FRIDAY,	JULY	7,	1922.
---------	------	----	-------

THE PRESS AND BANNER, ABBEVILLE, S. C.

PAGE THREE

-

and and the state of the

And the second se

60

÷

1

٠

•

~	W. A. Friday, Secretary of the	DR. McGLOTHLIN PLAY AT ANTREVILLE.
	Greenwood Chamber of Commerce,
Local	attended the ball game yesterday.	Turns Down Presidency of William will be given Saturday night, July
LUcar	Mrs. J. D. Winn of Cold Springs was in town attending the Hospital	Jewell College in Liberty, Missouri. 8th at the Antreville school house.
A A A A A A	Birthday yester by.	Greenville, July 6,-Announce- Admission 15 and 25 cents. Special music will be given between acts.	Where You Know the Security Is Aews	Mrs. J. T. Cheatnam returned	ment was made this afternoon by	SOUND, SATISFACTORY and home yesterday from a visit to rela- tives in Ware Shoals.	Furman University, that he had
: Personals :		decided to decline the offer of the The following books have recently	PROFITABLE.
· werbonars ·	Mrs. F. B. McLane went to Greenwood vesterday to visit Mr.	lege at Liberty. Mo., and would Dodo Wonders-By E. F. Benson.
	and Mrs. J. C. McLane.	remain at the head of Furman Uni- versity. The offer from the Mis- Worley.	The Building & Loan Association
Tom Miller of Greenwood was in own Thursday.	Miss Blanche Smith of Anderson	souri institution was received by Kaleema-By Marion McClelland.	OF ABBEVILLE spent several days here this week	Dr. McGlothlin several weeks ago and has been under careful consid-
n Greenwood.	with her cousin, Miss Eva Reames.	eration since that time. ville have materially aided me in	NEW SERIES JULY 20TH
Arthur Green of Greenwood is in	Mrs. Mina Britt of McCormick is expected in town today to visit her	Formal announcement of his reaching a decision as to what decision to remain at Furman was course I ought to pursue. The pres-
own today on business.	sister, Mrs. W. E. Owen.	made by Dr. McGlothlin in a let- ter to John A. Russell, president of with the high standards and great	G. A. NEUFFER, J. S. MORSE,
Miss Zula Suber of Antreville	S. O. Harvey, Charley Wharton	the Greenville Chamber of Com- potential resources of the institu-	President. Sec. & Treas.
was a visitor in town today.	and Mr. Ferguson came over to see	merce, in which he says that "as- surances of interest and support on have decided to remain with Fur-
Miss Margaret Link spent the 4th		the pant of the citizens of Green- man."
t her home in the Bethia section.	B. T. Rainsford, Esq., of
J. D. Miller, Jr., of Rapley Shoals vas in town Thursday on business.	Greenwood was in the city today at the Clerk of Court's office on	The second se	ing or reade
	business.		RAN'S
B. A. Bell of Lowndesville was in the city on business yesterday.	Mrs. G. S. Lewis of Lowndesville attended the Club Market this
Mrs. Emma Murray of Green- wood was in town shopping Thursday.
R. R. Price and R. R. Price, Jr.,	Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence White and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Duckett	CIINANED (	TACLICALE
were in town from Penney's Creek	came over from Greenwood to at-	JUNINER	CASH SALE
Fhursday.	tend the ball game yesterday.		en en mer manne er man sakke er en er atteren i deret.
Mr. and Mrs. Manning Cochran of Due West were in town Thurs-
day.	among the out of town guests attend-
Miss Jimmie Crowley of Carroll-	ing the mid-summer sales here today.	$25^{\circ}_{0}$ DISCO	UNTSALE on, Ga., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J.	and the second se
D. Crowley.	ter, Evelyn, returned to their home in Augusta yesterday after a
Mrs. J. H. Sherard and children	visit to relatives here.		e 8th and continuing through the entire of Calhoun Falls are visiting Mrs. Dendy Miller.	Mr. and Mrs. Elbert White and	Contraction of the second seco	The second s
Miss Ada Wham of Columbia is	children, Earl and Elbert Jr., spent the 4th in Greenwood with Mr.		s won't do; it will prove to you that COCHvisiting her sister, Miss Clara	White's mother, Mrs. H. E. White.	RAN'S is the place to spend your money w	hen times are hard.
Wham.	Mrs. Jim White and children,	Don't got the idea that the form anticles	mentioned in this ad are all that we have to
Paul Ellis and Furman Etheridge	Maris, Jim and Bill White of
ame over to take in the ball game vesterday.	Greenwood are in the city visiting Mr. and Mrs. Elbert White.		come in and let us show you. 25 per cent.
