

Local News

Personals

Mr. John Pressly was down from Due West for saleday.

John Calvert has just returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Winnsboro.

Hoyt Sutherland of Monroe, N. C. spent Thanksgiving in the city with friends.

Mr. Hubert Allen was here from Greenwood Sunday seeing his many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cason, spent the day Sunday in Hodges with friends.

Miss Ruth Beeks came down from Anderson College and visited over Sunday with her home people.

Henry Carlisle is one of the big men around the United States Court in Anderson this week.

Mr. Frank Fleming and Miss Eunice Fleming were on our streets Saturday on a shopping trip.

Miss Sallie Varn, of Greenville, was the week-end visitor of Miss Alma Lupo at the Community House.

Mrs. Robert Green and Robert Jr. have returned after a visit to home folks in Lancaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben McCormick of Donalds, were visitors in town Sunday at the home of Mr. D. Wardlaw.

Miss Olivia Branyon and Miss Pearl Branyon from the Zarline neighborhood were shopping in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Stephens and Mrs. W. G. Stephens went over to Atlanta Friday and spent the day seeing the city.

Mr. Joe Saddon came down from Donalds Monday and spent the day trading.

Mr. Frank Carwile was among the prominent men of the county in town for saleday.

Mr. R. P. Blake was over from Greenwood Monday attending the sales made by the master.

Mr. and Mrs. Wister Harmon of McCormick were the guests Sunday at the home of Mrs. Mary Hill.

Mr. J. D. Dodson and his son Furman Dodson spent Monday in the city the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Arnold.

Mrs. Leila Evans Sanders is here from Greenville and will spend the winter with her aunt Miss Annie Gibert.

Mrs. J. A. King of Cold Springs and her daughter, Mrs. Smith of McCormick, were on our streets Monday.

Mr. Tom Dansby who lives on the Snake road came in to town for saleday and knocked around with his friends.

Mr. D. E. Newell was here Monday. He says he has not joined the robber band yet, as he still sells eggs for 40 cents a dozen.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cochran and family came down from Antreville Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. H. R. McAllister.

Austin Roche, a Clemson student came home Saturday and stayed until Sunday afternoon with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Roche.

Mr. and Mrs. Jie Everett, and the boys Joe and Frances were here from Spartanburg Sunday spending the day with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wilson.

Mr. Jack Tierny was here from Greenville Sunday. He brought Father McElroy down in his car and attended services at the Catholic church.

Miss Annie Sharp, who is teaching this year at Liberty, came home for Thanksgiving and visited in the city Saturday with her sister, Miss Mary Sharp.

Mr. Mark Tony, who has been in Abbeville for the past two months as agent for the Fullers Brush has been transferred to Athens, and left this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kerr went over over to Union Sunday and spent the day and night with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Estes. They made the trip over the dirt road.

Mrs. Marshall who is well remembered as Miss Mable Jones has returned to her home in Atlanta after a pleasant visit to Mrs. C. S. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Conner Nelson are here from Atlanta this week. Mrs. Nelson had her tonsils taken out at the hospital by Dr. Davis Sunday and is getting well at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Nickles.

SOCIETY

CHARLES WHITE CELEBRATES

Master Charles White celebrated his birthday Thanksgiving by having six of his friends to a fine dinner. The young man is eight years old and he and his little friends spent a happy day playing cow boy, eating "goodies" etc.

D. A. R. MEETING.

Andrew Hamilton chapter D. A. R. will meet at the home of Mrs. J. A. Hill Wednesday at 4 P. M. The treasurer asks that the members bring both state and national dues for 1923 as these must be forwarded on January 1st.

DR. AND MRS. JOHN EVANS

The Evans and Gibert families in the town and county had the pleasure this week of entertaining Dr. John Evans and his charming bride who were married Tuesday in Wilmington, N. C., and came to Abbeville on their wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Evans on South Main street gave a delightful tea party Friday night for the young couple having as their guests Rev. and Mrs. John A. McMurray, Rev. and Mrs. L. W. Brown, of Charlotte, Mrs. T. B. Penney of Charleston, Miss Pearl Nickles and Mrs. McCord of Hodges, Mrs. Leila Sanders and Miss Annie Reed Evans of Greenville, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Evans and Misses Maggie and Bettie Evans.

The tea was a lovely affair and the relatives enjoyed meeting the new member of the family.

On Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Bert Evans entertained at a lovely dining in compliment to the visitors. There were twenty guests and a course dinner was served at a beautifully appointed table.

During their stay the Doceor and his bride were entertained at the Evans and Gibert homes in the Lebanon sections.

Dr. Evans is making a fine place for himself in the professional world and friends at home rejoice in his happiness. Dr. and Mrs. Evans returned to Wilmington today.

ENTERTAINED IN ATLANTA.

A delightful event of Saturday evening was the reception given by Dr. and Mrs. Homer Davis at their home on Oxford road in Druid Hills, in honor of Miss Rosalee Brown and Miss Rachel McMasters, of Abbeville, S. C., two very attractive guests for the Sigma Chi house party at Emory.

