A LOVELY RECEPTION

Mrs. John A. Harris opened her home Saturday afternoon and entertained at a lovely reception from five till six o'clock in compliment to Mrs. Hanford Henderson who is in the states from London on her first visit since her marriage two years ago.

The Harris home was beautifully decorated in flowers and in the parlor in the receiving line were Mrs. John A. Harris, Sr., Mrs. John Harris, Jr., Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. C. P. Townsend, Mrs. S. J. Link, Mrs. Bradley Morrah, of Mt Carmel, Mrs. Marchant of Greenville, Mrs. Carter Arnold, of Elberton and Mrs. Sydney Eason, of Wilmington.

In the hall the guests were received by Mrs. Frank B Gary and Mrs. Foster Barnwell and in the parlor by Mrs. Minshall and Miss Maggie Latimer.

The dining room was decorated in pink sweet peas, a lovely center piece gracing the lace covered table from which Mrs. T. G. White and Mrs. C. A. Milford served cream and cake assisted by Misses Mary Hill Harris, Margaret Perrin, Elizabeth Jones and Mary Milford. Entertaining in the dining room were Mrs. P. B. Speed, Mrs. J. F. Bradley and the Misses Morpe.

Little Hessie Morrah and Rachel and Susan Minshall graced the hall and received the cards of the many guests who called to meet the lovely visitor and to pay their respects to the hostess and her charming daughter-in-law.

Assisting in entertaining the guests also were Misses Sarah Perrin, Mary Quarles Link, Mary Smith and Mrs. Joe Little.

This reception was one of the most pleasant held in Abbeville in many days.

JUNIOR-SENIOR RECEPTION

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Thomson was an ideal one for the beautiful reception tendered the Seniors of the high school Friday evening by the members of the Junior class. The sweet pea, the class flower was the piece de resistance in the elaborate decorations and their entrancing beauty was rivalled only by the healthy beauty of the lovely young ladies of the Senior and Junior classes. The souvenirs were pretty little handpainted sweet peas tied with the class colors of green and white.

Following a delightful dance the dainty waitresses from the Sophomore class served cake and block cream with "21" in the center of the blocks.

A DANCE

Miss Mildred Cochran gave an informal dance Saturday night to Miss Ruby Hill Devlin and some of the young men of the B. M. I. corps. A pleasant time was spent until five minutes of twelve when the cadets had to "hustle" to make camp.

A PLEASANT PARTY

Mrs. B. S. Reames and Miss Eva Reames entertained at a pleasant party at their home on Magazine street Saturday night in compliment to Miss Sophie Reames, Miss Julia Wingate and Miss Marie Hyatt, who were here from Anderson College for a week-end visit.

The house was prettily decorated in flowers. Punch was served throughout the evening and a guessing contest was enjoyed by forty guests present. Miss Julia Wingate drew the lucky ticket and was crowned queen of the evening.

Ice cream was served as refreshments and a most pleasant time was spent.

FOR MRS. HENDERSON

Mrs. C. P. Townsend entertained at a few tables of bridge Friday afternoon at her home on South Main street in compliment to Mrs. Hanford Henderson and Mrs. John Harris, Jr.

The afternoon was a delightful one, the guests being charmed with the visitor, the games were enjoying and the salad course appetizing.

JUDGE FEATHERSTONE MAKES ABLE ADDRESS

Distinguished Greenwood Visitor Spoke Here Sunday.

Judge C. C. Featherstone, of Greenwood, was a distinguished visitor in the city on Sunday, at which time he made an eloquent and able address in the Methodist church here.

His address was made at the close of the Children's Day exercises and his subject was "Christian Education." He handed his subject in his usual masterful way and eloquently presented facts and figures, showing what Christian Education had done, was doing and its possibilities for doing good for God and Civilization.
