ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mrs. James F. Bradley announces the engagement of her daughter, Margaret, to Mr. R. F. Poole, Ph. D., of New Jersey, the wedding to take place in February.

A DINNER PARTY.

Mrs. J. C. Klugh entertained at an elaborate dinner party Monday night, having her children at home and her relatives in the city as her guests. At the close of a delightful seven course dinner Mrs. Klugh, in a few happy words toasted Miss Margie Bradley, announcing her approaching marriage.

PLEASANT NEWS.

Mrs. James F. Bradley has announced the engagement of her daughter Miss Margaret Bradley to Mr. R. Frank Poole and many pleasant entertainments are already being planned for the bride-to-be. The wedding will take place in the early part of February.

Miss Bradley was a student of the Woman's College at Due West and has taught successfully in the public schools of the county and in the graded schools at Clinton. Miss Bradley is an accomplished musician and has scores of friends to wish her happiness in her married life.

Mr. Poole is a native of South Carolina, his home being at Graycourt. He is a graduate of Clemson College and a world war veteran of four years service in the aviation department. Mr. Poole is teaching in the University of New Jersey and is a young educator of much promise.

COX-GRANT

Of interest to a large number of friends was the marriage today at 11 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cox, of Miss Katie Margaret Cox and John Aubrey Grant. The Rev. H. L. Weeks of the Baptist church performed the ceremony, the young couple leaving immediately afterward for a visit to relatives in Knoxville, Tenn.

The Cox home was charmingly decorated for the occasion, the color scheme in the parlor being green and white and in the dining room pink and green, the Christmas colors being everywhere in evidence. Boston fern was the green background for the wedding scene proper, white wedding bells and pink tapers completing the scheme.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Minnie Ruth Cox, wearing pink carnations. Her bouquet was of bride roses. Mr. Grant, the bridegroom, had for best man his brother, S. L. Grant, of Chester.

Following the wedding ceremony a delicious salad course, followed by cake and wine was served by Misses Kathleen Schroeder, Valeria Campbell and Kathryn Latimer. Miss Eleanor Schroeder pinned dainty favors of wedding bells on the departing guests.

Mrs. Grant is a daughter of Coroner and Mrs. J. C. Cox and is a young woman of many charming personal qualities and a warm, friendly personality. Mr. Grant is an employe of the Seaboard railway and has numerous friends throughout the section. Their friends will be pleased to know that they will continue to live in Abbeville. Upon their return from Tennessee they will be at home to their friends in their apartment in the Smith house on Pickens street.

Out of town guests at the wedding were:

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Schroeder, Miss Valeria Campbell and J. A. Schroeder, Jr. of Atlanta; Miss Kathryn Latimer of Greenville; Mrs. J. V. Schroeder, Misses Gussie Mae and Marguerite Schroeder of Spencer, N. C., and S. L. Grant of Chester.

DANCE AT EUREKA

Delightful in every particular was the script dance given at the Eureka hotel Tuesday night by Kay's Orchestra. The guests enjoyed dancing for several hours, leaving with many expressions of pleasure at the success of the affair.

LEGION MEETING TOMORROW NIGHT

The dance which will follow the meeting and supper tomorrow afternoon and evening of the ex-service men of Abbeville County will be given in Rosenberg hall, beginning at 9:30 o'clock. Kay's Orchestra will furnish the music. The business meeting will be held in the court house at 6 o'clock in the afternoon. The banquet will begin at 7:30 o'clock in the hall over Parker and Reese's store.

Replies have been received from upwards of 150 ex-service men who are coming to Abbeville for the occasion and indications are that a most enthusiastic evening will be had. The supper, as has been announced, is free to all ex-service men. The public is invited to attend the dance which also is free.

Ernest Rosenberg of Greenwood will be one of the speakers. Frank W. Bradley of Columbia, a native of this county who is on a visit to his father at Troy, has promised to be present if possible. With his long experience in the army and his ability as a speaker, he would be heard gladly by the young men that know him.

The chaperones at the dance will be: Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Coleman, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. McMurray, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Greene, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mars, Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Nickles, Dr. and Mrs. George Penney, Dr. and Mrs. P. B. Speed, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. King, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Barnwell, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barnwell, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. White, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Reese, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Rosenberg.

DINNER PARTY

In honor of the birthday of Miss Ruby Edmonds which occurred on Christmas day several of her friends were the dinner guests of Misses Elizabeth and Ruby Edmonds at their home Monday evening. The rooms were charming in their decorations of holly and flowers, befitting the Christmas season. A course dinner was served.

The guest were, Misses Musella Weeks, Winona Barksdale, Ethel Perry, Ruth Howie, Victoria Howie and Messrs. Raymond Weeks, Sanford Howie and John Lomax.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

In The State of Sunday was the announcement of the engagement of Miss Louise Watson of Sumter, to Mark Reynolds, Jr., of Sumter. Miss Watson, who is a former resident of Abbeville, is a sister of Mrs. G. W. Shelor and Mrs. Gibert Evans of Abbeville, and a daughter of the late A. K. Watson. The wedding is to take place in the early spring.

MARRIED

Married at the Baptist parsonage, Friday, December 23rd, 1921, Mr. C. E. Herndon and Miss Leslie L. Bishop, both of Calhoun Falls, the Rev. H. L. Weeks officiating.

PENNAL-CHEATHAM

Great Falls, Dec. 24.—Mrs. Margaret Pennal and Thomas Cheatham surprised their friends Friday afternoon when they were married at 2 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. E. Bailey, in the presence of a few of their friends. The Rev. J. E. Brown officiated.

The bride has made her home here with Br. and Mrs. Bailey for about two years and up to a few weeks ago she was a popular clerk in the Republic Cotton Mill Department-store. She has many friends here and is an attractive young woman. The bridegroom is a traveling salesman, with headquarters in Greenville, a position he has filled for several years.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Cheatham drove through to Greenville and Monday will go to Atlanta where Mr. Cheatham will attend a convention after which they will return and make their home in Greenville.
