BANKS "ON THE ROAD"

Writes of Moses Waddell and Old Work on Suspension Structure Cost-Willington.

(William Banks in Columbia State) New York Times. In these days of "efficiency," "prohave? These reflections are caused porations have been organized to car- try have been nominated recently as well as health. by a consideration of the "buried cit- ry out the project, the American for the Hall of Fame for Trees, ineye comes to rest upon the ensemble financing and building the bridge, at a distance of a mile, of a patriar- and that plans for the structure are of one of the most famous seats of actual construction in 1922. instruction in the whole history of the United States. Here at old Wil- tained authority from Congress to lington were taught by Moses Wad-span the river, which project is estidell a great number of young men mated to cost approximately $30,whose names subsequently were em- | 000,000. The bridge will be a suspenblazoned upon the pages of our histery John C. Calhoun, William H. Crayford of Georgia, who so nearly achieved the presidency of the United States, George McDuffie, Hugh S. Legare, James L. Petigru, Pickens Butler, who sat with Calhoun in the United States senate; Patrick Noble, ity cables or conduits. Bull, Dawson, Walker, Marshall, Shields, Simkins and Longstreet, of this state, together with Cobb, Gilmer, Appling and other towering Georgians. Ah, the efficiency of those days, and the product! Two former pupils at one time representing South Carolina in the United Statees senate. Incomparable. All that remains of old Willington is the record of the great men and New York; Professor C. R. Young, good who themselves have passed in University of Toronto, and Colonel to history more than half a century C. N. Monsarrat, consulting engineer, gone. The heritage of such a man as Ottawa, Ontario, who was a member Moses Waddell, and the influence of of the Board of Engineers of the his life upon the history of the en- Quebec bridge. tire South-for later he became president of the University of Georgia and his son chancellor of the Univeersity of Mississippi-is priceless, yet how little appreciated. The Americanism character of such men was due to the discipline under which they to issue to all shoe manufacturers had been reared and the same inflex- in New Zealand who are willing to ibility of regard for principle which comply with the conditions set out in they imposed upon the youthful mind. The so-called "cultural" stu- the market boots branded "New dies are laughed at today in comparison with the practical and technical but in those days at least there was familiar to the student of those days as the rules of the baseball diamond are to the normal boy of today. Think of studying Latin in rhyme from "Ruddiman's Rudiments of the Latin Tongue," a book of many expediments for the purpose of aiding the memory to overcome the stubborn obstacles of syntax. And yet the psychiatrists of today think they have discovered something new in the mental tests they gave the recruits coming into camp during the war. All of those tricks and puzzles were "small town stuff" compared with the intricacies of "Rudiman's Rudiments." The days of the old schools have passed and the problem of the day is teaching "in the mass," and it public election, should the votes, of is a problem in which the foresight- faction predominate by internal suged educators would have the sympa- gestions or the bias of jurispruthy of all who wish to see the mind dence?" of the child developed properly. When we think of Dr. Waddell and his as- to parse or to analyze that sentence sociates having as many as 180 will readily see that "there's nothing young men under their training at to it," in the finished vernacular of

of the way.

schoolmasters of those days.

period. Two of the young men "fram- Georgia, a man as renowned in state- tion was reached today by Secretary ed up" on their mates, and proposed craft in his day as Tyrus Raymond Mellon in conference with Internal for debate the subject "Whether at Cobb has been in these later years. Revenue Commissioner Blair.

BIG BRIDGE FOR DETROIT

ing $30,000,000 To Begin

Definite arrangements for prelimiduction" and such like, do we give nary work on the construction of a full credit to the efficiency of the men great highway and railway bridge who dared the wilderness and its per- across the Detroit-River at Detroit ils to give us the great state that we were announced yesterday. Two cories" of South Carolina. Among them Transit Company and the Canadian stituted by the American Forestry is old Willington. Standing in the Transit Company, chartered by the Association. Four of them are oaks door of the general store of Covan Canadian Parliament. It is under-& Kennedy, at the new town of Wil-stood that a contract has been signed lington, and looking due west, the between them for joint action in chal grove of white oaks—the site sufficiently under way to contemplate

> The American company has sion span 1,803 feet centre to centre of piers, and 110 feet clear above the water. There will be two decks, with provision for two street car tracks, two twenty-eight foot roadways, two seven-foot walks, four railway tracks and space for public util-

Charles Evan Fowler, consulting. engineer of New York City, is handling the design and construction of the bridge. A board of consulting engineers has also been organized with Mr. Fowler as Chairman, the other members being George H. Pagram, chief engineer, Bureau of Rapid Transit Company, New York; William H. Burr, consulting enigneer,

STANDARDIZED SHOES

New York Telegraph.