Mr. Irwin Cleckley of Lowndes-			ve the goods that you need and you have the ille was among the visitors in town		money that we need, so come in and let us	make things mutual and help each other.
his morning.	holiday guests of Mrs. Mars' par- ents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wilkes		A A DEWLOD THE MANY DADCAINS WE
Garrison Montjoy of Clinton is	Laurers Advertiser.	THE ARTICLES MENTIONED ARE ONI	LY A FEW OF THE MANY BARGAINS WE
risiting his friend, Ashby Galloway in South Main street.	Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Rogers of	HAVE FOR YOU.	1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1 in bouth raunt brother	mr. and mrs. w. C. Rogers of
and the second sec	Penney's Creek were in town today		HOSE Fanay Silk Plain Silk Silk Lisle
A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10	We have a big lot of Children's Play	HOSE—Fancy Silk, Plain Silk, Silk Lisle and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and
A. B. Galloway and Bruce and	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are	HOSE—Fancy Silk, Plain Silk, Silk Lisle and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent . That
A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball same in Anderson Tuesday. J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min-	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material.	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent. That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c.
A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball same in Anderson Tuesday. J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool Grinks at the	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent. That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that
A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball game in Anderson Tuesday. J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his prother, E. F. Arnold.	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent . That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price.
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball game in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his prother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, rep- esenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer.	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up .	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent. That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball same in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his prother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, rep.</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent . That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball same in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his prother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, rep- esenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Char-</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool Grinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price.	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent . That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at 25 per cent off. Sport Skirts, Serge Skirts and Wash
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball game in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his prother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, rep- esenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was n town on business this morning.</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent . That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball game in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his brother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, rep- esenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Char- ey Wharton were among the Green- wood visitors here yesterday</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin.	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent . That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball game in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his brother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, rep- esenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Char- ey Wharton were among the Green- vood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off .	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent . That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball game in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his brother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, rep- esenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was n town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Char- ey Wharton were among the Green- wood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off. Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin, all going at	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent . That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball game in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his brother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, rep- esenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Char- ey Wharton were among the Green- wood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due Vest were in the city Thursday.</li> <li>Misses Margaret and Julia Pen-</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Owings visited Mr. C. A. Nash and family last week.—Fountain Inn Tribune.	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off. Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin all going at	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent . That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball game in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his brother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, rep- esenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Char- ey Wharton were among the Green- vood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due Vest were in the city Thursday.</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Owings visited Mr. C. A. Nash and family last week.—Fountain Inn Tribune. Mrs. F. B. Gamble and son, Rob-	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off. Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin, all going at 25 per cent off.	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent . That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at 25 per cent off . Sport Skirts, Serge Skirts and Wash Skirts 25 per cent off . One lot of Middy Suits in cotton, Wash Satin and Serge at HALF price. Some of the newest things in Middy Blouses at 25 per cent discount .
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball game in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his prother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, rep- esenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Char- ey Wharton were among the Green- wood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due Vest were in the city Thursday.</li> <li>Misses Margaret and Julia Pen- nal of Greenville are visiting their randmother, Mrs. Agnes Pennal.</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Owings visited Mr. C. A. Nash and family last week.—Fountain Inn Tribune. Mrs. F. B. Gamble and son, Rob- ert Gamble of New Zion and Mrs.	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off. Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin, all going at 25 per cent off.	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent . That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at 25 per cent off . Sport Skirts, Serge Skirts and Wash Skirts 25 per cent off . One lot of Middy Suits in cotton, Wash Satin and Serge at HALF price. Some of the newest things in Middy Blouses at 25 per cent discount .
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball game in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his brother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, rep- esenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Char- ey Wharton were among the Green- vood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due Vest were in the city Thursday.</li> <li>Misses Margaret and Julia Pen- al of Greenville are visiting their randmother, Mrs. Agnes Pennal.</li> <li>Hal Moore has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., to spend sometime</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Owings visited Mr. C. A. Nash and family last week.—Fountain Inn Tribune. Mrs. F. B. Gamble and son, Rob- ert Gamble of New Zion and Mrs. R. G. Cheatham of Greenwood are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Gib-	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off. Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin, all going at 25 per cent off.	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent . That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball game in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his rother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, rep- esenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was n town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Char- ey Wharton were among the Green- wood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due Vest were in the city Thursday.</li> <li>Misses Margaret and Julia Pen- ial of Greenville are visiting their randmother, Mrs. Agnes Pennal.</li> <li>Hal Moore has gone to Hot</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool Grinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Owings visited Mr. C. A. Nash and family last week.—Fountain Inn Tribune. Mrs. F. B. Gamble and son, Rob- ert Gamble of New Zion and Mrs. R. G. Cheatham of Greenwood are	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off. Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin, all going at 25 per cent off. Every Hat in the store going	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent . That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at 25 per cent off. Sport Skirts, Serge Skirts and Wash Skirts 25 per cent off. One lot of Middy Suits in cotton, Wash Satin and Serge at HALF price. Some of the newest things in Middy Blouses at 25 per cent discount.
