SOCIETY

SIX YEARS OLD.

Little Miss Mary Alice Lomax celebrated her sixth birthday Saturday, November 12th at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lomax on North Main street by inviting about twenty-five of her little friends to spend the afternoon with her. The decorations were red, white and blue, flags being used in the decorations. The big birthday contained six red, white and blue candles, and after playing a number of games each little guest was given a souvenir bag of candy thus ending a happy afternoon for the little folks.

RECEPTION WEDNESDAY

The Women's Auxiliary of the Methodist church will give a reception Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock in honor of the Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Peele and the Methodist congregation. The reception will be held at the home of Mrs. John A. Harris, Jr. All Methodists of the city are cordially invited to attend.

U. D. C. DELEGATES

Mrs. G. A. Neuffer and Miss Antoinette Russell have been chosen delegates to the general meeting of the United Daughters of the Confederacy in Charleston this week, beginning Wednesday. The Charleston entertainment committee announces that they will be the guests of Mrs. J. M. Eason while in Charleston.

WILSON-LOMINICK.

Miss Della Wilson and Otis A. Lominick of Newberry were married Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of Miss Wilson's sister, Mrs. J. L. Sprouse, on Chestnut street. The Rev. C. E. Peele performed the ceremony in the presence of a few relatives and friends. They left immediately after the service for Newberry, where they will make their home.

Mrs. Lominick is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Wilson of Fort Pickens. She has made her home with her sister, Mrs. Sprouse, since the death of her mother two years ago. For a time she taught school in Raleigh, N. C., proving herself a capable and efficient instructor. Mr. Lominick is a business man of Newberry, holding a position with Hitt Brothers Co. Mrs. Lominick's friends regret that her marriage takes her to another city to live.