New Zealand is to have standardized footwear. It is proposed the regulations a license to place on Zealand Board of Trade."

The maximum retail price will be marked in plain figures on the sole a place for the drilling in Latin and of the shoe, and it will not be a Greek. Latin grammar, studied me-breach of the regulations to sell at moriter, definitions of the parts of a lower price. The stamped price speech, declensions and paradigms, will provide for the cost of manuand conjugations, regular and irregu- facture, plus a reasonable profit to tending the public school system of lar, all committed to memory and as the manufacturer, and a sufficient New Orleans after the Civil War. sum to cover distribution.

> Where a retailer or manufacturer employs a warehouse to finance him, the warehouse must be paid for services without increasing the price of the boots to the public, the idea be the trees recently nominated is the ing to reduce handling expenses to famous Lewis Cass elm in the City the lowest possible figure and bring Park at Elyria, Ohio. It is said to be the retailer into direct touch with 250 years old, and in 1848 Lewis the manufacturer. Theb est-quality Cass stood beneath the tree and adchrome leather for the uppers and first-grade New Zealand sole leather must be used. The maximum retail prices will range from children's shoes at 14s. 3d. to men's shoes at ary Taylor. The elm is in an excel-

Now, any one who will undertake one time, when we think, of the the youth of today. The two youths soundness and the symmetry of the who perpetrated this query prepared tract market. December crossed the finished product, we must confess elaborate arguments, one pro and 15 cent level to 15.06 cents and Oct. that there were giants among the con. The other members of the society were puzzled, but some were points higher than the close of yesgame enough to tackle the subject terday. Let no one mispronounce the name until they "blew up" and were fined of this remarkable man. He disdain- and otherwise penalized under the from the opening and as the day ed the accent on the last syllable rules of the debating society. The grew older was deluged with buyas an affectation and declared that young men who participated after- ing orders from points in the interhe had "waddled along thus far in wards became famous in the history ior. life," and he would "waddle" the rest of this state. Judge Longstreet but superficially conceals their identity reports of a better spot demand, the under the noms de plume. For in- farmers' holding movement and the There are many interesting anec- stance we readily recognize in "Mc- appearance in the east gulf of Mexdotes of Dr. Waddell and his school Dermot," one of the perpetrators of ico of a storm area which, it was and one of the most amusing is per- the hoax, none other than . George feared, might mean disastrous rains petuated in "Georgia Scenes," that McDuffie, afterwards governor and for the Atlantics, were the main droll book by Dr. A. B. Longstreet, United States senator and one of buying influence of the session. one of Dr. Waddell's pupils and la- the state's greatest orators. Others of ter president of South Carolina col- the society were Judge Longstreet lege. In this little story, "The De- himself, the other perpetrator of the bating Society," Judge Longstreet joke, and Jas. L. Petigru, South to withhold issuance of medical beer describes the interest taken in such Carolina's greatest lawyer; John No- regulations pending congresisonal acschool work by the young men of the ble, afterwards governor and Cobb of tion on proposed anti-beer legisla-

HISTORIC TREES NAMED FIT FOR HALL OF FAME

THE PRESS AND BANNER,

American Forestry Association Ga thers Data of Interest To File As Record.

Nearly a dozen historic and aged trees in different parts of the counand three are elms. Two of the trees, an oak and a willow, are closely as-Huguenot. Washington was a visitor Horry family not to cut the tree banter as one hopelessly behind the down. It has long been known as times. the oak which Washington saved. and Colonel Rutledge has devoted a great deal of care to its preserva-

The willow is at Constantine, Mich. It grew from some twigs of the large weeping willows over the tomb of Washington at Mount Vernon. The twigs were cut from the Washington willows in 1876 by Franklin Wells and John Jones of Constantine. Only one willow survived, and church women of all denominations, that is now a magnificent tree.

Besides the South Carolina oak three other famous oaks have been down of moral standards manifested and the third in Massachusetts. The methods of dancing.' One of our newlast named is known as the Indian est and most exclusive Chicago howar oak. It is in Grafton, Mass., a tels has ttaken a definite stand aing the early wars against the Indi-

The New Jersey tree is known as the Crosswicks oak, being in the 1773. The church was used as a hosground. The tree is 87 feet high, having a spread of 123 feet.

