

Local News

Personals

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

On the first Saturday of each month our subscription lists are corrected. All parties in arrears are dropped. A good many subscribers whose subscriptions are expiring this month have not yet renewed. They are urged to mail checks or to call and renew their subscriptions before next Saturday.

Col. Longshore is home again after a trip to Winnsboro.

Dr. J. S. Moffatt, of Due West, is a visitor in the city today.

Mr. J. F. Gibert was in from Calhoun Falls Tuesday on business.

Misses Maud and Kate Pettigrew were in town from Bethia Tuesday shopping.

Mrs. F. E. Hogan, of Watts, braved the hot weather and came to town Tuesday.

Dr. Power is quite well again and is out on his usual rounds getting other people well.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Carwile and Miss Lora Temple were visitors in town Tuesday.

Miss Cleo Bailey and Mr. James Dusenberry were Anderson visitors in the city Sunday.

Mrs. James Shelly has returned to Abbeville after a visit to her parents in Franklin, N. C.

Allen Edwards is here from Edgefield making his annual visit to his cousin, Claude Gambrell.

Rayford McMillan is in Campobello this week spending the time with his friend, John Jackson.

Mrs. James Darracott spent the week-end in Calhoun Falls with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Manning.

Mrs. John Dees has returned to her home at Pikesville, N. C., after a pleasant visit in the Warrenton section.

Mrs. Jules J. Huguelet is here from Hamlet, N. C., and will spend several days with her daughter, Mrs. Joe Hughes.

Preston Speed is a traveling young man. He is just home from Spartanburg and Greenville which took him around by Fort Mill.

Mrs. W. R. Hilt and children who have spent the past week in McCormick with her father, Mr. C. C. Fuller, returned home today.

Mrs. D. E. Estes and children and Mrs. R. N. Edmonds, of Parksville, returned home today after a pleasant visit to Mr. and Mrs. Joe F. Edmonds.

Miss Caroline Reese has arrived in Abbeville for the summer vacation and will spend the time with Mrs. Fuller Reese and Mrs. Bradley Reese.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gilmer and Miss Addie Gilmer are here from Knoxville, Tenn., and will spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mundy.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Townsend went down to Bennettsville Friday and spent over Sunday with Mr. Townsend's parents. They returned to Abbeville Monday morning.

Miss Gladys Edwards, one of the enthusiastic young workers in the Methodist church, is in McCormick, where she is representing the Young People's Missionary Society at the meeting which is being held there.

Miss Annie Bell, of Antreville, was in the city shopping today.

Mrs. Broom and children are in Waxhaw, N. C., visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hammond are here from Ware Shoals and are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wilson.

Dick Edwards of Augusta has been in the city making things lively around the home of his grandmother Mrs. Agnes Pennel.

Mrs. B. F. Swetenburg and little Minnie Ella and Eugenia Swetenburg are in Newberry where they will visit among their friends.

Miss Annie Belle Little left yesterday for Black Mountain where she will spend some time with her aunt, Mrs. J. D. Winn.

Mrs. J. L. McMillan, Miss Lula Power and Miss Mary Graydon spent Tuesday in Dysons. Miss Lula Power caught the big fish of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson and Miss Margaret Jackson were here for the week-end the guests of Mrs. Leslie McMillan. They came from Campobello through the country.

Miss Mary Grace Wilson is leaving this week for Georgetown where she has accepted a position as a stenographer and will take up her work at once.

Miss Frances Rose and Joe Rose went to Monroe this week for a day or two. Mr. Rose has most of his "lay over" in Monroe and the young folks were spending the time with him.

Mrs. Cornelia Fant was in the city shopping Tuesday. Mrs. Fant is seventy-five years old and she takes a lively interest in things in Abbeville and in our stores.

Mr. W. A. Lee is pushing work on the house at the Country Club and in a few weeks all the gaieties which go with a country club will be in style in Abbeville.

Little Miss Julia Knox Pennal, of Great Falls, arrived in Abbeville Tuesday and will spend the balance of the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. Agnes Pennal on Washington street.

TO NEW YORK

Miss Edna Bradley will leave Thursday for New York where she will take a special course at a Bible Training school preparatory to taking up Y. W. C. A. work in the Fall. Her friends wish her success.

CAMPING

Tom Howie, Harold Tate and George Wood left town Monday for Rapley Shoals where they will try their hand at fishing, bathing and eating their own cooking.

MAJOR FULP..

Major J. D. Fulp was here from Columbia this week. He came in Monday to be on hand for the school bond election on Tuesday. The Major was pleased at the vote cast and the success of the bond issue.