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball game in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his brother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, rep- esenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Char- ey Wharton were among the Green- vood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due Vest were in the city Thursday.</li> <li>Misses Margaret and Julia Pen- al of Greenville are visiting their randmother, Mrs. Agnes Pennal.</li> <li>Hal Moore has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., to spend sometime with his uncle, Mr. McGraw.</li> <li>Fitzhugh Lee, Jim' Lewis Pinson</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Owings visited Mr. C. A. Nash and family last week.—Fountain Inn Tribune. Mrs. F. B. Gamble and son, Rob- ert Gamble of New Zion and Mrs. R. G. Cheatham of Greenwood are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Gib- bons. Mr. Horace King of Abbeville,	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off . Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin, all going at 25 per cent off . Every Hat in the store going Come, buy $1.00 worth of good clean mere	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent . That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball game in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his brother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, rep- esenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Char- ey Wharton were among the Green- wood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due Vest were in the city Thursday.</li> <li>Misses Margaret and Julia Pen- ial of Greenville are visiting their rrandmother, Mrs. Agnes Pennal.</li> <li>Hal Moore has gone to Hot brings, Ark., to spend sometime with his uncle, Mr. McGraw.</li> <li>Fitzhugh Lee, Jim' Lewis Pinson and William Jay were among the breenwood rooters at the ball game</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Owings visited Mr. C. A. Nash and family last week.—Fountain Inn Tribune. Mrs. F. B. Gamble and son, Rob- ert Gamble of New Zion and Mrs. R. G. Cheatham of Greenwood are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Gib- bons. Mr. Horace King of Abbeville, accompanied by Misses Selma Watt, Addie Bowen and Ione Stevenson	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off . Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin, all going at 25 per cent off . Every Hat in the store going Come, buy $1.00 worth of good clean mere Cents back. Do this ten times and you have	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent . That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball game in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his brother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, rep- esenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Char- ey Wharton were among the Green- vood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due Vest were in the city Thursday.</li> <li>Misses Margaret and Julia Pen- al of Greenville are visiting their randmother, Mrs. Agnes Pennal.</li> <li>Hal Moore has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., to spend sometime with his uncle, Mr. McGraw.</li> <li>Fitzhugh Lee, Jim' Lewis Pinson nd William Jay were among the</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Owings visited Mr. C. A. Nash and family last week.—Fountain Inn Tribune. Mrs. F. B. Gamble and son, Rob- ert Gamble of New Zion and Mrs. R. G. Cheatham of Greenwood are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Gib- bons. Mr. Horace King of Abbeville, accompanied by Misses Selma Watt, Addie Bowen and Ione Stevenson spent Tuesday here in the home of	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off . Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin, all going at 25 per cent off . Every Hat in the store going Come, buy $1.00 worth of good clean mere Cents back. Do this ten times and you have	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent. That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball game in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his brother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, rep- esenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Char- ey Wharton were among the Green- wood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due Vest were in the city Thursday.</li> <li>Misses Margaret and Julia Pen- tal of Greenville are visiting their randmother, Mrs. Agnes Pennal.</li> <li>Hal Moore has gone to Hot brings, Ark., to spend sometime with his uncle, Mr. McGraw.</li> <li>Fitzhugh Lee, Jim' Lewis Pinson and William Jay were among the Greenvood rooters at the ball game esterday.</li> <li>J. Wesley Ramey, Esq., of Atlanta,</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Owings visited Mr. C. A. Nash and family last week.—Fountain Inn Tribune. Mrs. F. B. Gamble and son, Rob- ert Gamble of New Zion and Mrs. R. G. Cheatham of Greenwood are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Gib- bons. Mr. Horace King of Abbeville, accompanied by Misses Selma Watt, Addie Bowen and Ione Stevenson spent Tuesday here in the home of Mr. and Mrs Julius Mann.—McCor-	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off . Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin, all going at 25 per cent off . Every Hat in the store going Come, buy $1.00 worth of good clean mere Cents back. Do this ten times and you have	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent . That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball game in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his brother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, rep- esenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Char- ey Wharton were among the Green- wood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due Vest were in the city Thursday.</li> <li>Misses Margaret and Julia Pen- al of Greenville are visiting their randmother, Mrs. Agnes Pennal.</li> <li>Hal Moore has gone to Hot brings, Ark., to spend sometime with his uncle, Mr. McGraw.</li> <li>Fitzhugh Lee, Jim' Lewis Pinson and William Jay were among the Greenvood rooters at the ball game esterday.</li> <li>J. Wesley Ramey, Esq., of Atlanta, visiting his father, Mr. L. A. Ram-</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Owings visited Mr. C. A. Nash and family last week.—Fountain Inn Tribune. Mrs. F. B. Gamble and son, Rob- ert Gamble of New Zion and Mrs. R. G. Cheatham of Greenwood are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Gib- bons. Mr. Horace King of Abbeville, accompanied by Misses Selma Watt, Addie Bowen and Ione Stevenson spent Tuesday here in the home of Mr. and Mrs Julius Mann.—McCor-	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off . Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin, all going at 25 per cent off . Every Hat in the store going Come, buy $1.00 worth of good clean mere Cents back . Do this ten times and you have Everything Sold at This	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent. That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball game in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his brother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, rep- esenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Char- ey Wharton were among the Green- wood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due Vest were in the city Thursday.</li> <li>Misses Margaret and Julia Pen- al of Greenville are visiting their randmother, Mrs. Agnes Pennal.</li> <li>Hal Moore has gone to Hot brings, Ark., to spend sometime with his uncle, Mr. McGraw.</li> <li>Fitzhugh Lee, Jim' Lewis Pinson and William Jay were among the Greenvood rooters at the ball game esterday.</li> <li>J. Wesley Ramey, Esq., of Atlanta, visiting his father, Mr. L. A. Ram-</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Owings visited Mr. C. A. Nash and family last week.—Fountain Inn Tribune. Mrs. F. B. Gamble and son, Rob- ert Gamble of New Zion and Mrs. R. G. Cheatham of Greenwood are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Gib- bons. Mr. Horace King of Abbeville, accompanied by Misses Selma Watt, Addie Bowen and Ione Stevenson spent Tuesday here in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McMillan, Miss Lula Power and Mrs. Otto	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off . Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin, all going at 25 per cent off . Every Hat in the store going Come, buy $1.00 worth of good clean mere Cents back. Do this ten times and you have Everything Sold at This	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent. That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at25 per cent off. Sport Skirts, Serge Skirts and Wash Skirts25 per cent off. One lot of Middy Suits in cotton, Wash Satin and Serge at HALF price. Some of the newest things in Middy Blouses at 25 per cent discount. in this Sale at HALF PRICE chandise, hand us a Dollar bill and get 25 e saved $2.50 which is quite a little saving. Sale Must be for CASH
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball same in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his brother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, rep- esenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Char- ey Wharton were among the Green- vood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due Vest were in the city Thursday.</li> <li>Misses Margaret and Julia Pen- al of Greenville are visiting their randmother, Mrs. Agnes Pennal.</li> <li>Hal Moore has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., to spend sometime with his uncle, Mr. McGraw.</li> <li>Fitzhugh Lee, Jim' Lewis Pinson and William Jay were among the Greenville are visiting their sterday.</li> <li>J. Wesley Ramey, Esq., of Atlanta, svisiting his father, Mr. L. A. Ram- y, who has been quite sick for some- ime.</li> <li>Mrs. Norris Wakefield and Mary</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Owings visited Mr. C. A. Nash and family last week.—Fountain Inn Tribune. Mrs. F. B. Gamble and son, Rob- ert Gamble of New Zion and Mrs. R. G. Cheatham of Greenwood are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Gib- bons. Mr. Horace King of Abbeville, accompanied by Misses Selma Watt, Addie Bowen and Ione Stevenson spent Tuesday here in the home of Mr. and Mrs Julius Mann.—McCor- mick Messenger. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McMillan, Miss Lula Power and Mrs. Totso Bristow went to Camp Transyl- vania today to see Raiford McMil-	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off . Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin, all going at 25 per cent off . Every Hat in the store going Come, buy $1.00 worth of good clean mere Cents back. Do this ten times and you have Everything Sold at This Remember the timeJULY	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent. That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball same in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his brother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, rep- esenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Char- ey Wharton were among the Green- vood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due Vest were in the city Thursday.