SOUTHERN TO USE HEAVIER RAILS ON MAIN LINE

Work Will Begin at North End of the Line First, Replacing 85 Pound Rail.

Washington, June 25.—One hundred pound rail has been adopted by the Southern Railway system as the standard for its main lines in place of 85-pound rail, the heaviest used on the Southern up to this time, Vice President H. W. Miller, in charge of operation, announced today.

The first stretch to be laid with the heavier steel will be on the Washington-Atlanta double track line and will give the Southern 100-pound rail from Washington to Manassas, Va., a distance of 33 miles. The rail and fastenings are already on the ground and will be put in the tracks soon as the heavy traffic movement of the peach and watermelon season over. The 100-pound rail will be laid on extra heavy tie plates, giving added strength and safety.

The 85-pound rail released as the laying of 100-pound rail proceeds on the main lines will be used to replace lighter rail on branch lines where the volume of traffic is such as to justify heavier rail than that now use.

The term "100-pound" rail means that the rail weighs 100 pounds to the yard.

HELD IN ATLANTA JAIL FOR SHORTAGE

Former N. C. Postmaster Short $20,000—Woman in The Case

Atlanta, Ga., June 29.—Luther T. Blackwell, former postmaster at Pine Hall, N. C., was held in jail here without bond today pending action by postoffice inspectors by whom, local authorities stated, he has been sought for three weeks for an alleged shortage of $20,000 in his accounts. He was arrested at a local hotel in company with a young woman who told the police she was Mrs. Nina Thompson of Columbus, Ga. She is being held on a charge of suspicion.

An attempt by a bellboy at the hotel where Blackwell and the woman registered Sunday as "Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Walker, Spartanburg, S. C.," to rob their room led to the arrest. The boy, William Rutherford, was seen entering the room by R. C. Tuggle, house detective. The woman's screams soon followed and the detective rushed in. He found the negro with nine $100 bills in his hand and two $10 notes in his mouth.

About this time Blackwell entered and asked to appear as a witness against the negro, Tuggle said, offered him the money to drop the case. The detective insisted that the couple accompany him to the police station, where Lieutenant of Police Scott said he recognized the man as the former postmaster at Pine Hall.

Blackwell is said by the police to have admitted his identity and the shortage in his accounts. The woman denied any knowledge of the affair, claiming she met Blackwell here Monday.

The bell boy is in jail in default of $3,600 bond.

600,000 CONVERTS IS GOAL OF THE BAPTISTS

Nashville, Tenn., June 29.—A goal of 600,000 converts during the present conventional year was fixed as the evangelistic program of Southern Baptists at a meeting here today of the conservative committee of the seventy million campaign and of other leaders of the church from all sections of the south. State and church organizations also were called upon to set up again their original machinery for carrying the campaign to a successful conclusion.
