

STEADY INCREASE IN MANUFACTURES

PRELIMINARY FIGURES OF CENSUS MAKE COMPARISON OF INDUSTRIES FROM 1914 THRU 1919—EXCLUDES HAND AND BUILDING TRADES.

Washington, July 10.—A preliminary statement of the general results of the census of manufactures for the state of South Carolina was issued today by the bureau of the census, department of commerce. It consists of a summary comparing the figures for 1914 and 1919, by totals.

The figures for 1919 are preliminary and subject to such change and correction as may be found necessary from a further examination of the reports.

The census of manufactures, 1919, like that of 1914, excluded the hand trades, the building trades, and the neighborhood industries, and took account only of establishments conducted under the factor system. In this census also, as in that for 1914 statistics were not included for establishments having products for the census year valued at less than $500, except that reports were taken for establishments idle during a portion of the census year, or which began operation during that year, and whose products for such reason were valued at less than $500.

The word "establishment" as used in the census reports may mean more than one mill or plant, provided they are owned or controlled and operated by a single individual, partnership, corporation, or other owner or operator, and are located in the same town or city.

The reports were taken for the calendar year ending December 31, 1919 or the business year of the establishment most nearly conforming to that calendar year.

The summary shows a consistent increase at the census of 1919, as compared with that for 1914 with the exception of the item of proprietors and firm members which shows a decrease of 8.3 per cent.

In the order of their importance from a percentage standpoint, the increases for the several items rank as follows. Value added by manufacture (value of products less cost of materials), 220.5 per cent; value of products, 174.7 per cent; wages 158.6 per cent; services 151.4 per cent; materials, 150.6 per cent; salaries, 115.4 per cent; capital, 84.9 per cent; salaried employees, 31.8 per cent; primary horse power, 16.2 per cent; persons engaged in manufactures 11.1 per cent; wage earners (average number), 10.5 per cent; and number of establishments, 6.3 per cent.

The capital invested as reported in 1919, shows a gain of $172,594,000 or 84.9 per cent over that in 1914. The average capital per establishment was approximately $188,000 in 1919 and $108,000 in 1914. In this connection it should be stated that the inquiry contained in the census schedule calls for the total amount of capital, both owned and borrowed, invested in the business, but excludes the value of rented property, plant, or equipment which was employed in the conduct of manufacturing enterprises. The final bulletins and reports will show the rental paid for such property.

GIRL SPURNS LOVE; FORTUNE COMPENSATES

Detroit, July 9.—"Broke," on the Fourth of July, spurned by the girl he loved because he made only 40 cents an hour, and today able to buy the hotel where he was employed, as an engine helper, is the way the wheel of fortune turned for E C Cox 28.

On the Fourth, Cox borrowed $2 from the hotel proprietor to buy a shirt.

He then proposed to a pantry girl at the hotel, but his proposal was ridiculed because he made but 40 cents an hour.

Today Cox received word that he was one of three heirs to an estate of $15,000,000, left by Dr. Samuel Shaw of Hollister, Cal. He left immediately for the coast.

A pantry girl was left behind.

BEEF CATTLE DEVELOP IN SALUDA COUNTY

Clemson College, July 10.—A number of Saluda County farmers under the leadership of the county agent, J. M. Eleazer, and the extension livestock specialist, W. J. Sheely are establishing the foundation for a good beef cattle development as a sideline in that county. For several years these extension workers have felt that some Saluda County farmers were in position as to pasture, to go into the raising of beef cattle on small scale. Recently a trip made by leading farmers to examine the sweet potato curing house at Aiken was used as an opportunity to visit the polled Hereford herd of Mr. C. B. Wooley.

Immediately, says the county agent four of the farmers in the country became much interested in polled Herefords and decided to start pure bred herds. At their request, Messrs Eleazer and Sheely arranged a trip into Georgia to select breeding stock. Six farmers went on this trip, and one of these purchased a foundation herd of one bull and four cows and heifers and the other five are now negotiating for similar deals.

