DONALDS

 Donalds, Feb. 9 .- A delightful meeting of the Jolly Matrons Club was held at he home of Mrs. Ben Smith last Thursday afternoon. After the business session a social hour was spent, when a delicious salad course with doughnuts and coffee was served. Mrs. Smith was assisted by her mother, Mrs. J. M. Dallas. The favors were red valentine hearts tied with red ribbon. A very pleasant and pofitable afternoon was spent.

BILLY SUNDAY HEARS FROM FRANK DUPRE

Boy Convicted of Murder Thanks Evangelist For Letter To Governor Hardwick

Spartanburg, Feb. 8 .- Rev. "Billy Sunday yesterday received a letter from Frank B. Dupre, a 19-year-old white boy who is in a cell in the tower in Atlanta, under death sentence, earnestly thanking the great evangelist for his recent letter to Gov. Thomas W. Hardwick of Georgia asking him to commute DuPre's sentence to life imprison-

DuPre was caught in the act of burglarizing an Atlanta jewelry shot and killed Irby C. Walker, a sho tand killed Irby C. Walker, a Pinkerton detective, well known in Spartanburg. He was tried and convicted and the death sentence im-

Mr. Sunday last week wrote Gov. Hardwick, saying that in view of the youth of the lad; the fact that he was intoxicated at the time he broke into the store and subsequently killed Detective Walker, in his judgment the law would be vindicated if Governor Hardwick would commute the lad's sentence to life imprisonment. He sought no notoriety or newspaper publicity in doing this act for a helpless fellowman, but the news was given out from the governor's office to the Atlanta papers.

Mr. Sunday was deeply touched by the letter he received from young DuPre yesterday. In reading it over to a friend his voice shook when he came to that pascourse, this request will be granted. Mr. Sunday is the kind of bighearted red-blooded man whose heart goes out to the underdog; he knows that side of life. His early days were spent in orphan homes and his diploma comes from the university of hard knocks. One of the great secrets of his success as a preacher and soul-winner, aside from his personality, is the very human touch that runs through everything he says and does. The man or woman, no matter how vile or sinful, feels drawn toward him.

Following is the letter from Du-