AN ABBEVILLE GIRL

Mrs. J. E. Bailey passed through Abbeville Tuesday on her way to Athens where she will visit Mrs. W. E. Shehee for a day or two. Miss Lillian Shee has just graduated at G. N. and I. C., at Milledgeville, taking high stand and reflecting great credit on our town as is usual with people "born and raised" in Abbeville.

A LIVELY DAY

Tuesday was a lively day among the society folks of Abbeville and the down-trodden housekeepers barely had time to give their husbands dinner between card parties. There were five different parties in town during the day a dance for the young folks at night and a set back game, which was a shirt sleeve affair, at Corp. Kerr's at night.

A cat is so foolish that when she is used for a foot warmer she purrs with joy.

Garden crops worth $73,500 were raised on New York's vacant lot gardens this year.

Society

IN HONOR OF THE BRIDES

Miss Caroline Reese has issued invitations to a party in honor of Miss Sarah Haigler, who is to be married in July, and of Mrs. Hubert Cox. The party is to be on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fuller Reese on North Main street.

IN HENDERSONVILLE

Mrs. L. W. White and Miss Mary Milford will leave Friday for Hendersonville, N. C., where they will spend the remainder of the summer.

TAKING HIGH HONORS

Miss Mary Graydon leaves Thursday for her home in Columbia after a pleasant visit to Mrs. Willie Speed. After returning home, Miss Graydon who was an honor graduate at the University this year, will hold a position with the Associated Charities in Columbia.

IN SPARTANBURG

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Link, Miss Suzanne and Bob and Jack Link went to Spartanburg, Saturday and spent a day or two pleasantly with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Everett.

WEEK-END VISITORS

Mrs. J. S. Cochran and Miss Hannah Cochran went to Monroe, Ga., last Saturday and were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cochran. They bring the good news that Mr. Cochran is prospering in his Georgia home having plenty of "frying-size" chickens and country hams of his own raising.

DANCING

Mrs. W. A. Lee will give a dance tonight to the young people who enjoyed the camp life at Rapley Shoals last week.

Mrs. Frank B. Gary complimented her visitor, Miss Ethelind Pope, with a delightful dance Tuesday night at night at her home on Greenville street. All the younger set were present and enjoyed "toddling" and "trotting" in spite of the weather.

THE SUMMER IN FLORIDA

Douglas Mahon was in town Tuesday seeing his customers and seeking the consolation of his friends. He will travel for the next two months in Florida.

MISS MILFORD ENTERTAINS

Miss Mary Milford was hostess on Tuesday afternoon at a party in honor of Miss Sarah Haigler. Twenty-four young ladies were present, there being two tables of rook and four of bridge.

A color scheme of yellow and white was worked out in the decorations of daisies which were profusely used. Refreshments of yellow and white block cream, cake and mints were served, and punch was also served during the afternoon.

At the close of the games Miss Haigler was presented with a lovely gift of lingerie.

This entertainment was one of the most enjoyable that has been given in Abbeville this season.

MISS JESSIE HILL ENTERTAINS

Miss Jessie Hill gave a most delightful party Monday afternoon at her home, this being a compliment to Miss Edna Cox, who marries tomorrow and will make her home in Inman in the future.

Miss Hill had invited a large party of friends, there being eight tables of players who enjoyed the games of rook. The bride's table was decorated in sweet peas and many vases of flowers made the rooms pretty. After the games Miss Hill presented Miss Cox with a set of guests towels and dresser scarfs, the presentation being made lively by the reading of a parody on the "Psalm of Life," which pictured the school teacher as an expert husband hunter.

Tea and sandwiches and cake and cream were served at the close of this pleasant afternoon.

GETTING MARRIED.

Mr. H. L. Johnson, who has been in the city with The Press and Banner for the past month, left this morning for Columbia where he will be married this evening to Miss Francis Cooper of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will return to Abbeville on Friday and will make their home at the Eureka.

Mr. Johnson has made friends during his short stay in Abbeville and our people congratulate him on his good fortune and extend their best wishes to his bride.

HERE FOR THE WEDDING

The marriage of Miss Edna Cox and Prof. O. B. Haynes will be a happy event of Thursday afternoon. The ceremony is to take place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. R. E. Cox, on North Main street at four o'clock and will be performed by Dr. J. L. Martin. Miss Ethel Brock, of Honea Path, Mrs. James Cox of Troy, Mrs. Hubert Cox, of Columbia, little Miss Sarah Ellis, of New Orleans, and Miss Margaret Cox will be in the wedding party.

Those who will be in Abbeville for the wedding are Mr. and Mrs. James Cox, of Troy, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Cox, of Columbia, Miss Ethel Brock, of Honea Path, Miss Sarah Cook, of College Park, Ga., and Mrs. H. L. Haynes of Austell, Georgia.

