

Poetic Necessity.

THE DEATH OF JEFFERSON.

BY T. H. SHIVERS, M. D.

I have done for my country, and all mankind, all that I could do, and now I resign my soul, without fear, to my God; and my daughter to my country.

(Jefferson's Dying Words.)

The eloquent tongue is mute,
The eagle eye is dim;
He hears not thy salute—
What is this world to him?
For though an earthquake rent
The mighty earth in twain,
And shook the firmament—
He would not wake again!

All that was earthly, lies
Low in his grave beneath!
His heavenly part defies
The mightiness of Death!
Then let the thunders roll,
The mighty cannons roar—
They cannot reach his soul
Upon that happy shore!

All that he wished below
From mortal man, was given—
What earth could not bestow
Is granted him in heaven.
For fed by FREEDOM'S hand,
He grew, from infancy,
The mightiest of the land—
His cradle LIBERTY.

The sunshine on the plains,
The cattle on the hills;
The heart that now complains,
The bosom that now thrills,
The joyous things of earth,
The moon, the noon, the even—
All testified his worth,
As it is known in heaven.

He prayed but to survive
To see that blessed day,
And God said, Let him live!
And Death then passed away.
And strengthened, soothed, sustained,
By that MYSTERIOUS POWER,
He never more complained,
But mended from hour.

His faith had power to cause
That which was not to be,
And baffled Nature's laws,
And flattered Destiny.
His soul was in the faith
Of living anchored fast;
And when he bowed to Death,
The time he wished was past.

He saw the FIELDS OF BLISS
Spread out before his eyes,
A brighter world than this—
The HEAVENLY PARADISE,
And, Prophet-like, he stood
Upon the MOUNT OF TIME,
And saw beyond the flood
ETERNITY sublime!

He went not down as one
That knew mortality;
But set as sets the sun
Upon the far-off sea!
And though his lips are mute,
His eagle eye is dim—
He hears not thy salute—
We have the light of him.

The hand of God above
Led him along the way
Of never-dying love
TO EVERLASTING DAY.
Bright as the eternal sun,
The Lord of Heaven, shall be
The race that thou hast run,
Through all eternity.

Then shout for him no more—
Cease now your revelry—
For who can hail that shore
Which bounds eternity?
For in that far-off LAND,
Beyond the reach of thought,
He joins the PATRIOT BAND
Who first for FREEDOM fought.

From the Charleston Cour. Feb. 24.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTH DAY.

This hallowed day, dear to the patriot breast, was celebrated by the Washington Light Infantry, in this city, on Saturday last. The Company, under command of Capt. B. M. Lee, assembled at their parade ground, in Meeting street, in front of the fine buildings, at 9 o'clock, A. M., Volunteers were joined by the Northern Mills, and both commanded by Capt. S. S. fine Military appearance, presenting a procession to the inspiring strains of a martial band, to the Unitarian Church, in Archdale-street. The exercises in the Church commenced with the reading of the scriptures, and an appropriate prayer by the Rev. Dr. Gilman, Pastor of the Church, after which, a select choir sang the beautiful and well known Union Anthem, ("Hail our country's natal morn!") composed by that Reverend gentleman, for the occasion, and sung over since in this city, as a standard part of the ceremonies of that glorious anniversary. Samuel A. Hurlbut, Esq., a member of the Light Infantry, then rose and pronounced an elegant and tasteful oration on the influence of the character and example of the illustrious father of our free, happy, and united country. The orator was exceeding felicitous in bringing out, in bold and beautiful relief, several of the lofty moral characteristics of his inspiring and venerated theme—among them his strong self command, displayed even in early youth, in the mastery of a nature, naturally impetuous and fiery, his unwavering confidence in the success of his righteous cause amid the darkness of defeat and almost universal despair, and his intense Unionism, or love of his whole country, elevating him above the petty influences of party feeling, and proving Heaven's appointed agent. at once to achieve our independence on the field of battle, and to consolidate our Union by his wisdom in council. We trust that Mr. H. will allow the press to enlarge his audience to an extent commensurate with the merits of his address, and that he will do us the favor of selecting our columns for that purpose. The choir then sang the subjoined anthem, composed for the occasion, by "M. E. L." a gifted native poetess, whose harp of gentle and of swelling note, and varied compass, we observe is beginning to extend its fame far and wide beyond this community, which has long been charmed with its melodious tones and inspiring harmony.

WASHINGTON'S DAY.