The New Orleans tree is known as the McDonough oak and is a memorial tree to the former owner of the estate, who took an active part in ex-The circumference of this oak at a height of four feet from the ground is 27 feet and its branches have a

So far as is known the oldest of dressed a mass meeting of Ohio voters during his Presidential campaign. He was punning on the Democratir ticket against General Zachlent state of preservation, having a circumference of 14 feet 5 inches at a height of four feet above the ground and is 82 feet in height.

COTTON ADVANCES $5.00 A BALE ON EXCITED MARKET

New Orleans, Aug. broadest demand for cotton in many months put the price up $5 a bale by noon today in the futures conrose to 14.86, where it stood 106

The ring was excited and active

The continued drought in Texas,

No Beer Regulations Yet. Washington, Aug. 25.-Decision

CORSETS AND MORALITY

New York Telegram.

In connection with the controversy raging in social, educational and religious circles anent the present laxity of manners and morals among the younger generation, a corset manufacturing concern comes forward with the novel claim that corset wearing is a positive force for morality

"Wherever you go, in these days the Court of Common Pleas for Abof a free-and-easy social atmosphere,' beville County, in said State, made in says Mrs. Ariel Nichols LeMay, ad- the above stated case. I will offer for sessments for street improvements vertising manager for a national sale, at Public Outcry, at Abbeville, firm of corset makers, "you find the C. H., S. C., on Salesday in Septemsociated with George Washington. present corsetless fad a favorite tar- ber, A. D., 1921, within the legal The oak is on the Hampton planta- get of punsters and purveyors of off- hours of sale the following described and two years in equl installments, tion at Santee River, South Caro- tint anecdotes. The 'Old Ironsides' land, to wit: All that certain lot or the credit portion to bear interest at lina. The plantation is owned by and 'with or without' stories parcel of land situate, lying and be- the rate of seven per cent per annum, Colonel Henry Rutledge, who occu- by which some of the broadest of us ing in the city of Abbeville, Abbe- and to be evidenced by the bond of ples the spacious home built about were shocked a few months ago-1750 by Daniel Horry, a French have had so many wild successors that any would-be daring jokesters there in 1791, and admired the oak who quoted the original quip would Rambo, engineer, dated April 22, so much that he prevailed on the doubtless let himself in for derisive 1919, the same having a two story papers.

"The dance evil has assumed the proportions of a national problem. With it are associated questions of immodest dress and conduct. In high schools, collèges and universities, in the pulpit and in daily and religious papers from one end of the country to the other, educators, preachers and editors are thundering against modern dress and dancing. In New York, I am told, there is a group of women of high social position, who have organized to combat 'the breaknamed for the Hall of Fame. One is particularly in fashion involving an in New Jersey, one in New Orleans excess of nudity and improper place which figured prominently dur- gainst the prevailing fashion and has posted signs in its cloak rooms, reading, 'Positively no corsets checked."

As timely publicity on the value of corsets to health and the presertown of that name standing close to vation of a youthful carriage, anthe old meeting house built in circulating a short motion picture produced by the industrial division of pital during the Revolution and at the Society for Visual Education in one time was occupied by a regiment Chicago, which is so designed that it of Hessians. The oak is one of the is free from any suggestion of direct largest in New Jersey, having a cir- advertising, so developed as to be cumference of 26 1-2 feet at a entirely suitable for showing to mixheight of three feet above the ed audiences in motion picture thea-

MASTER'S SALE

The State of South Carolina, COUNTY OF ABBEVILLE,

Court of Common Pleas L. P. SONDLEY, against

CHARLIE JANIDES and Defendants.

By authority of a decree of sale by ville County, in the State aforesaid, the purchaser, secured by his mortknown as lot No. 4 of the D. O'Neill gage of the premises, with option to property as shown on plate of S. B. brick house thereon, fronting twenty-five and nine-tenths (25.9) feet on Aug. 1. 1921 Master A. C., S. C. the Public Square, and running back a distance of seventy-two and eight tenths (72.8) feet; being bounded on the northwest by lot No. 3; on the northeast by lot No. 8 and law range lot; on the southeast by Russell store lot and law range lot; and on the southwest by the public square.

