestone on life's pilgrimage, and hope for her many more years of good health and prosperity in this life.

The Junior Missionary Society of the Methodist church met with Frances Wosmansky Friday afternoon at four o'clock. There was a full attendance, forty little folks being present. The society is the Banner society of the Upper Conference and they do much work. They are planning to have an Easter egg hunt at Klugh's park on the 25th of March.

After the business hot chocolate and cake were served.

The ladies of the city and County are requested to meet Thursday afternoon at four o'clock at the City Council Chamber. This meeting is for the purpose of organizing an auxiliary to the County Hospital. All the ladies are asked by those in charge to attend the meeting. Mrs. Frank Nickles has been asked by the Board of Directors to act as temporary chairman until an organization can be perfected Thursday afternoon. The object of the auxiliary is to help the hospital.

Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Power are much in the thoughts of their Abbeville friends these days, for news has just come of the birth of a daughter to them in their far away home in Korea. The little lady arrived on February 5 and has been named Lula Johnson.

Rev. C. S. Leavell, who is assistant pastor of the First Baptist church of Anderson exchanged pulpits with Mr. Bristow Sunday and preached a good sermon to the Baptist at the morning service. Mr. Leavell was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Stark.

Mr. W. W. Boles and Mr. L. T. Loftis were in town Monday from Lowndesville. They came down bright and early and were around town looking after personal affairs during the day. Mr. Boles is going to know the news as furnished by the Press and Banner after this.

Mrs. C. D. Brown leaves Thursday for Sanford, Fla., here she will spend some time after which she will join her daughters, Misses Louise and Charlotte, who are taking a pleasure trip over the state in a car. They will return to Abbeville through the country, coming by way of Atlanta.

Mr. Oscar Cromer, who has been in Abbeville for the past two weeks spending the time with his sister, Mrs. W. F. Nickles, went to Greenwood Monday to visit Mrs. J. C. Burns. Mr. Cromer is recovering from a general shake up in an automobile wreck and will be in the South for a month.

Next Friday evening, March 11th at 8 o'clock Bishop U. V. W. Darlington will speak in the Methodist church on the Christian Education Movements of the Southern Methodist church. Bishop Darlington is a speaker of great magnetism and force. While his coming is of particular interest to the Methodists of the community, all are invited to hear him.

Mr. L. C. Parker left Monday for Baltimore and New York where he will buy a stock of men's furnishings which it will be a pleasure to look at and an easy matter to sell. Parker & Reese give full value and the best that is on the market.

The little McDonald baby is sick with diphtheria at the home of its grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chadwell on North Main street. The home is quarantined. The little baby is stated to be getting along nicely.

Mr. L. T. Miller, who has thrown in his fortunes with the progressive people of Hartsville, is back in Abbeville for a short visit to his relatives and friends. Every one is glad to know that he is succeeding so well in the home of his adoption.

Watch the label on your paper.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Penney, of Charleston, March 6th, 1921, a son.

Misses Julia McAllister, Agnes and Carolyn Edwards, Gibson Edwards and Gary Banks made up a pleasant party and attended a dance at Ware Shoals Friday night.

Thomas G. Baskin, a native of Lowndesville, aged 65 years, died by a self-inflicted pistol shot wound, Saturday afternoon at Iva, where he has made his home with his sister, Mrs. Virginia Sherard for the past several years.

Mr. Baskin was a son of the late Stewart Baskin, of Lowndesville. He was married in early life, but his wife has been dead for many years. He had no children. For some months his health had not been good, his affliction being a disease of the brain, which no doubt unbalanced him and caused him to commit the rash act.

Funeral services were conducted yesterday at Iva.
