SOCIETY

U. D. C. POSTPONED

On account of the death of Mrs. Henry Hill, the meeting of the U. D. C. has been postponed.

IN HONOR OF MISS RICHEY

Mrs. Claud Vandiver entertained the Ace of Clubs at its regular meeting, at her home on North Main St. Wednesday afternoon. As a special attention to Miss Lillian Richey a bride to be a chair was arranged with a large and beautiful white ma line bow. A lovely bouquet of flowers was presented to her. A tempting salad menu with sherbert was served at the conclusion of the afternoon.

A WINTHROP TEA.

Mrs. W. H. White will entertain at an afternoon tea Saturday at her home on Greenville street, having as her guests the Winthrop Daughters of the town and county. Some time ago a chapter of Winthrop Daughters was organized in Abbeville in response to the request of the Winthrop Alumni, and such organizations have been perfected all over the State.

On Saturday afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock Winthrop Daughters over the state will be at tea and messages of good will will be received from the college. Mrs. White extends an invitation for all Daughters to meet with her and to enjoy the hour.

MRS. RAYCROFT ENTERTAINS

The social event of this week was the very delightful reception given Monday afternoon by Mrs. T. J. Raycroft at her home on Vienna street. This reception was a pretty compliment to her two daughters, Mrs. Henry Pressly of Tampa, Fla., and Mrs. Frank Poole of Brunswick, N. J., who are home for a visit.

The Raycroft home is well adapted for entertaining and Monday was prettily decorated in fall flowers. The many colored cosmos being used in the two reception rooms and around the punch bowls. The lights throughout the house were shaded with yellow.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Raycroft, the two honorees, Mrs. Fouche, Miss Alpha Bolt, Mrs. Lawson of Columbia, and Miss Irene Bradley.

Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. C. E. Williamson and Mrs. Joe Little. In the dining room the centerpiece on the serving table was of goldenrod and around this was grouped dainty comports of yellow and green mints. The lights were shaded and from the mantle a soft glow of light came from a myriad of candles. Mrs. Klugh and Miss Maggie Brooks presided at the table and cut the cream which was served by a bevy of pretty young high school girls, among them being Carolina Chalmers, Grace Milford, Debbie Owen, Jeanse White.

During the afternoon there was constant coming and going of handsomely gowned women enjoying the attractive scene and the pleasant conversation.

Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. C. H. McMurray, Mrs. E. C. Horton, Mrs. Wilkinson, Miss Kate Marshall, Miss Maggie Latimer, Mrs. C. A. Milford, Mrs. John Harris, Miss May Robertson, Miss Jessie Hill, Mrs. Jack Pressly, Mrs. Sam Shiver, Mrs. W. P. Greene and others.

At the door card receivers held by little Misses Helen Gambrell and Sara Ward Tidy, who were pretty and dainty in pink frocks.

The reception was charming in every respect and was enjoyed by all present.

ENTERTAIN Y. W. A.

Miss Eva Reames will entertain the Y. W. A. at her home, Thursday afternoon at six o'clock.

MEMORIAL BRIDGE PROPOSED AT COLUMBIA

Columbia, Oct. 10.—A memorial bridge over the Congaree one end to rest on Columbia's Gervais street the other end to lie in New Brookland, Lexington county town, suburb of Columbia, is now being proposed here. The Columbia Chamber of commerce has named a committee to look into the matter and devise a plan for financing the bridge is not regarded as safe for maximum loads, and a new bridge seems almost necessary. The proposal is to make the bridge a memorial to the men in Richland and Lexington counties who gave their lives in the World War.

CHARLIE FOSTER IS GONE; $50 REWARD OFFERED FOR HIM

Spartanburg, Oct. 10.—Governor Harvey has written a letter to County Supervisor Vernon in regard to the disappearance of Charlie Foster, a convict who was serving a term for manslaughter. Mr. Vernon has not given out the contents of the letter. Foster was serving as trusty at the court house when it was decided to send him to the chain gang to complete his term. He was permitted to go to his home to settle his affairs and has not been seen since.

A reward of $50 has been offered for his arrest.

It's no wonder that where scrub cows predominate farmers have tried dairying and found that it does not pay.
