SUNDAY SCHOOL, AND YOUTH'S DE PARTMENT .- We thank our friend W A. G., for his words of cheer, and especially for his very interesting contribution to this Department in this week's issue. 'Our good lady friend, of Marion, has our thanks for her copied article; it will appear in due time.

Notice

The young men of the village are respectfully invited to meet at the Court House on Friday evening next the 15th at 71 P. M. Sept. 8th 1871.

Sales' Day.

The Sheriff sold three tracts of good farming lands, near the Lake Swamp, at an average of 50 cents per acre. The interest of Joseph Abney in 547 acres, of excellent lands, for $10; the sale of the real estate of W. D. Gurganus was postponed until next sales

The day was unusually turbulent. Several fights and street rows-cause, _whiskey-remedy-incorporation.

A Good Tling.

We noticed on last Sales' day, that several colored citizens of our town had formed associations, and putting their little mites together, had opened three places of refreshment, where people from the country on business could drop in, at any hour, and get a wholesome lunch at a moderate price. These people provide well, and deserve encouragement; it is far better to a man's stomach to be filled up with wholesome food than strych-nine whiskey; the cravings of nature require one or the other. Free soup houses, and cheap restaurants in the great cities have saved many a drunkard from an auntimely grave.

Competition in this business runs high. Our young friend, John Dawsey, who spread out his creature comforts in the old Potter store, was particularly proud of his table, and next morning brought to us a scrip of paper in hieroglyphics that marked $8.35 reccipts for the day; we advised him to take good care of it, and by no means raste it foolishly.

WE REGRET The fact that on last es day several of our colored people behaved disorderly, and rowdy in the

We hope that these people will recollect, that being tree, they, themselves are the architects of their character, and if built on a foundation of sand, it must fall. At the same time we are sorry to say that there were some white people who behaved in a maner to invite the disturbance; we do not know that any of those parties are penitential, but this we do know, they ought to be in the Penitentiary.

We Can't Do It.

The article from D. D. G, an eminent Emgeon Dentist, of long and skilled practice, commending to the favorable consideration of our peo ple, a new practitioner, (as yet but little known amongst us) has been duly received. Such a recommendation, coming as it does, from a well-known skillful dentist, of long practice, is of incalculable benefit to a new practitioner.

We very much dislike to decline the publication of any article coming from such a source, but to refer the parties to cur terms of first page, over first column, and they will find an index pointing thus: 137

Some people may think that printers can live on ink, and go to Heaven in balloons of their own paper, not paid for, but we can't do it.

A Card.

Horry News Man: Sir, in the last impudence to insert the advertisement of Gilbert Gibson, that his wife Sylvia, board! His house and BOARD! Gra- a multitude of the heavenly host decious goodness! did the man ever own clared, "Peace on earth." a board?

Perhaps you have got your pay, if not, perhaps you may.

Sir, I wish you and Gilbert Gibson, Esquire and beef crier, to understand what Gilbert says. I intend to vote for Victoria and Victory.

Your oppressed SYLVIA. The above card may not be genuine, but we give place to it on account of its points in bearing.

What right has a man to advertise his wife as a chattel? yet, by him not provided for.

He may bask in the sunshine, or refresh himself in the shady breezes, but if the poor wife has not in her circumscribed position made ample provisions for the regaling of his precious carcass, after his tiresome day's labor of keeping the country from going to smashes, and smashing the character of his neighbors, she is met with a tirade of abuse; and if she complains at the oppression, forthwith notice is giv. en that she is his pent up chattel, or perhaps it would be more proper to say cattle, a swill milk creature, expected to supply all his wants, as well as provide for the family.

But what will our wife say to the endearing appellation, "year Sylvia"well we can't help it; all we have to say is, our Sylvia has pluck; she manfully stands up for woman's rights, and is determined to vote for Mrs. Woodhull; go it Sylvia.

Wisdom-The Bible.

Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom; and with all thy get ting get understanding. Prov. iv; 7.

In this text the wise man certainly includes a knowledge of, and acquaintance with, all things, which pertain to our welfare both in time and eternity. Another Scripture informs us that, "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom," Hence the great business of life is, to grow - wise; and since, "the fear of the Lord," is the starting point, the A B C of that education which will honor God, and bless mankind; it follows that we in our youthful days should "learn of him." Acquaint yourselves with him." (Job xxii; 31) in the dealings of the Holy Spirit with man; and since the Spirit operates through the Word; "Search the Scriptures," "which are able to make thee wise unto salvation." David said Ps. exix; 140. Thy word is very pure; therefore thy servant leveth are eternal. Loc it. If David, in his day, so loved, and lowship with h admired the word, should not we, the things easy, bitter witnesses of gospel light; love and admire the same, as the Book of books; an all-sufficient guide, in both faith and practice,

Our Saviour is styled, in the New Testament, the Prince of Peace; in Heaven peace abounds; because love, perfect love divine abounds; and the ssue of your paper, I see you have the history of the past shows, that the same rule applies on earth, for at the advent of the Son of God, who is love,

Then if we as a nation, State, community, school, or even as a family, would be blessed with peace-let love abound, leve is the principle which actthat I am no chattel in market. Early Piety.

"Those that seek me early shall find me. Prov. viii, 17.

Some of the sweetest promises in the Bible are made to the young.

Now let me tell the little boys and girls who read this, why you ought to seck the Saviour early.

1. If you do not embrace these precious promises now, you will soon be too old to claim them. 2. Some of you were given to God by your parents when you were baptized; and they have been praying for

3. One of the best reasons why you ought to seek the Saviour early is, be- consent, and hereby give notice warning every cause Jesus loves little children to manner whatever or paying to her wages for come to Him. We know this is true, any services rendered because, when He was upon earth He took them into His arms and blessed them. When mothers brough their children to Christ, His Disciples thought it would trouble Him; but Jesus rebuked them and said: "Suffer little children to come unto me and The new disinfectant. Bromo Chloralam, forbid them not for such is the kingdom of heaven." Jesus loves to "earry the little lambs in His bosom."

4. You ought to seek Him now because it is the best time you will ever have. It you put it off you may never find him. O how many young people have died and entered eternity who never found the Saviour! Some of enterprise, will take place in October, under them had a praying father and mother too. Some of them used to go to Hen. Roger A. Pryor, of New k. Gen. Bradley Johnson, of Virgidia, and Col. B. H. the Sabbath School and learn much about the Saviour of sinners-about only five dollars, each. The highest prize is about the Saviour of sinners—about $250,000; next, $100,000; the third $25,000; the way to live and die happy—that they might enter the "Christmas home "I here is not a drop of humbug in an ocean in glory." As soon as you are old SOUTH CAROLINA, IN PROBATE COURT enough to know that you are a sinner -as soon as you are old enough to be come to Jesus.

You may have pious parents-you may have pleasure-you may have wealth and friends, but, as long as you are afraid of death-as long as your sins are not forgiven -- you caunot be happy. Then,

"Come to Jesus little one; Come to Jesus now; Humbly at His gracious throne, In submission bow.

At His feet confess your sin; Seek forgiveness there; For His blood can make you clean, He will hear your prayer.

Seek His face without dalay; Give Him now your heart; Tarry not, but while you may, Choose the better part."

"Those that seek me early shall find me." Think about the reasons I have given why you ought to seek the Saviour while you are young. When I write to you again I will try and tell how you may seek Christ.