</li> <li>Misses Margaret and Julia Pen- al of Greenville are visiting their randmother, Mrs. Agnes Pennal.</li> <li>Hal Moore has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., to spend sometime with his uncle, Mr. McGraw.</li> <li>Fitzhugh Lee, Jim' Lewis Pinson and William Jay were among the Greenville are visiting their sterday.</li> <li>J. Wesley Ramey, Esq., of Atlanta, svisiting his father, Mr. L. A. Ram- y, who has been quite sick for some- ime.</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Owings visited Mr. C. A. Nash and family last week.—Fountain Inn Tribune. Mrs. F. B. Gamble and son, Rob- ert Gamble of New Zion and Mrs. R. G. Cheatham of Greenwood are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Gib- bons. Mr. Horace King of Abbeville, accompanied by Misses Selma Watt, Addie Bowen and Ione Stevenson spent Tuesday here in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McMillan, Miss Lula Power and Mrs. Otto Bristow went to Camp Transyl-	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off . Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin, all going at 25 per cent off . Every Hat in the store going Come, buy $1.00 worth of good clean mere Cents back . Do this ten times and you have Everything Sold at This Remember the timeJULY	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent. That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at25 per cent off. Sport Skirts, Serge Skirts and Wash Skirts25 per cent off. One lot of Middy Suits in cotton, Wash Satin and Serge at HALF price. Some of the newest things in Middy Blouses at 25 per cent discount. in this Sale at HALF PRICE chandise, hand us a Dollar bill and get 25 e saved $2.50 which is quite a little saving. Sale Must be for CASH
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball same in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his brother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, rep- esenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Char- ey Wharton were among the Green- vood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due Vest were in the city Thursday.</li> <li>Misses Margaret and Julia Pen- al of Greenville are visiting their randmother, Mrs. Agnes Pennal.</li> <li>Hal Moore has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., to spend sometime with his uncle, Mr. McGraw.</li> <li>Fitzhugh Lee, Jim' Lewis Pinson and William Jay were among the Greenville are visiting their sterday.</li> <li>J. Wesley Ramey, Esq., of Atlanta, svisiting his father, Mr. L. A. Ram- y, who has been quite sick for some- ime.</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Owings visited Mr. C. A. Nash and family last week.—Fountain Inn Tribune. Mrs. F. B. Gamble and son, Rob- ert Gamble of New Zion and Mrs. R. G. Cheatham of Greenwood are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Gib- bons. Mr. Horace King of Abbeville, accompanied by Misses Selma Watt, Addie Bowen and Ione Stevenson spent Tuesday here in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McMillan, Miss Lula Power and Mrs. Otto Bristow went to Camp Transyl- vania today to see Raiford McMil- lan who has had three teeth knock- ed out on a rock. They expect to return tomorrow after being sure	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off . Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin, all going at 25 per cent off . Every Hat in the store going Come, buy $1.00 worth of good clean mere Cents back . Do this ten times and you have Everything Sold at This Remember the timeJULY Remember the Place	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent. That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at25 per cent off. Sport Skirts, Serge Skirts and Wash Skirts25 per cent off. One lot of Middy Suits in cotton, Wash Satin and Serge at HALF price. Some of the newest things in Middy Blouses at 25 per cent discount. in this Sale at HALF PRICE chandise, hand us a Dollar bill and get 25 e saved $2.50 which is quite a little saving. Sale Must be for CASH
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball game in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his rother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, representing the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Charrey Wharton were among the Greenwood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due Vest were in the city Thursday.</li> <li>Misses Margaret and Julia Pennal of Greenville are visiting their randmother, Mrs. Agnes Pennal.</li> <li>Hal Moore has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., to spend sometime vith his uncle, Mr. McGraw.</li> <li>Fitzhugh Lee, Jim' Lewis Pinson and William Jay were among the Greenvood rooters at the ball game esterday.</li> <li>J. Wesley Ramey, Esq., of Atlanta, visiting his father, Mr. L. A. Ramy, who has been quite sick for sometime.</li> <li>Mrs. Norris Wakefield and Mary and Sam Wakefield of Antreville are in town attending the Club larket today.</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool Grinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Owings visited Mr. C. A. Nash and family last week.