From the New Yorker. ISAAC FITZGERALD SHEPARD. There is a new candidate for the favors of the Nine. Mr. Shepard, we are told, is a printer, who; till three years since, was engaged in putting in type the productions of others. He is now a student at Harvard College, Cambridge. The volume of poems from which we make the following selection, is just out of press in Boston:

THE DEAD. -And hath the memory Of other days no power upon thy soul?
B. B. THATCHER.

I love them still-the dead-Beneath the grave's dark covert sleeping, Where wild-wood flowers rich sweets are weeping Above their silent bed,—

So like the influence memory brings Of friendships, ties unbroken, When heart gave heart pure token, Of unfeigned happiness, The love-chained soul indwelling, While heaven-waked thoughts were swelling, With holy tenderness Then borne, as on celestial wings,

Afar from each dull scene of earth Each seemed to know a seraph's birth. So deep that pleasure's thrill! What though from men their names have per ished? Through changing days their worth I've cher

When sighs the twilight's gale, In dulcet tones its music waking, And blends with waves in ripples breaking Down the wide-spreading dale; Or when the thunder's voice is heard From heaven, in terror speaking, And storm-winds fierce are shricking From mount and forest far, While temple-spires are crashing, And ocean's surge is lashing
The tempest's furious car,
And each around with woe is stirred,— In varied tones, a voice I hear, Or soft or loud, or far or near. By sea, by fount, by rill, From out the spirit-land declaring
The lost, the lost, my thoughts are sharing,—
The dead! I love them still!

The dead! I love them still!

I crave no monument To tower above where I am resting, E'en though to noble deeds attesting The sculptor's art is lent: No charm where marble columns stand So pure as that which liveth
Where faithful memory giveth
Sad tears to friendship paid! I would my name might perish When those whose love I cherish, Shall pass the realms of shade, And meet me in the spirit-land! Save hope of heaven, 'tis all I ask, When finished is life's varied task, And past each good, each ill, That those who round my couch are bending Shall murmur, mid their prayers ascending, 'Till death, we'll love thee still!'

> From the Casket. FAR, FAR AWAY. BY C. J. PETERSON.

I love to look on the purple west, In the gorgeous robes of sunset drest; With its crimson pomp and bannered sheen, Like the lordly state of a dying queen; The distant woods with their crowns of gold, And the hoary hills, Time's fastness bold;— While zephyrs breathe in their low, soft

"We may only tell of the golden climes, And that better land in the realms of day, Far, far away !"

I love to stand on the mountain height In the magic noon of a summer night White vale and meadow are fairy land, And elves come out on the pebbly strand. And fays are merry in moonlight dell, And earth is witched with a seer-like spell: And low the voice of the sounding sea Seemeth to say in its minstrelsy—
"We only tell of the realms of day, Far, far away.'

I love to look on a young fair face, With the sunny smile of childhood there,— To hear the laugh of its careless glee, Like the gladsome shout of the summer se For it seems to say as they float along, With mazy dance, and the murmured song, "The land!—the land by the sunset sky, Where tears are not, and we'll no more die, Oh! the old grow young in that realm of day, Far, far away !

There-starry rivers are murm'ring low, To deathless flowers that by them blow; And zephyrs breathe in their lute like tones And hymn the stars on their golden thrones; The sun sings out; and there is no night; And myriad ones, in robes of white, Floating along upon azure wings
Their raptures tell on their trembling strings-"Oh! let us flay to that realm of day, Far, far away !" Philadelphia, 1840.

There is a certain prettiness in the JEU DES mors in this little song, about little things, which is amusing.

There was a little maid, and she wore a little And she had a little finger, with a little ring upon it; And what's a little odd, her little heart was the

In love, but not a little, with the little best of For the little youth had exercised his flatt'ring

And down before her little feet his little kneed had flung,
He pressed her little hand, and in her little face he gazed, And looked as though his little head had been a

Alas! her little lover did with little warning leave her. And she found him little better than a little gay deceiver: Then in a little moment, stifling all her little

Citizens of Charleston, AND THE NEIGHBORING STATES.

YOU are respectfully informed that 70 MEETING STREET 70—is my Office. for the exclusive sale of BRANDRETH'S VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILLS. Price twenty five cents per box, with directions in English, French, Spanish Portuguese and German.

The high and universal reputation of the Brandeth Pills, renders it unnecessary to comment largely on their particular virtues. As an anti-bilious and purgative medicine, they are unequalled by any. Their purifying effect on the blood is universally allowed—all that have ever used have approved and recommended

In many cases where the dreadful ravages of ulceration had laid bare ligament and bone, and where to all appearance, no human means could save life, have patients by the use of these Pills, been restored to good health; the devour ing disease having been completely eradicated.
In consequence of the pleasantness of their operation, they are universally used in every section of this wide extended country where they are made known, and are fast surperseding every other Preparation of professed similar import. Upwards of Fourteen Thousand cases have been certified as cured, solely from their use since the introduction of that into the U. States, thus establishing the fact beyond all doubt, that the Brandreth Pills cure the (appa rently) most opposite diseases, by the one simple act of continually evacuating the bow els with them, until the disease gives way; therefore, whatever may be said of the THEORY, the UTILITY of the PRACTICE is now BEYOND all

As Brandreth's Pills cure Scurvy, Costiveness, and its consequences, seasfaring men, and all travellers to foreign regions, should not be without, in order to resoit to them on every occasion of illness. No medicine chest is re quired where they are.

N. B,—Time or climate affects them not, provided they are kept dry. Southern gentlemen will find this medicine one that will insure health to the people on their estates.

Be careful and never purchase Pills of a Druggist, PROFESSING to be Brandreth's Pills.

Under no circumstances is any one of this class made an Agent. My own established class made an Agent. My own established Agents have invariably an engraved Certificate, signed B. Brandreth, M. D. in my own hand writing. This is renewed yearly—and when over twelve months old, it no longer guarantees the genuineness of the medicine, it would be well, therefore, for purchasers to carefully examine the Certificate. The seal is uot wax, but embossed on the paper with a steel seal. If the genuine medicine is obtained, there is no doubt of its giving perfect satisfaction, and if all who want it are careful to go by the above directions, there is little doubt but they will obtain it.

Remember 70 Meeting street, is the only place in Charleston where the genuine medi-cine can be obtain, and at J. Sales, Hamburg and C. A. DOWD, Edgefield G. H. the only authorised Agents for Edgefield.
