Mrs. Blakely of Ora came over to attend the concert at the Woman's College last Thursday evening. Her daughter, Miss Inez, was "Queen" of the evening.

One of the prettiest places in Due West is the campus of the Woman's College. Dr. and Mrs. Robinson have certainly added much to the beauty surrounding the elliptical drive way, with its green grass, fragrant flowers, pretty shrubbery and occasional pergola, flower and seed beds. To use the language of an alumna, "It makes one wonder what fairy has waved her wand over this beauty spot."

Erskine lost a very exciting game to Furman at Anderson on Monday of this week by a score of 5 to 2. Up to the seventh inning the score stood 2 to 2. Furman had a lucky seven and ran in three more scores in their half. Erskine was unable to tie up the score though having several good opportunities, but failed to hit in the pinch.

COTTON INFORMATION

An Abbeville County farmer sold four bales of cotton to C. E. Williamson on Thursday. The first pass Mr. Williamson offered four points less than the farmer wanted for his cotton, and other tactics became necessary. Mr. Abbeville County farmer then commented on what a fine looking man Mr. Williamson was and the bid was raised a point; and what style Mr. Williamson had and the bid was raised another point and so on until the desired four points was finally given for the cotton.
