

ARBUCKLE HELD IN CELL AT JAIL

Will Be Prosecuted on Charge Of Murder.—Can Not Give Bond.

San Francisco, Sept. 17.—With the formal announcement today that Roscoe C. ("Fatty") Arbuckle, motion picture comedian, would be prosecuted on a charge of murder in connection with the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, actress, following a Labor day party in the actor's hotel rooms here, both the prosecution and defense squared away tonight to arrange for the trial, the first chapter of which will be written next Thursday, when it is expected the prisoner will be given his preliminary examination.

When District Attorney Matthew Brady, in the court of Police Judge Sylvain Lazrus today, announced that "the people are ready to proceed on the murder charge," he blasted the hopes of the defense that Arbuckle would tonight be at liberty on $5,000 bond set by the court when a grand jury indictment charging the defendant with manslaughter was returned. It was indicated today that the prosecution's decision to go to trial on the murder charge was a surprise to the defense. From Los Angeles came reports that Arbuckle had already made train reservations for a trip from San Francisco to that city this evening. Murder is not a bailable charge in California. The reservations, if made, can not be used.

District Attorney Brady has the support of the board of county supervisors in his prosecution of Arbuckle, it was shown today when the finance committee of that body appropriated $1,000 for immediate expenses of the trial and promised more when needed. Brady had asked the board for additional funds, declaring much wealth would be expended by the defense.

Mrs. Bambina Maude Delmont who swore to the murder charge on which Arbuckle today appeared in court viewed Miss Rappe's body today and is reported to have suffered a partial collapse.

Robert H. McCormick, assistant United States attorney in charge of liquor prosecutions, said he expected to present to the federal jury on Tuesday evidence that liquor was served and consumed at the party given by Arbuckle in which Miss Rappe was alleged to have received her fatal injuries.

In addition to his other troubles Arbuckle may suffer the loss of his custom made automobile, said to have cost $25,000. Government officials say if it is shown that liquor was transported from Los Angeles to this city in the automobile it is liable to confiscation.

Subpoenas were issued today summoning Lowell Sherman and Fred Fischback, said to have been guests at the party, to appear before the United States grand jury here. Sherman and Fischback were questioned yesterday concerning liquor said to have been consumed at the party. According to Robert Camarillo, assistant United States district attorney, Fischback said that 40 quarts of liquor were consumed in three days at the Arbuckle apartments.

DON'T LIKE JURY DUTY

New Jersey Women Regard Summons As Invitation.

Hackensack, Sept. 13.—Sheriff Joseph Kinzley of Bergen county today received a score of letters and as many telephone calls from women who have been summoned to appear on Wednesday to serve on the petty jury for this month. Judging from the messages, only a few will be present.

The Sheriff said the majority of those summoned appeared to think that serving on the jury was something like attending a tea party—that they could appear if they wish or stay away at pleasure. The Sheriff said he had done his duty in summoning them and that if they did not appear it was up to the court to decide what should be done.

The first letter the Sheriff opened was from a prospective juror. In it the woman said:

"It will be very hard for me to appear on Wednesday, as I haven't concluded my vacation as yet, and I don't think the court ought to interfere with my pleasure."

As the Sheriff put this letter to one side he was confronted by another with this:

"Since I offered my services I have secured a good position, and if I serve I am afraid that I will lose my job. What will I do?"

The Sheriff didn't send any advice, saying that he would let the woman decide for herself.

So it went along all day, excuse after excuse, until the Sheriff didn't know which way to turn. Thirty-five women are scheduled to appear in court on Wednesday before County Judge John B. Zabriskie, they having stated several weeks ago that they were willing to serve.

The Grand Jury of Bergen County will be sworn in tomorrow by Supreme Court Justice C. W. Parker. On this jury is one woman. She has announced that she will be present.

FRANCS AND LETTERS

Paris, Sept. 15.—Pouche—who says his true name is more high sounding, being Pouche de la Nicolle—a Basque sailor from Bayonne, who is said to have inherited 38,000,000 francs from a long forgotten uncle in South America, is beginning to think that being a millionaire, even if only prospective, is no sinecure.