Also lot No. 8 of the D. O'Neill property lying at the rear of the above described lot and running back from the rear of a ten (10) foot alleyway, the same having a width of sixteen and five tenths (16.5) feet, and a depth from lot No. 4 to the alley way of sixty-one and sixteenths (61.6) feet; the northwest line being a continuation of the northwest line of lot No. 4, the same being bounded on the northwest by lot No. 7; on the northeast by alley way; on the southeast by law range lot; and on the southwest by lot No. 4 and being more accurately described on the plat above referred to.

The two (2) lots described above will be sold as one (1) lot. All asmust be assured by the purchaser.

TERMS OF SALE—One-third cash, and balance on credit of one the purchaser to pay all cash.

Purchaser to pay for stamps and

THOS. P. THOMSON,

LIVE STOCK

Sold by Druggists and Dealers

1837

ERSKINE COLLEGE 1921

DUE WEST, S. C.

Eighty four years of continuous service.

Unwavering Adherence to Christian Character and Courses: A. B., B. S., M. A., Pre-Medical, Special.

Literary Societies Emphasized. Intercollegiate Contests in Debate, Oratory and Athletics worthy of comparison. Adequate Equipment and Endowment.

Board in College Home at Cost. Price in Private Homes For catalogue and Application Blank, write to ERSKINE COLLEGE, DUE WEST, S. C.

MOUNTAIN EXCURSIONS

(Back to The Good Old Days)

SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM

Friday, September 2, 1921

From all Principal Points in South Carolina including Augusta, Ga., to Asheville, Hendersonville, Waynesville and all other Western North Carolina Summer Resorts as follows:

FROM	TO Asheville	Black Mountain	Brevard	Flat Rock	Hendersonville	Hickory	Hot Springs	Lake Junaluska	Lake Toxaway	Lenoir	Marion	Rutherfordton	Saluda	Shelby	Tryon	Waynesville
The state of the s	$6.25	$6.75		$5.25		100	$8.00 6.75	$7.25 6.50	$7.00 6.75	7		$6.25 6.00			4.00	6.25
Anderson _ Belton	5.50	6.00	.5.00	4.00	4.25	5.75	6.50	6.25	6.00	7.00	6.25	5.25			3.75	6.25
Carlisle Donalds	5.75	6.25	5.75	4.75	5.00		6.00 7.25	1	5.25 6.50	7.50	6.75	5.75	4.50	4.75	4.25	6.75 5.25
Greenville -	4.25	4.75	4.25	3.25 5.50	3.50 5.50	5.25 7.25	5.50 7.75	4	7.00	6.00 8.00	5.25 7.25	4.25 6.50	3.00 5.25	5.15	4.50	7.50
Greenwood . Greer	3.75	7.00 4.25	6.25 3.75	3.00	3.00	4.75	5.00	4.	4.50	5.50 7.25	4.75 6.50	3.75 5.50	2.25 4.25	2.50 4.50	2,25	4.75 6.50
Honea Path	5.50 4.75	6.25 5.50	5.50 4.75	4.75	4.75	6.50	7.00 6.25		6.25 5.50	6.75	5.75	5.00	3.75	4.00	3.25 3.25	6.00 5.75
Piedmont _	4.75	5.25	4.75	3.75	4.00 5.25	5.75 7.00	6.00	· Comment	5.50 6.75	6.50	5.50 7.00	4.75 6.00	3.50 4.75	5.25	4.50	7.25
Prosperity _ Seneca	6.00 5.75	6.75 6.25	6.00 5.75	5.25 4.75	4.75	6.75	7.00	6.50	6.25 3.75	7.50 5.00	6.50 4.00	5.75 3.00	4.50 2.00	4.75 2.25	4.00 1.50	6.75 4.25
Spartanburg	3.00	3.75 4.75	3.00 4.00	2.25 3.25	2.25 3.25	4.25 7.00	4.50 5.50	12/2/2	100000000000000000000000000000000000000	(C)	5.00	4.25	2000	1 2 2 2 2	2.50	5.25

PROPORTIONATELY LOW FARES FROM INTERMEDIATE POINTS

(WAR TAX TO BE ADDED)

EXCURSION TICKETS good going on all trains September 2nd, and good returning to and including all trains leaving destination Sunday, September the 18th.

EXCURSION TICKETS will be good in Pullman, Sleeping and Parlor Cars and Baggage Checked.

PLAN NOW for your Vacation and Needed Rest in the Western North Carolina Mountain Resorts. Make Pullman Reservations Early.

Apply to Ticket Agents or

R. C. COTNER, District Passenger Agent, SPARTANBURG, S. C.