A BIRTHDAY PARTY

The party given Friday afternoon by Mrs. D. H. Hill in compliment to Mrs. J. L. Hill, was a unique and most pleasant affair. The first feature of the entertainment was that it was a surprise to Mrs. Hill and when she arrived at the home of Mrs. D. H. Hill, instead of a shopping trip, she found a large party of friends and relatives gathered to wish her happiness on her birthday.

During the afternoon paper and pencils were given the guests and each tried to see who could make the greatest number of words from the letters in Mrs. Hill's name, which is Susan Talulah Eugenia Frances Riley Hill. Mrs. A. B. Morse was successful in this contest and was presented with two dainty handkerchiefs as first prize while Mrs. Ella Lattimer was given the second prize.

Little Susan Hill and Beauford McMurray helped with the entertaining, presenting the honoree with a basket of gifts and passing to the guests bags of candy as souvenirs of the occasion.

Refreshments of creamed chicken, sweet salads and coffee were served, rounding out an enjoyable afternoon. Friends everywhere wish Mrs. Hill many more happy birthdays.