Rise, fellow-freemen, and shout the proud lay,
'Tis Liberty's watchword! our Washington's day!
His was the heaven-fraught spirit, that nourish'd
The life-blood that flows in each patriot breast;
And the flag of our country would never have flourish'd
If "united we stand" had not been his behest;
Rise, fellow-freemen, and shout the proud lay,
'Tis Liberty's watchword! our Washington's day!

Thousands were heroes! but his was the hand
That rear'd freedom's ark in our ocean-bound land,
Safe, thro' the billows and tempests he guided
The perilous plank, till contention did cease;
Nor turn'd till the glorious structure had glided,
With "stars and stripes" to a haven of peace;
Rise, fellow-freemen, and shout the proud lay,
'Tis Liberty's watchword! our Washington's day!

Who would be silent? We blush for the fame
Of him, whose heart throbs not with joy at that name;
The light of his glory might ever be growing,
While the sun sheds a beam, or the sea rolls a wave,
For the far-brightest lamp, 'mid fame's temple,
That's glowing.

Is fed by the tribute we pay to his grave;
Rise, fellow-freemen, and shout the proud lay,
'Tis Liberty's watchword! our Washington's day!
Be it eternal! let freedom's shrill horn
Unceasingly tell when our Chieftain was born;
Shout! Let each mountain-hold echo the measure,
And bear it still on to the wide Western sea,
Till the old rock shall ring with the wild note
Of pleasure,

And our children shall learn it in ages to be;
Rise, fellow-freemen, and shout the proud lay,
'Tis Liberty's watchword! our Washington's day!
A benediction from the officiating minister closed the interesting ceremonial.
The Washington Light Infantry further celebrated the day, by dining together, in convivial and patriotic harmony.

The Dark side of Matrimony.—Lately, a slave in the West Indies, who had been married to another slave by one of the missionaries, at the end of three weeks brought his wife back to the clergyman, and desired him to take her again. The clergyman asked what was the matter with her? "Why, massa, she no good." The book says, she obey me. She no wash my clothes. She no do what I want her to do." The minister:—"But the book says, you were to take her for better or worse." "Yes, massa, but she all worse, and no better. She had too much worse, and no good at all."

The Difference.—When an individual suspends, or ceases to pay his debts, they draw interest till he resumes, and he escapes well if he does not pay cost also; but when a bank refuse to redeem its notes, the holder of them instead of receiving interest on the amount, must submit to a discount in getting them off his hands.

The Celebrated Thorough Bred Horse NULLIFIER.

WILL stand the ensuing Spring season, at the Plantation of Capt. William B. Mays, four miles below Edgefield C. House, on the Stage Road leading to Augusta. The Season will commence on the 10th of March, and expire on the 10th of June, and will be let to Mares at the following reduced prices, viz:— Fifteen Dollars the single visit, Twenty five Dollars the season, and Forty Dollars insurance, and Fifty Cents cash to the Groom, in every instance. In cases of companies of five mares, the season will be reduced to Twenty Dollars for each mare, and a proportionate deduction for the visit, or insurance, by one person becoming responsible for all. Mares will be kept at the subscriber's plantation, and special care taken of them, at Twenty-five cents per day.— Good Pasture Gratis. The visit and season money will become due at the expiration of the season, and the Insurance money as soon as the mare is ascertained to be with foal, or transferred, in which case the owner of the mare, when put, will be held accountable for the money. All possible care will be taken to prevent accidents or escapes, but no liability will be incurred.

Description.—NULLIFIER is a beautiful Bay, handsomely marked, with a delightful coat of hair, which shows his superior stock. His appearance is commanding—he is of the greatest power, substantiality, and strength. He will be ten years old this Spring—is full sixteen hands high having superior size, large bone, and is as well muscled as any other horse, in this, or any other country, and has as much durability.

Pedigree.—NULLIFIER was got by the celebrated running horse, Old American Eclipse of the celebrated American running horse, Old Durock, Roxana, his dam, by the imported horse, Sir Harry, the best son of Sir Peter Tenzle, grand dam by the imported horse, Saltrum; g. grand dam by Col. Symes' celebrated American horse, Old Wild Air; g. grand dam by Driver; g. g. grand dam by the imported horse Follow, g. g. g. grand dam by the imported horse, Vamper. A certified copy, from Virginia, signed by Benjamin Jones, Robert B. Corban, and Francis P. Corban. For his own, and his colts' performances on the turf, reference can be had to the American Turf Reg. & Sporting Magazine. He is a sure foot getter, and his colts are large, and have a splendid appearance, and are now running with great success, both on the Northern and Southern Courses.