Pouche cannot write or read. And now he is being flooded by many dozens of letters daily. It is no joke, says Pouche, to be obliged to go through all these strange hieroglyphics, even when you have a secretary. And Pouche's secretary is not much of an expert at deciphering handwriting anyhow. He is the owner of a little saloon where Pouche has rooms in Dunkirk.

His rooms consist of a little bedroom upstairs and a large reception room downstairs, which, owing to the shortage of housing accommodations in Dunkirk, Pouche shares with his saloon-keeper-secretary and the bar.

Like celebrities Pouche lives the greater part of his time under the eye of the highly interested public at the bar. Nonchalantly reclining with the stub of a clay pipe between his teeth the future millionaire listens with a blasé air while the saloon-keeper laboriously reads out one letter after another.

These come mostly from people who express a profound and touching faith in the unlimited goodness of Pouche's heart. They just know he is not the boy to refuse a helping hand to those in trouble. Many are written by women who are convinced that only they can assure Pouche's future happiness—a large percentage of these are widows. The other writers are ready to handle the sailor's business interests.

One young girl says she is so pretty that Pouche could not possibly do better than to adopt her as a daughter. She has known all her life that she was born to be a millionaire's child. But the old sea-dog does not look convinced.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 16.—Mrs. Earl M. Rowray, 41, gave birth to her twenty-second child yesterday. Mrs. Rowray became a bride at 14 and a mother at 17. She has been married twice. By her first husband she had twenty children. Four years ago he died and she married a man twenty years her junior and since then two children have been born to them.

M'NALLY DIES IN CHAIR DESPITE WIFE'S PLEA

Governor, Having Refused To Grant Author Stay, Slayer Pays Penalty.

Ossining, Sept. 16.—Edward J. McNally, whose life was spared two weeks ago by a last-minute stay granted by Governor Miller was electrocuted tonight in Sing Sing. Although he knew this afternoon that all hope had gone, McNally went smilingly to the chair at 11:02 and was dead seven minutes later.

McNally was accompanied to the death chamber by the Rev. Father William E. Cashine, Roman Catholic chaplain. The doomed man had bade farewell to his wife, who tried as late as last night to induce the Governor in Syracuse to grant another reprieve.

McNally was one of the three tried for the murder of Walter Jasowski, a war veteran, who was shot more than a year ago in a robbery of a restaurant at Mariner's Harbor, R. I. The two other men implicated were permitted to enter pleas of guilty to second-degree murder. They are in Sing Sing. McNally's counsel, William Casey of Stapleton made a long fight to save his client from the chair. The lawyer obtained 5,000 names of Staten Islanders to a petition seeking the Governor's clemency, but the Governor said he would sustain the decision of the Court of Appeals upholding the mans' conviction.

Hundreds of persons crowded the corridors outside the offices of the Internal Revenue office in a last-day rush to pay their income taxes.

TWO MORE CARS FOUND IN AUTO 'GRAVEYARD'

New York, Sept. 17.—Sergeant Wekkesson and three policemen, in a launch of the Marine Division yesterday afternoon, while dragging the East River at Tiffany Street, the Bronx, uncovered two more automobiles in the recently discovered "automobile graveyard" there. A policeman donned a diver's suit and examined the interior of each car, but reported that he was unable to find any bodies in them. He said the cars were so deeply embedded in mud that he was unable to recognize their make or to discern their license or engine numbers.

The police expressed a belief that the cars had been abandoned and sent speeding into the river from a deserted pier. It was their theory that the spot was used by automobile thieves to get rid of cars when they feared police pursuit was becoming hot. Other cars probably were thus sent into the river by their owners, the police said, for the purpose of obtaining insurance or to get rid of them after they had proved useless. A wrecking crew will remove the cars from the river today.

DISCARD STRAWS Throw Old Lid On Diamond When Babe Ruth Hits 55th.

New York, Sept. 17.—The keeper of the Polo Grounds could wear a different hat every day for more than ten years if he had saved all the straws that were sacrificed yesterday when "Babe" Ruth broke the world's home run record with his 55th circuit swat. The fans were waiting for some excuse to get rid of their summer headgear, the season for which officially expired yesterday and when Ruth hit his homer, hats fairly rained on the diamond. A demon statistician essayed to count them after they had been raked into a pile by groundsman, but quit on number 3,799 at dusk, with a big heap still uncounted.
