The army of the disabled keeps growing. In Hospitals under Government care. The Red Cross is spending Ten Million Dollars a Year to help the ex-serviceman and his family. Annual Roll Call Nov. 11-24, 1921. To bring before the country in visual form the vast problem it is helping to solve, the American Red Cross has prepared for its Annual Roll Call, Nov. 11 to 24, a poster showing how rather than diminishing the total of World War veterans entitled to Federal aid continues to grow. Red Cross Service to these men is costing $10,000,000 a year.

President Harding Now Heads Red Cross. Succeeding former President Wilson, President Harding was recently elected president of the American Red Cross. He is here seen accepting the office. From left to right: Maj. Gen. Merritte W. Ireland, Surgeon General, U. S. A.; Dr. Livingston Farrand, chairman Central Committee of the Red Cross; the President; Asst. Secretary of the Treasury Elliot Wadsworth; Rear Admiral Edward R. Stitt, Surgeon General, U. S. N.

Red Cross Gives $310,000 to Aid 'Clean-Up' Drive. An appropriation of $310,000 for Red Cross work in connection with the "clean-up" campaign instituted by the Government to bring the claims of all disabled service men who are entitled to Federal aid before the proper government bureau for action, has been made by the American Red Cross. The Executive Committee of the American Red Cross in making the appropriation authorized the appropriation of $35,000 of this sum to the American Legion to defray the expense of the Legion representatives assigned to the various districts of the Veterans Bureau.

Red Cross Trains 147 Blind Vets In Useful Work. Training designed to fit them for the battle of life was taken by 147 blind ex-servicemen at the Red Cross Institute for the Blind, near Baltimore, Md., during the fiscal year 1920-1921, according to the report of the Institute for that period. Of this number, 19 have gone on to other institutions, in almost every case to institutions where those having sight are receiving advanced education. The blind ex-servicemen who have entered such institutions are provided with special text-books in Braille, reading which they were taught at the Red Cross Institute. Twelve men have passed from the Institute to successfully carry on some occupation or business for which they were fitted by special training. A few have withdrawn from the Institute because of poor physical condition, 14 are receiving further "training on the job" and 87 are still in training.

Young America Sends Vast Relief To Needy Abroad. Various relief projects of the Junior American Red Cross in European countries resulted in helping 237,000 destitute children during the last fiscal year, according to the annual report of the American Red Cross for that period. The growth of the activities of the Juniors abroad is manifested by a comparison which shows this figure is 200,000 larger than that of the previous fiscal year. The National Children's Fund raised by school children, members of the Junior American Red Cross, was drawn upon for $420,557 for these projects. Receipts for the National Children's Fund during the last fiscal year totalled $135,317.

Red Cross Plans $6,000,000 Effort To Save Children. Medical care and clothing for thousands of children in Central and Eastern Europe are outlined as the activities of the American Red Cross in Europe for the current year, says a statement on the eve of the Annual Roll Call of the organization. These activities, supplemental to the feeding operations of the European Relief Council of which Herbert Hoover is chairman, are designed to provide the most adequate and balanced relief within the resources of private philanthropy. Through the establishment of child welfare stations in the centers of population of those countries where adequate medical care is not obtainable, the American Red Cross plans to provide the medical assistance needed to restore these children to a normally healthy life. The sum of $6,000,000 has been made available for this work.

PROGRESSIVE CHICAGO! Policemen Deliver Whiskey To Thirsty.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Federal officials today questioned a score of policemen and private citizens in the investigation resulting from statements by Chief of Police Charles Fitzmorris that 2,500 members of Chicago's police force were bootleggers. Tonight, however, with six persons under arrest, Charles F. Clyne, United States District Attorney, announced there would be no more arrests until he "had time to determine if he had a real case." The arrests today resulted in two separate lines of investigation. In one instance three officers of the force were held by Federal authorities on charges of illegally confiscating whiskey. In the second, one officer and two private citizens were arrested on charges of extortion in connection with whiskey deals. Reports to Mr. Clyne that one police station was the home of a nest of bootleggers who delivered whiskey in the patrol wagon, charging an extra fee of $5 if a uniformed guard accompanied the delivery, resulted in fifteen members of the force being called before the District Attorney, but none of them was held. In another case a policeman arrested told Mr. Clyne that he had not arrested a person he saw delivering whiskey because he had been told that his bootlegger was backed by eleven patrolmen and that he did not want to get his fellow-members of the force "in bad." Another patrolman questioned by Mr. Clyne told him that Chief Fitzmorris's statements that 50 per cent of the force was engaged in illicitly handling liquor were conservative, the figure really should be 85 per cent. Chief Fitzmorris said tonight he "would get rid of the bootlegging policemen just as quickly as it could be done without endangering the safety of the citizens. The police force is facing the hardest winter in its history and I intend to keep every member on his toes. Prohibition enforcement is important, but the general safety of Chicago's citizens from murderers, thugs and hold-up men is more important." Clemson College.—Fall planting of fruit trees is strongly recommended in the South. Order trees early so as to have them on hand in ample time for planting before the middle of December.

"LET'S TRAVEL SLOWER" Baskward, turn backward, O Time, in your flight! Let's travel slower a while for tonight; We are so weary of automobiles, tooting and skidding and grazing our heels. Give us a horse and a buggy once more, such as we used in those dear days of yore. Let's amble onward with never a fear that there may be something to get out of gear! No punctured tires or spark plugs to watch; never a throttle to let out of notch; not any danger of our patient steed. We needn't listen for fear of a smash; we needn't worry there may come a crash. But with our sweetheart right there by our side, over the smooth country highway we'd glide. Hang up the ribbons and use either arm, hugging our girlie with no thought of harm. Give us a horse and a buggy, I say, such as we used in our grand-daddy's day. We are too fond of this hustle and rush; we are too prone to get caught in a crush. Let's travel slower—we can't live but once; what is the sense of these fool auto stunts? Too many joyriders out raising hob, anxious to give the grave diggers a job! Backward, turn backward—let's travel more slow, for why in Sam Hill are we worrying so? Washington, Oct. 10.—The United States shipping board has offered to lease idle vessels at $1 a month to coal exporters to assist them in competing with England, it was learned today. This plan was proposed by Secretary Hoover and had immediate agreement from Chairman Lasker and the shipping board. The proposal is now being considered by the exporters. American exporters of coal have not been able successfully to compete with coal exportation from England on account of the high shipping rates.
