character is above reproach. By reference to his Editorial address, it will be seen that he is orthodox in politics; at least that he is in harmony with the great majority of the people of the District, in their present political principles. I must now crave your further indulgence, while I :ake a brief notice of the present proprietor of the paper. He is a young man of fair character, and belongs to that useful and respectable portion of society, denominated the working class. In other words he is in moderate pecuniary circumstances, and is measurably dependent for the support of himself, and family, upon his personal exertions. He is by profession a printer, and the appearance of his sheet affords the best proof of the neatness, and correctness, with which he executes his work .-I need not ask the question, whether an indus trious and deserving young man, merits the confidence and support of a generous public.-The spontaneous reply of every generous mind will be in the affirmative. To this class of his readers, I know it will only be necessary to inform them, that their subscriptions to the Advertiser will come in aid of the exertions of an industrious young man, towards the support of his family, to ensure their cheerful and continued patronage. By this class, it is hoped, that en effort will be made to increase his subscrip. tion list to the most gratifying dimensions.-But putting aside the consideration of these generous motives and the honorary obligations of public spirit, I think it can be easily demon. strated that upon the principles of interest, each individual at the head of a family, should sub. scribe for some public gazette. It cannot be denied that mankind generally read a news. paper with more interest than books; in fact, thousands, particularly among the young and old, are in the daily habit of reading newspapers, who have an utter distaste for every other employment, and but for a newspaper, would neglect all reading. It results from that appetite of the human mind, that seeks for novelty .-Their ideas of the thing itself, are associated with the name. A habit is formed of looking to a public gazette, for news, for something strange, for something novel, hence the anxiety manifested for the return of the periodical time for issuing a paper, and for the arrival of the mail, and the avidity with which a paper is read, There is a peculiar excitement imparted to the mind in this expectation of a paper, and in looking through its columns, and hence arises the relish for this mental food, which is felt for no other. A news-paper is a sort of compendious history of every day's occurrences through out the civilized world. It is a focus, in which is collected in a concentrated form, an abstract of the transactions of society, from the humblest citizen, to the crowned sovereign, from the limited traffic of a poor haberdasher, to the important operations of nations and kingdoms. There is little of the social, civil, political, or material world, of which a news-paper does not furnish some useful information. And is not this mass of information, so diversified and interesting not worth the price of subscription to the paper?-Should we not feel under obligations to encour-ege the man, who daily labors for our gratificacion, and instruction? Every well conducted paper will abound with moral and didactic articles, which are calculated to improve the heart and mind. We are deeply concerned, and labor hard to prepare food and clothing for the persons of our children, while we neglect their mental and moral cultivation, upon which de, pend the condition, character, happiness, and ultimate destiny of every human being. A newspaper may perchance impart to some member of one family, a taste for reading; their young minds may be inspired with the love of knowledge, by perusing the columns of this most agreeable vehicle of information, and from this humble beginning, attain to honor and distinct tion It may at least furnish useful ideas to ou moral sentiment, which in the progress of life may prove of more value, than the price of one hundred subscriptions. But why extend an argument to prove a proposition so self evident?-To be less grave, I would say, that a news-paper is worth the price of subscription for ordinary domestic uses, such as patterns for our daughters, wadding for the guns of our boys and wrapping paper for the seeds of our wives. Then let us all unite in taking the Advertiser, and by these means, stimulate the exertions and animate the hopes of our friend the publisher, in whose happy face, his subcribers may at all times read his grateful acknowledgements. A SUBSCRIBER.

CINCINNATI AND CHARLESTON RAIL ROAD.-We learn from the Louisville Ad vertiser of the 18th, as follows,

"We have a letter from Frankfort of the 16th-which states that the Rail Road Bank Bill had again been defeated in the House by a vote of 49 to 49-the rules requiring a majority to pass a bill.

"Two of the opponents of the bill were absent and not expected to return, and i was thought two more would leave in a few days. This shows that the bill can only become a law in opposition to a majority. It is under discussion in the Senate, and the calculation is, that it will pass by the casting vote of the Lieut. Governor. W look with solicitude to the action of Gov. Clark. A veto from him will save the credit of Kentucky, and her system of Internal Improvement."

From the New Orleans Picayune, Jan. 20. FROM TEXAS .- By the steam packet Cuba, Capt. Carson, which arrived yesterday morning, after our paper was put to press, we received our regular files of Houston papers, up to the 8th inst. The papers are mostly filled with local intelligence, uninteresting to our general readers. The Telegraph of 30th January states that a company of about two hundred citizens, and about one hundred Lipans and Tonkewa Indians are assembled at Bastrop, and intend making an expedition into the Cammauche country. The spies of the Lipans have recently discovered the place where the women and children of he hostile Cammanches are stationed -The warriors are now absent on an excursion either to our frontier settlements, or in pursuit of the Buffalo. It is believed, therefore that their women and children may be septured without difficulty.