Performance.—NULLIFIER, the Spring he was three years old, ran a sweep-stakes over the Jerusalem Course, mile heats, six subscribers, One Hundred Dollars entrance, when he was beaten, a prodigiously hard race, and not more than six or eight inches the second heat. The next week he ran, and won a Sweep-stakes, over the Norfolk Course, mile heats. Two Hundred Dollars entrance, beating several colts with great ease, particularly the second heat.—The week after this, he ran another Sweep-stakes, over the Nottoway Course, mile heats, which race he won three heats, under the hardest drive, every heat. He was not then trained till next Spring. He was four years old when he ran at Tree Hill, a most interesting and hard contested race, when he was beaten by Goliath, at four heats—Bayard and many others, were in this race, and Nullifier was only beat one foot the last heat. The next week he went to Baltimore and ran over the Central Course, four mile heats, for the Jockey Club purse, when he was beaten by the flying Dutchman—a very hard race; many other horses running, but only these two contending. The next fall he ran at Broad Rock, two mile heats, which race he won at four heats, beating seven others, after he had lost the first and second heats. In this race he got one of his sinews sprung; and has not been trained since.

The above is all correct and true.
W. R. JOHNSON, d 1

Citizens of Charleston, AND THE NEIGHBORING STATES.

YOU are respectfully informed that 70 MEETING STREET 70—is my Office for the exclusive sale of BRANDRETH'S VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILLS. Price twenty five cents per box, with directions in English, French, Spanish Portuguese and German.

The high and universal reputation of the Brandreth Pills, renders it unnecessary to comment largely on their particular virtues. As an anti-bilious and purgative medicine, they are unequalled by any. Their purifying effect on the blood is universally allowed—all that have ever used have approved and recommended them.

In many cases where the dreadful ravages of ulceration had laid bare ligament and bone, and where to all appearance, no human means could save life, have patients by the use of these Pills, been restored to good health; the devouring disease having been completely eradicated.

In consequence of the pleasantness of their operation, they are universally used in every section of this wide extended country where they are made known, and are fast superseding every other Preparation of professed similar import. Upwards of Fourteen Thousand cases have been certified as cured, solely from their use since the introduction of that into the U. States, thus establishing the fact beyond all doubt, that the Brandreth Pills cure the (apparently) most opposite diseases, by the one simple act of continually evacuating the bowels with them, until the disease gives way; therefore, whatever may be said of the THEORY, the UTILITY OF THE PRACTICE is now BEYOND ALL DOUBT.

As Brandreth's Pills cure Scurvy, Costiveness, and its consequences, sojourning men, and all travellers to foreign regions, should not be without, in order to resist to them an every occasion of illness. No medicine chest is required where they are.

N. B.—Time or climate affects them not, provided they are kept dry. Southern gentlemen will find this medicine one that will insure health to the people on their estates.

Be careful and never purchase Pills of a Druggist, PROFESSING to be Brandreth's Pills. Under no circumstances is any one of this class made an Agent. My own established Agents have INvariably an ENGRAVED Certificate, signed B. Brandreth, M. D. in my own hand writing. This is renewed yearly—and when over twelve months old, it no longer guarantees the genuineness of the medicine, it would be well, therefore, for purchasers to carefully examine the Certificate. The seal is not wax, but embossed on the paper with a steel seal. If the genuine medicine is obtained, there is no doubt of its giving perfect satisfaction, and if all who want it are careful to go by the above directions, there is little doubt but they will obtain it.

Remember 70 Meeting street, is the only place in Charleston where the genuine medicine can be obtained, and at J. Sales, Hamburg and C. A. DOWD, Edgefield G. H. the only authorised Agents for Edgefield.

Who wants Better Evidence,

I WOULD refer the reading public to the numerous voluntary letters published recently in this paper and in the Good Samaritan relative to the happy and beneficial effects of the administration of Moffat's Life Pills and Phenix Bitters.

Those who have perused the Letters above referred to will observe that in almost every case they attest the fact, that no inconvenience of any sort attends the taking of these medicines, in ordinary cases, but that the patient without feeling their operation, is universally left in a stronger and better state of health than was experienced previous to being afflicted with disease; and in cases of acute suffering, great relief is obtained in a few hours, and a cure is generally effected in two or three days.

In cases of FEVER of every description, and all bilious affections, it is