These are to serve as foundation for sideline cattle work, says the county agent, to be pushed on most farms in the county. It is figured that those having good pasture lands can prepare them with grasses and clovers for permanent pastures and grow velvet beans in the corn fields for temporary pasture, so that this sideline cattle can be carried practically the year round without the necessity of stall feeding. This plan should net considerable profit on good soil and bound to build up the land. It is a plan which can be adopted with profit in many other counties in the state.

STRENGTH AND PROFIT COME WITH OPERATION

Clemson College, July 9.—Two thousand barrels of Irish potatoes sold at $5.00 per barrel while the general market on potatoes was $2 per barrel was the result of organization and co-operation among Florence County farmers during the season just ended. This fine result was brought about through the instrumentality of the Florence Chamber of Commerce and County Agent J. W. McLendon, and as a consequence the farmers working through the organization made a profit of $6,000 above the market.

To start at the beginning of this story, a contract was made, before the time for marketing, with a buyer who was attracted to the Florence potato market again this year because of the satisfactory way in which potatoes were handled on that market in 1920. Then the leaders in the Florence potato organization put on a campaign for proper digging, grading, packing and shipping of the crop. Instructions were given by letter to all member growers and assistance was given where needed.

Potatoes were required to be machine graded, and growers who did not have enough potatoes to warrant buying graders individually were aided in securing graders jointly. Strict grading was required for the market was falling, and on a falling market grading is doubly important.

Farmers who did not work through the organization received $2.00 per barrel for their potatoes, this paying a big penalty for their failure to realize in time the value of organized effort.

THEDA BARA MARRIES DIRECTOR OF PICTURES

New York, July 9.—The secret marriage of Theda Bara, one of the best known interpreters of vampire roles on the silver screen, to C. K. Brabin, a director of the Fox films and the star's personal director, became known here Thursday.

While the wedding had been anticipated several weeks none of the friends of the couple in and out of the profession had the slightest inkling that the ceremony had been performed last Saturday until Thursday. It was performed by a justice of the peace in Greenwich, Conn.

Both have denied the rumors that they were to wed. Only a few weeks ago Mr. Brabin declared they "were just good friends."

At the Fox Film Corporation all knowledge of the marriage was denied. It was also asserted that the whereabouts of the couple was not known.

Mrs. Brabin is about 31 years old. Mr. Brabin is about 40. He was born in England and has been divorced.

OVER HALF CAMP JACKSON MEN WANT DISCHARGES

Columbia, July 9.—More than fifty per cent of the men at Camp Jackson, whose personnel totals over 14,000 men, have made applications for discharges, according to an official statement from the camp today. Not all of these will be honored, however, it is said. In one regiment, the Sixtieth infantry, the number of discharge applications has reached 80 per cent. There are fourteen military organizations in the camp. The smallest percentage of applications is thirty, in the Sixth infantry.

STINGIEST PERSON.

A man in our neighborhood recently became independent by receiving a good position and at the end of the first week's pay his father presented him with a bill containing the expense of the young man ever since he was born, including the expense of the attending physician when he came into the world; this was all added up and compound interest was charged. The boy without a murmur has begun to pay it all back to his father. The amount would buy a nice home.—Chicago American.

WOMAN SEES THIEF AND SHOCK KILLS HER

Atlanta, Ga., July 9.—A burglar's attempt to steal an automobile from the garage of 324 Myrtle street, Kirkwood, brought death late Thursday night to Mrs. Janie Sutton Foster, 66 years old, member of a prominent Georgia family, who lay ill in her room at 77 North Howard street over looking the

The sound of the man's efforts as he forced the garage door and worked stealthily about the machine excited Mrs. Foster intensely. Her son, A. H. Foster, former State senator, was called, and, with fears for his safety and her general excitement, she died within a few minutes.

For hours she had lain in her bed, fighting for breath, made difficult by a long bronchial and pulmonary affection. All windows of her room were open, so that she heard every sound from the garage distinctly.

The thief failed in his effort, but escaped before pursuit could be organized. A hunt for clews was being made Friday.
