Mr. Dave Parrisk, of Bristol, Va., the Erskine football coach left for home on Tuesday of this week. Mr. Parrisk has the confidence and respect of the Erskine authorities and of the student body. He sets up a high standard and has his team to work up to this standard. Hence Erskine has the name of playing clean ball. The best wishes follow Mr. and Mrs. Parrisk.

"Bonclarken."

Mrs. Sallie Miller Brice gets the honor of naming the Assembly Grounds. Dr. G. G. Parkinson came next with "Torwood." Rev. W. B. Lindsay third, with "Arpatia." All of us now will be ardent Bonclarkens, "with good, clear vision" and we all think, as Mrs. Brice suggested, of the honored Bonner family, of Dr. Clark, one of our fathers in Scotland and then of the honored Kennedy family. Three names that are deservedly prominent in our church history.

UNIQUE SERVICE

Calhoun Falls People Observe Thanksgiving

In observance of Thanksgiving day the people of Calhoun Falls met at the Baptist church where several addresses were made, the service opening with song.

The sentence prayer was followed by the invocation by the Rev. R. A. Williams. Mrs. Hugh Cox sang as also did E. M. Lander. Addresses were made by T. V. Farrow, the Rev. J. T. Lawrence, J. D. Waters and Prof. A. S. Buyck. A resolution was adopted, favoring the plans for limitation of armament.

Dr. J. C. Solomon presided.

A surgeon was performing an operation on a patient when a fire started in a warehouse across the street, illuminating the whole operating room. Having finished, the doctor said to the nurse: "I think the SUDDENLY they have all grown up and left her—the babies she used to tuck in bed at night. The old house is empty and silent. All have forgotten her. Her birthdays pass unnoticed.

Each child has embarked on a drama of his own. Loves, ambitions, temptations carry them away. There are moments of laughter and comedy, romance, adventure, tragedy. The story of their lives sweeps you along.

Your life—your home—your mother—as they might have been or as they are, "THE OLD NEST" will awaken deep in your heart memories of the mother to whom you ran with your childish troubles.

Never before has the screen touched with such beauty and dramatic force a subject which finds an echo in the lives of every one of us. One of the most heart-gripping dramatic stories ever narrated.

"THE OLD NEST" Rupert Hughes' Heart Gripping Story of Home

TO EVERY MAN, WOMAN & CHILD IN ABBEVILLE:

"THE OLD NEST," a motion picture made by Goldwyn from the story by Rupert Hughes, will be the attraction at the OPERA HOUSE Monday and Tuesday, November 28th and 29th.

Every reasonable effort has been made to tell each and every citizen of Abbeville, including the children, that this picture is to be shown here the first two days of next week.

These efforts have been based upon the unquestionable fact that "THE OLD NEST" is one of the two greatest motion pictures ever shown in this city.

It is the part of good business for a theatre to exploit any picture it may have for presentation. But there are times when the spirit of salesmanship fades into insignificance. This is one of those extraordinary times. And the Management says to you, in sincerest good faith, that it would be doing you an injustice not to beseech you to see this masterpiece of the motion picture art—"THE OLD NEST."

Whatever your life may have been, this picture will wrap itself around your heart. It won't simply appeal to you. It will grab you up, as if it had arms; it will amuse and tickle you and it will make you cry. And, when at last it bids you a highly cheerful adieu, it will leave with you the sweetest, cleanest, most thoughtful feeling the human heart and mind can ever know.

It isn't stogy. It isn't spocky. It isn't churchy and it isn't sexy. It's simply a great, big, soul-stirring story of the life that every human being lives and knows, presented in plain, logical fashion.

Folks in the motion picture industry are proud of it beyond words. They want everybody to see it because it so perfectly exemplifies what they should like every picture made to be.

Yours sincerely,
J. A. VERCHOT, Manager Opera House.