PLEASANT PARTIES

Miss May Robertson gave a delightful party Tuesday afternoon at her home on North Main street in honor of Mrs. R. L. Dargan, of Spartanburg. There were five tables of players. The games were played on the porch which was made lovely with vases of mountain laurel, dahlias and nasturiums. A salad course with tea was served as refreshments.

Mrs. J. D. Kerr entertained Monday afternoon for Mrs. Dargan, eight friends being invited to meet her.

Mrs. J. Foster Barnwell was hostess to sixteen friends Tuesday morning the occasion being a charming compliment to Mrs. R. L. Dargan of Spartanburg and Miss Kittie Perrin, of Greenville. The games were played on the porch and at one o'clock a lovely luncheon was served.

FOR THE BRIDE

Miss Edna Cox, a bride of this week, was honor guest at a party given on Tuesday afternoon by Miss Margaret Klugh at her home on Park Circle. The Klugh home was artistically decorated with palms and vases of shasta daisies and made a beautiful background for the eight tables of players who were present.

Place cards of bride's slippers were presented to the guests, while the bride's chair was adorned with a silver horse shoe from which hung

Opera House FRIDAY

One Day Only

A ROBERTSON COLE PRODUCTION

"GOOD WOMEN"

—with—

ROSEMARY THEBY: WM. P. CARLENTON and Others.

GOOD WOMEN is a story of a woman who despises GOOD WOMEN and dared to live out her unconventional ideas of life with a result that is surprising in its truth:

Gorgeous in its settings, GOOD WOMEN travels from the picturesque Greenwich Village of New York City to the South of France to Monte Carlo and to Sunny Italy, following the roads of the young woman who believed that the world is enslaved to 'other people's opinions.'

Also Century Comedy, "THE COUNTRY HEIR" with HARRY SWEET.

ADMISSION ..... 15c and 35c.

a shower of shasta daisies tied with white meline. On the bride's table stood a miniature bride. The prizes for playing were won by Mrs. D. H. Hill and Miss Margaret Cox, and the honoree was also presented with a lovely gift.

Refreshments of fruit salad, and mint water-ice were served at the end of the games, while punch was served throughout the afternoon.

Miss Marie Garner, of Union, shared the honors of this delightful entertainment with Miss Cox.

IN THE MOUNTAINS

Mrs. C. D. Brown and Misses Louise and Charlotte Brown will leave Thursday for Brevard, N. C., where they will spend the remainder of the summer. They have taken a cottage for the season.

A CHANGE IN THE HOUR

The Bridge Club, which will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. W. D. Barksdale, will be at 5:30 o'clock and not at 5 as stated in Monday's Press and Banner.

PICNICKING

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. White, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Reese went out to Rapley Shoals this morning to give the children a good time at a genuine picnic. This will be like seeing the animals at the circus, father and mother are also prepared for a good time.

COMING BACK

Miss Myrtle Wright left Tuesday for her home in Maryland. Miss Wright has been the popular milliner for Philson and Henry, for the past season and her customers will be glad to know that she will return in the Fall.

THE MERRIE MATRONS

Miss Sarah Perrin is entertaining the Merrie Matrons and the guests who are in town for the various weddings this afternoon.

OFF FOR THE SUMMER

Mrs. Ellen Norwood is leaving Friday for Hendersonville, N. C., to spend the summer. During her absence Miss Mary Dupre will have charge of the Library.

HOME AGAIN

Misses Rachel and Susan Minshall and Fred Minshall arrived in Abbeville Wednesday morning after a two week's visit to Richmond. They say that Richmond is even bigger than Greenwood people say Greenwood is.

VISITORS FOR A DAY

Mrs. Emma Little, and her daughters, Mrs. J. R. Copeland, of Clinton, and Mrs. Harvey Brannon, of Statesboro, Ga., spent today in the city the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Little.

A BRIDESMAID

Miss Elizabeth Jones has gone to Anderson where she will act as bridesmaid for her friend, Miss Clarice Townsend, who marries Thursday afternoon.

A grain of theoretical wisdom may turn out to be a pound of practical folly.

THERE'LL COME A TIME WHEN YOU'LL BE GLAD YOU SAVED YOUR MONEY

Have you planned a trip and now find that you are unable to go on account of the fact that you have no money? Don't let next vacation time catch you unprepared. Join our $100 Club and have the money on hand when you need it. Deposit $2 now and $8 each month for 12 months. Then we will pay you $100.

START NOW...

Planters Bank

"The Friendly Bank"

The Home of Over 1000 Bank Accounts.