The house was beautifully decorated with a profusion of autumn foliage and vari-colored chrysanthemums in artistic arrangement.

Miss Brown was gowned in a becoming model of black georgette.

Miss McMasters wore a becoming gown of purple velvet trimmed with gold lace.—Atlanta Journal.

Bring us your subscriptions for Magazines. We take them for any periodical at THE ECHO.

ENTERTAINED AT TEA.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCullom and Miss Hughlee McCullom of Suntr are in the county visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joe Alston. Saturday night they came to Abbeville and were nntertained pleasantly at tea at the home of Judge and Mrs. Jones F. Miller.

Mrs. Alston was a Miss McCullon and her parents are visiting her in her new home. Mrs. Gil Cade was a guest Saturday night.

CONVERSE BEAUTIES.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Peebles have as their guests Miss Sarah Boren, of Greensboro, Miss Dadalin Call of Wilkesboro, and Misses Helen and Marion Boren of Greensboro, who came Saturday and will remain until Tuesday. Saturday night Mrs. Peebles entertained at four tables of bridge in honor of her visitors. A number of games were enjoyed after which sandwiches and chocolate were served.

Miss Call and Misses Helen and Marion Boren are students at Converse College.

Miss Sarah Boren will spend until after the holidays with her sister.

ATTENDING CONVENTION.

Mrs. Fred Cason Mrs. Howard Moore and Mrs. J. C. Klugh are the delegates appointed by the Daugh of the Confederacy to attend the convention in Greenwood this week. A large crowd will go over Thursday.

IN STYLE.

Mrs. Alf Lyon and her two daughters, Elizabeth and Estelle, are victims this week of dengue fever. Mrs. Charley King and children are also sick of the same complaint.

Watch the label on your paper.

AGNES AYRES IN HER NEW PHOTOPLAY HERE TUESDAY

Paramount Star Seen to Fine Advantage in Film "The Ordeal" Rich toilettes, lots of them, of the latest style, are a feature of "The Ordeal," Agnes Ayres latest Paramount starring vehicle which opens at the Opera House Tuesday.

Miss Ayers interprets the part of a young widow who inherits a fortune which she will lose if she marries again. Widows with money are expected to be well dressed, hence Miss Ayres wardrobe in this picture is said to be a real delight to the feminine eye.

For instance, there's a pleasant blue evening gown with opalascet sequine and crystal beads finished with velvet to match, Specially striking are slippers and fan of blue pheasant feathers.

For motoring and street wear Miss Ayres has a moleskin suit and a gorgeous ermine frap with an ermine toque trimmed with white toque feathers.

Simple but striking in its line is ainner gown of taupe chiffon embellished in velvet flowers of the same tone. A striking walking dress is of

Able To Eat Turkey.
Hugh Bradley, one of the champions of the Abbeville football team, has been out of the game for the past two weeks on account of a broken collar bone. He could not go to Fort Mill but was strong enough to enjoy turkey for Thanksgiving at home.

Apples and Sausage.
Mr. F. E. Ellis, the prize appleman of the county, was in town Saturday with a lot of fine apples and country sausage for sale. The apples were of the Yates variety and were fine looking.

We have a full line of Democrat Christmas Tags. Let us show them to you. At THE ECHO.

navy blue faille brocaded in black satin.

"The Ordeal" written by W. Somerset Maugham, is said to be a most unusual picture, Beulah Marie Barr made the adaptation while Paul Powell directed. Included in the cast are Conrad Nagel, Clarence Burton, Edna Murphy, Edward Sutherland, Adele Farrington, Charles DuBrey, Edward Martindel and Shannon Day.

ELECTRICAL GIFTS

.....ARE USEFUL.....

ALL THE YEAR

ELECTRIC IRONS, PERCOLATORS, WAFFLE-IRONS, ELECTRIC HEATERS, TABLE LAMPS.

ABBEVILLE WATER & ELEC. PLANT

Please report all trouble with house or street lights to our office. PHONE 190.

OPERA HOUSE TUESDAY

AGNES AYRES, CONRAD NAGEL and Others

—IN—

"THE ORDEAL"

Pleading for love.

To starve for bread or to starve for love—which? Ladies see Agnes Ayres fight your greatest battle in her best picture. Gorgeous Gowns and Beautiful Sets.

15c 30c.

For Holiday Shoppers

We have many useful and handsome articles in our line for the sensible Christmas gift. See our line of Furniture, Costumers, Pedestals, Smoking Stands, Doll Carriages, Mirrors, Cole Heaters, Etc.

OUR PRICES SUIT THE TIMES.

W. A. Calvert & Sons

MILLINERY AT COST

We are going out of the Millinery business and are selling out our stock at and below cost. Now is your chance to get that Winter Hat at your own price.

COME TO SEE US

HADDON-WILSON COMPANY