By the National Intelligencer of the 8th inst we learn that Gen. Rusk has arrived at Houston, and having accepted the office o Chief Justice of the republic, will immediately enter upon the duties of his

From all accounts the country is quiet; business of all kinds improving; and every prospect of success is before the Republic.

A large sale of Morus Multicaulis took place at New York on the 9th ultimo, ou which the Evening Star remarks;-"The trees were remarkably fine, and had just arrived from Mobile. They appeared to be of two years growth, although was stated they were but one year old. The prices ranged from $4 each tree for the largest size, down to $1 75 for the smallest trees, which was the least price that any was sold for. Public opinion seems to set decidedly in favor of trees of American growth, as they will yield about thrice as many young plants the ensuing season as the imported ones; besides which those that have arrived from abroad, are mostly in a ruined and decayed condition, and, in fact, the last and only large importation is a mass of decay and rubbish not worth the freight."

The Hon. Edward Kent has been nominated by a Whig State Convention, as the candidate for Governor of Maine.

Value of the pound sterling -Messrs. Isaac Carow, D. Lord, jr. and J. P. Hall. being appointed referees on a case wherein it became necessary to determine the legal value of the pound sterling, have decided that the said legal value, not regarding the fluctuations of exchange, is four dollars. eighty-five cents and eight mills. The decision is founded upon the act of June, 18-34, entitled "an act regulating the value of certain gold coins within the United States,' by which it is declared that the gold coins of Great Britain, not less than 22 carats fine, shall pass current as money in the United States, by weight, at the rate of 94 cents and 8 mills to the penny weight .pound sterling, according to the decision of these referees, is 5 pennyweights. 3 grains and a fraction, which is designated as 5 mi. but what the abbreviation stands for, we do not know. In the report of the Secretary of the Treasury, dated May 5. 183S, the weight of the sovereign is stated to be 113 grains and 18 twelve-hunderdand-fourth parts of a grain, of pure gold; and its value according to the mint valuation of the United States, four dollars, eigh ty-seven cents, and seven-hundred and wentieth parts of a cent .- N. Commercial.

From the Augusta Constitutionalist, March 1. AUGUSTA AND HAMBURG MARKET COTTON .- There is still a good feeling and sellers, and the transactions during the past week have been heavy, amount ing in all to about 4000 bales, of which about 2000 were sold from warehouses, the other 2000 bales were sold in the street and off wagons by planters. We quote as the extremes 14 a 16 cents, not that there has been any falling off in prices, but there is little or no prime and choice in market, and they are the only descriptions that will bring over 16 cents. REMARKS .- During the past month Cotton has maintained nearly a stendy price in this market, (say from 14 to 19 cents,) and the business transacted has been beavy. At the present time our market is bare of the fine descriptions, and transactions are confined principally to the middling qualities.

Description .- Her Cline is a beautiful blood bay, 15 hands 3 inches high, of stately form, presenting a commanding & beautiful front; in fact, his fore hand is remarkable fine. He is a sure foal getter. He has run and won many races in this State, Virginia. and Maryland. When he left the turf, he was regarded one of the best three-mile horses in the State, and two miles unequalled, and although he has run many hard races, he never broke down, an his limbs are yet as fine as when a colt. At three years old after winning the great stake at Baltimore, (see Turf Register.) his owner, Wm R. Johnson, of Virginia, was offered and re-

His colts are generally very promising, par taking of the old Sir Archy stock, his sire; are extremel docile and gentle, nearly all making good family horees, (where the dam is of goo temper.) a very important consideration. His price too, is much lower than any other horse ever stood in this country, when his color, form, size, performances and fine Pedigree are taken into consideration.

Pedigree .- Her-Cline was got by Old Sir Archy, his dam, Georgiana, was got by Col Alston's Gallatin, son of imported Bedford; his r. dam by Calypso, by imported Knowslev; g. g- dam by Eclipse. (son of imported Obscurity. g. g. g. dam by Skipwith's Figure; g. g. g. g. by imported mare.

Any person putting by the insurance, and trading or transferring the mare, within eleven months from the time of putting the mare, will be held liable for the inurance money, which will be considered due as soon as such trade or transfer is made. Any person making up a company of six mares, and becoming responsible for the same, shall be entitled to a deduction of $1 on each mare.

> The Horse YOUNG PRESIDENT is a handsome chestnut sorrel, full 154 hands high, elegant form and figure, rising 8 years old. He will stand at the same time and places with the Jack and will be let to mares at the same rates. and be managed by the same groom. Any person putting to either the Jack, or Horse, by the season, and failing to get a colt, shall have another chance, as long as I keep either, for the same money. The season money will be due on the 1st day of December next. All possible care will be taken to prevent accidents, but no responsibility for any.

> PEDIGREE .- Young President was got by Old President, of Kentucy, and came out of a Janus mare. Old President by Hamiltonian. and he by the imported Diomede. The blood of the sire and dam are both so well known by the community at large that I deem it unnecessary to say any thing more about the b ood on either side.