—Fountain Inn Tribune. Mrs. F. B. Gamble and son, Rob- ert Gamble of New Zion and Mrs. R. G. Cheatham of Greenwood are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Gib- bons. Mr. Horace King of Abbeville, accompanied by Misses Selma Watt, Addie Bowen and Ione Stevenson spent Tuesday here in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McMillan, Miss Lula Power and Mrs. Otto Bristow went to Camp Transyl- vania today to see Raiford McMil- lan who has had three teeth knock- ed out on a rock. They expect to return tomorrow after being sure that Raiford is all right.	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off. Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin, all going at 25 per cent off. Every Hat in the store going Come, buy $1.00 worth of good clean mere Cents back. Do this ten times and you have Everything Sold at This Remember the timeJULY Remember the Place.	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent. That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at25 per cent off. Sport Skirts, Serge Skirts and Wash Skirts25 per cent off. One lot of Middy Suits in cotton, Wash Satin and Serge at HALF price. Some of the newest things in Middy Blouses at 25 per cent discount. in this Sale at HALF PRICE chandise, hand us a Dollar bill and get 25 e saved $2.50 which is quite a little saving. Sale Must be for CASH
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball came in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his prother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, representing the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Charrey Wharton were among the Greenwood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due Vest were in the city Thursday.</li> <li>Misses Margaret and Julia Penal of Greenville are visiting their randmother, Mrs. Agnes Pennal.</li> <li>Hal Moore has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., to spend sometime with his uncle, Mr. McGraw.</li> <li>Fitzhugh Lee, Jim' Lewis Pinson and William Jay were among the Greenwood rooters at the ball game esterday.</li> <li>J. Wesley Ramey, Esq., of Atlanta, wisiting his father, Mr. L. A. Ramy, who has been quite sick for sometime.</li> <li>Mrs. Norris Wakefield and Mary and Sam Wakefield of Antreville are in town attending the Club farket today.</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool Grinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Owings visited Mr. C. A. Nash and family last week.—Fountain Inn Tribune. Mrs. F. B. Gamble and son, Rob- ert Gamble of New Zion and Mrs. R. G. Cheatham of Greenwood are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Gib- bons. Mr. Horace King of Abbeville, accompanied by Misses Selma Watt, Addie Bowen and Ione Stevenson spent Tuesday here in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McMillan, Miss Lula Power and Mrs. Otto Bristow went to Camp Transyl- vania today to see Raiford McMil- lan who has had three teeth knock- ed out on a rock. They expect to return tomorrow after being sure that Raiford is all right.	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off. Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin, all going at 25 per cent off . Every Hat in the store going Come, buy $1.00 worth of good clean mere Cents back. Do this ten times and you have Everything Sold at This Remember the timeJULY Remember the Place.	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent. That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball game in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his rother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, representing the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Charrey Wharton were among the Greenwood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due Vest were in the city Thursday.</li> <li>Misses Margaret and Julia Pennal of Greenville are visiting their randmother, Mrs. Agnes Pennal.</li> <li>Hal Moore has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., to spend sometime vith his uncle, Mr. McGraw.</li> <li>Fitzhugh Lee, Jim' Lewis Pinson and William Jay were among the Greenvood rooters at the ball game esterday.</li> <li>J. Wesley Ramey, Esq., of Atlanta, visiting his father, Mr. L. A. Ramy, who has been quite sick for sometime.</li> <li>Mrs. Norris Wakefield and Mary and Sam Wakefield of Antreville are in town attending the Club larket today.</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool Grinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Owings visited Mr. C. A. Nash and family last week.—Fountain Inn Tribune. Mrs. F. B. Gamble and son, Rob- ert Gamble of New Zion and Mrs. R. G. Cheatham of Greenwood are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Gib- bons. Mr. Horace King of Abbeville, accompanied by Misses Selma Watt, Addie Bowen and Ione Stevenson spent Tuesday here in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McMillan, Miss Lula Power and Mrs. Otto Bristow went to Camp Transyl- vania today to see Raiford McMil- lan who has had three teeth knock- ed out on a rock. They expect to return tomorrow after being sure that Raiford is all right. "QUEEN OF SHEBA"	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off. Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin, all going at 25 per cent off . Every Hat in the store going Come, buy $1.00 worth of good clean mere Cents back. Do this ten times and you have Everything Sold at This Remember the timeJULY Remember the Place.	