In addition to this, by giving the elections to the people, they are enabled to become acquainted with the names at least, if not the principles of their Rulers, for we venture to assert, what we believe to be a fact, that in one year from this time, not more than two-thirds of the male population of this State will be able to tell who is Governor, or who is President of the United States.

EXTRACTS FROM LETTERS.

COLUMBIA, Dec. 9, 1840.
"The Bill to amend the Constitution, with a view to prevent duelling, came up in the House yesterday, and there was a most interesting and protracted debate on the subject. Messrs. Henry and Memminger made most powerful and impressive speeches in favor of the bill. Davis and others spoke against it. The House adjourned in the midst of the debate, without taking the vote. I fear the Bill will be lost. The Governor's election is over, and notwithstanding the strong efforts of the Preston men to the contrary, Colonel RICHARDSON was elected by an overwhelming majority, the first ballot. The vote stood, for Richardson 104, Hammond 77, Heugan 8, Johnson 5. The two last were not candidates. Col. W. R. Clowney the Senator from Colui, was elected Lt. Governor."

"Divide and Conquer," has been the game of our Whig opponents, but they, we sincerely hope, notwithstanding our fears were at one time strongly excited, will signally fail in their attempts. Let them not hope that the slight distraction which they succeeded for the moment in creating in our ranks, will redound to their permanent benefit. Such will not be the case. Our ranks will soon be consolidated, and present an unbroken front, against their assaults upon the great principles for the maintenance of which, the State is so thoroughly united, and so deeply and solemnly pledged. We regret that two prominent gentlemen of our own party, should have been thrown into opposition to each other, as we clearly foresee that our political opponents would endeavor to turn it to their advantage. But now that the contest is over, we entreat all true friends to the common cause, in which we have so deep an interest, to forget whatever has been in any manner disagreeable in the canvass, and let us all get on our armor, and prepare to defend the great principles which are so seriously threatened by the recent triumph of the Federal party.

ARGYLE,

THIS celebrated Race Horse and Stallion will stand the ensuing Season, from 15th February to 15th June, at Mr. Wm. B. Mays', in Edgefield District, S. C., 3 miles from the Court-House, on the Augusta Road. He will be let to mares at $20 the single visit, $30 the Season, and $50 to insure; and one dollar to the groom in every instance. The money, or an approved note payable the 15th December next, must be sent with each mare, or she will not be served. Good pasturage will be provided, and mares fed on grain at a reasonable price, and servants boarded gratis.

Every care will be taken of mares and foals, but no liabilities will be incurred for escapes or accidents.
ARGYLE is a dark brown horse, without white, except a star, fifteen hands and three quarters high; possessed of uncommon bone and muscle, and a form combining with perfect symmetry, every essential of a Race Horse. He is now ten years old, having been foaled in Maryland in the Spring of 1830. He was sired by the famous Mons. Tonson, his dam Thistle, was by Ogle's Oscar, his grandam by Dr. Thornton's imported Horse Clifden; his g. g. dam by Mr. Hall's Spot; and his g. g. g. dam by Dr. Marshall's Hyder Ally, who was by Lindsay's Arabian.

The Performances of ARGYLE upon the Turf, have placed him in the very first rank of American Horses as a Racer, while those of his get entitle him to an equal standing as a Stallion. He started first at Orangeburg, S. C. in January 1834, and ran at Barnwell, Augusta, Macon, Columbia, and Charleston, two, three, and four miles heats, winning successively 8 races, five of them of four mile heats, beating Patsy Wallace, Rattlesnake, (3 times) Lucy Ashby, Rushlight, Bertrand junior, (twice) Vertumnus, &c. &c. He never lost a heat, and was rarely if ever put up to his speed, until his extraordinary defeat by John Bascombe in April, 1836, the circumstances of which are familiar to every one. Subsequently he was trained and run with great success in Virginia; and in May last on the Central Course at Baltimore, after running for the first heat of three miles, and losing it by a head in 5 minutes 4—seconds, he won the second heat in 5 minutes, 40 seconds, being the best second heat of three miles recorded in the history of the American Turf, and the most brilliant performance of a year surpassing all others in the richness of its annuals. During the same week, and on the same course, one of his daughters, Kate Seaton, won the great sweepstakes of $1000, beating a fine field with great ease; such a coincidence being hitherto unknown upon the Turf.

ARGYLE stood but one season and to a limited number of mares, not many of which were thorough bred, yet his colts have won nine out of the eleven races for which they have been started, beating at one, two, and three miles, the get of many of our best Stallions, besides several imported colts, some of them in first-rate time. Two of his get, Governor Butler and Kate Seaton, are now unrivalled upon the Turf by any thing of their age.
The owners of ARGYLE, in bringing him back to the State in which (tho' not foaled) he was first trained and gained his earliest laurels, present him with confidence to the Public, as being in every way, on account of his blood, sire and form, his performances on the turf, so remarkable for endurance, as well as speed, and the extraordinary success of his get, worthy of their entire approbation.