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent. That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball ame in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his rother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, repesenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Charey Wharton were among the Greenwood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due Vest were in the city Thursday.</li> <li>Misses Margaret and Julia Penal of Greenville are visiting their randmother, Mrs. Agnes Pennal.</li> <li>Hal Moore has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., to spend sometime with his uncle, Mr. McGraw.</li> <li>Fitzhugh Lee, Jim' Lewis Pinson and William Jay were among the Greenwood rooters at the ball game esterday.</li> <li>J. Wesley Ramey, Esq., of Atlanta, visiting his father, Mr. L. A. Ramy, who has been quite sick for some.</li> <li>Mrs. Norris Wakefield and Mary and Sam Wakefield of Antreville are in town attending the Club larket today.</li> <li>Misses Oney and Caro Morse rearned from Athens Thursday after pleasant time spent with their sister Mrs. Van Noy Wier.</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Owings visited Mr. C. A. Nash and family last week.—Fountain Inn Tribune. Mrs. F. B. Gamble and son, Rob- ert Gamble of New Zion and Mrs. R. G. Cheatham of Greenwood are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Gib- bons. Mr. Horace King of Abbeville, accompanied by Misses Selma Watt, Addie Bowen and Ione Stevenson spent Tuesday here in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McMillan, Miss Lula Power and Mrs. Otto Bristow went to Camp Transyl- vania today to see Raiford McMil- lan who has had three teeth knock- ed out on a rock. They expect to return tomorrow after being sure that Raiford is all right. "QUEEN OF SHEBA" OPERA HOUSE THURSDAY and FRIDAY	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off. Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin, all going at 25 per cent off . Every Hat in the store going Come, buy $1.00 worth of good clean mere Cents back. Do this ten times and you have Everything Sold at This Remember the timeJULY Remember the Place.	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent. That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball ame in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his prother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, repesenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Charey Wharton were among the Greenwood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due Vest were in the city Thursday.</li> <li>Misses Margaret and Julia Penal of Greenville are visiting their randmother, Mrs. Agnes Pennal.</li> <li>Hal Moore has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., to spend sometime with his uncle, Mr. McGraw.</li> <li>Fitzhugh Lee, Jim' Lewis Pinson and William Jay were among the Greenwood rooters at the ball game esterday.</li> <li>J. Wesley Ramey, Esq., of Atlanta, visiting his father, Mr. L. A. Ramy, who has been quite sick for sometime.</li> <li>Mrs. Norris Wakefield and Mary and Sam Wakefield of Antreville tree in town attending the Club larket today.</li> <li>Misses Oney and Caro Morse reprined from Athens Thursday after pleasant time spent with their sister Mrs. Van Noy Wier.</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Owings visited Mr. C. A. Nash and family last week.—Fountain Inn Tribune. Mrs. F. B. Gamble and son, Rob- ert Gamble of New Zion and Mrs. R. G. Cheatham of Greenwood are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Gib- bons. Mr. Horace King of Abbeville, accompanied by Misses Selma Watt, Addie Bowen and Ione Stevenson spent Tuesday here in the home of Mr. and Mrs Julius Mann.—McCor- mick Messenger. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McMillan, Miss Lula Power and Mrs. Otto Bristow went to Camp Transyl- vania today to see Raiford McMil- lan who has had three teeth knock- ed out on a rock. They expect to return tomorrow after being sure that Raiford is all right. "QUEEN OF SHEBA" OPERA HOUSE THURSDAY and FRIDAY JULY 13th and 14th	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off. Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin, all going at 25 per cent off . Every Hat in the store going Come, buy $1.00 worth of good clean mere Cents back. Do this ten times and you have Everything Sold at This Remember the timeJULY Remember the Place.	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent. That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at25 per cent off. Sport Skirts, Serge Skirts and Wash Skirts25 per cent off. One lot of Middy Suits in cotton, Wash Satin and Serge at HALF price. Some of the newest things in Middy Blouses at 25 per cent discount. in this Sale at HALF PRICE chandise, hand us a Dollar bill and get 25 e saved $2.50 which is quite a little saving. Sale Must be for CASH
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball ame in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his orother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, representing the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Charey Wharton were among the Greenwood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due Vest were in the city Thursday.</li> <li>Misses Margaret and Julia Pennal of Greenville are visiting their randmother, Mrs. Agnes Pennal.</li> <li>Hal Moore has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., to spend sometime with his uncle, Mr. McGraw.</li> <li>Fitzhugh Lee, Jim' Lewis Pinson and William Jay were among the Greenwood rooters at the ball game esterday.</li> <li>J. Wesley Ramey, Esq., of Atlanta, wisiting his father, Mr. L. A. Ramy, who has been quite sick for sometime.</li> <li>Mrs. Norris Wakefield and Mary and Sam Wakefield of Antreville the club form Athens Thursday after pleasant time spent with their sister Mrs. Van Noy Wier.</li> <li>Mrs. A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway went to Clinon this week. Mrs. Galloway was cleine and form and the spent with their sister Mrs. Way was have form and Bruce and B</li></ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Owings visited Mr. C. A. Nash and family last week.—Fountain Inn Tribune. Mrs. F. B. Gamble and son, Rob- ert Gamble of New Zion and Mrs. R. G. Cheatham of Greenwood are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Gib- bons. Mr. Horace King of Abbeville, accompanied by Misses Selma Watt, Addie Bowen and Ione Stevenson spent Tuesday here in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McMillan, Miss Lula Power and Mrs. Otto Bristow went to Camp Transyl- vania today to see Raiford McMil- lan who has had three teeth knock- ed out on a rock. They expect to return tomorrow after being sure that Raiford is all right. "QUEEN OF SHEBA" OPERA HOUSE THURSDAY and FRIDAY JULY 13th and 14th Matinee Each Day at 3:15; Night 8:20. One Show only.	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off. Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin, all going at 25 per cent off . Every Hat in the store going Come, buy $1.00 worth of good clean mere Cents back. Do this ten times and you have Everything Sold at This Remember the timeJULY Remember the Place.	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent. That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at
<ul> <li>A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Eugene Galloway attended the ball ame in Anderson Tuesday.</li> <li>J. A. Arnold of Greenville spent ast night in Abbeville with his prother, E. F. Arnold.</li> <li>A. S. McCord of Greenwood, repesenting the Kilgo Drug Co., was a town on business this morning.</li> <li>Messrs. R. L. Wharton and Charey Wharton were among the Greenwood visitors here yesterday</li> <li>Prof and Mrs. E. L. Reid and aughter, Miss Virginia Reid of Due Vest were in the city Thursday.</li> <li>Misses Margaret and Julia Penal of Greenville are visiting their randmother, Mrs. Agnes Pennal.</li> <li>Hal Moore has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., to spend sometime with his uncle, Mr. McGraw.</li> <li>Fitzhugh Lee, Jim' Lewis Pinson nd William Jay were among the Greenverday.</li> <li>J. Wesley Ramey, Esq., of Atlanta, svisiting his father, Mr. L. A. Ramy, who has been quite sick for some.</li> <li>Mrs. Norris Wakefield and Mary nd Sam Wakefield of Antreville are in town attending the Club larket today.</li> <li>Misses Oney and Caro Morse remed from Athens Thursday after pleasant time spent with their sister Mrs. Van Noy Wier.</li> <li>Mrs. A. B. Galloway and Bruce and Bruce and Bruce</li> </ul>	Penney's Creek were in town today attending the club market. They sold 75 pounds of tomatoes at 10 cents a pound. Claud Gambrell and Fred Min- shall were successful bidders on the right to sell cool drinks at the ball ground during the games this summer. Mrs. Susan E. Minshall passed through Abbeville today enroute to Lake Michigan where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wylie Irwin. Mrs. Bob McKenzie of Abbeville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Owings visited Mr. C. A. Nash and family last week.—Fountain Inn Tribune. Mrs. F. B. Gamble and son, Rob- ert Gamble of New Zion and Mrs. R. G. Cheatham of Greenwood are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Gib- bons. Mr. Horace King of Abbeville, accompanied by Misses Selma Watt, Addie Bowen and Ione Stevenson spent Tuesday here in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McMillan, Miss Lula Power and Mrs. Otto Bristow went to Camp Transyl- vania today to see Raiford McMil- lan who has had three teeth knock- ed out on a rock. They expect to return tomorrow after being sure that Raiford is all right. "QUEEN OF SHEBA" OPERA HOUSE THURSDAY and FRIDAY JULY 13th and 14th Matinee Each Day at 3:15; Night 8:20. One Show only.	We have a big lot of Children's Play Suits, Rompers and Dresses that are cheaper made up than you can buy the material. Gingham Dresses for ladies, misses and children from 50c up . A few Silk and Crepe Dresses to go at HALF Price. Every Silk, Georgette and Crepe Waist in the house at HALF price, others at 25 Per Cent off . Ladies Summer Underwear in Silk, Crepe de Chine and Muslin, all going at 25 per cent off . Every Hat in the store going Come, buy $1.00 worth of good clean mere Cents back. Do this ten times and you have Everything Sold at This Remember the timeJULY Remember the Place. MRRS. JAS. S.	and Cotton Hose for ladies, misses and children at a discount of 25 per cent. That means you get a $1 silk hose for 75c. A few Coats and Coat Suits left that we will sacrifice for HALF price. Imported Organdies, Voiles and Skirt material at25 per cent off. Sport Skirts, Serge Skirts and Wash Skirts25 per cent off. One lot of Middy Suits in cotton, Wash Satin and Serge at HALF price. Some of the newest things in Middy Blouses at 25 per cent discount. in this Sale at HALF PRICE chandise, hand us a Dollar bill and get 25 e saved $2.50 which is quite a little saving. Sale Must be for CASH 8th to AUGUST 1st, also