

The Wonderful Cures
PERFORMED BY
DR. SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF PRUNUS VIRGINIANA, OR WILD CHERRY.

MORE PROOF of the efficacy of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Prunus Virginiana, or Wild Cherry.
Mrs. Brown, corner of Second street and the forks of Germantown road, effectually cured. Her symptoms were, general debility, attended with a constant cough, pain in the side, breast, and back, with other symptoms indicative of Pulmonary Disease, not essential to intimate. After using the second bottle of this invaluable medicine, her cough entirely disappeared, and her strength increasing fast—and by the time she used two bottles more, she found herself freed from all pain and other unpleasant symptoms which attended her disease. She is now enjoying perfect health, and willing to give any information respecting her cure: likewise recommends this Syrup, to all afflicted with Cough or a Disease of the Lungs.
For sale by Dr. Swayne at 54 North sixth St. Philadelphia, and by

PROSPECTUS
OF THE THIRD VOLUME OF
The Hamburg Journal.
Published Weekly, at Hamburg, S. C.

Terms—$3 per annum—interariably in advance.
TWO years have nearly elapsed since the JOURNAL first made its appearance before the public, and asked only a small share of patronage from its friends, until the time should arrive when confidence could be placed in its success. The Editor has now the pleasure of announcing that this desired period has arrived; and he now earnestly solicits a liberal support from the reading community, and the business portion of those, who may favor him with their support. The first number of the third volume will be issued on or before the first day of April next.
When the JOURNAL was about to be issued two years ago, promises were made by the publishers to the public, that they would exert themselves industriously and employ the best efforts of their humble abilities to make their paper entertaining, useful and instructive. These things have been fulfilled; our time and money spent to sustain our promises, and bring out a paper every way worthy of the growing prosperity of Hamburg. And, now that these promises have been accomplished, and the Journal passed the goal at which such enterprises, either falls or rises, may not a full share of support be expected by us from those who should give a helping hand?
Many believed that the Journal was established for certain private purposes, and we have contented ourselves to let them remain in this belief, knowing that TRUTH will work its way and frown down every thing that leans to error. But, now that we have surmounted every difficulty and spread our penny to the breeze, we fearlessly proclaim, that the good of Hamburg alone in every and any case, has been our earnest design. Her interest demands a public paper, and we have supplied her want. "Here shall the Press the People's rights maintain."
Unwary influence gloried by gain; Here Patriot Truth its glorious prerogative draw. Pledged to Religion, Liberty and Law."
Promises were likewise made by the publishers, that their columns should not be burthened with the partisan essays and speculations of the day. These promises have been adhered to, and although we have no great desire to launch out on the troubled sea of politics, we shall speak that which we may feel bound to do—condemn the wrong, and hold up light to the people, let our words offend what party it may. It is the duty of the press to watch over the liberties of our common country, and warn the people whenever danger is visible. We adhere to the Democracy of this country, yet if this party goes astray, we shall endeavor to bring it back by timely and virtuous reproof.
The duty of an editor is a distinct and lofty profession, exercising great influence over society. It is a power that has never been measured, and we shall endeavor to sustain and cherish the moral agencies which the functions of editorship holds among the world, and endeavor to persuade our co-temporaries to improve the character of the Press, to rescue it from infidelity to itself, and from the indifference and contempt of the public; assert its claims, vindicate its dignity and exhort it to its duty, by a straight forward virtuous course; These admissions we have learned from wise and experienced heads, and we will profit by them.
The columns of the Journal are devoted to Foreign and Domestic News, the Markets, Literature, Science, etc. Our readers will be furnished with correct information in relation to the state of the markets, a large and useful weekly sheet as well worthy of patronage as any other now before the public. He respectfully solicits from a liberal and enlightened community, that increase of patronage which he believes his work deserves.

ALUM SPRING PILLS.

THESE Pills are prepared by Dr. S. R. Campbell, from the water of the highly celebrated Mineral Springs, in Rockbridge County Va., called the Alum Springs. These waters in their effects upon the system are tonic, increasing the appetite, and promoting digestion; they are alternative, exciting the secretions of the glandular system generally, and particular of the liver and kidneys; they are cathartic, producing copious, dark, bilious evacuations; and they also effect a determination to the surface, increasing the perspiration. From the combination of all these effects upon the system, they are a great purifier of the blood, and equalizer of the circulation. The effect of the Pills, made from these waters, are in all respects, similar to the water itself, and each pill is equal to a common glass of water. For the cure of the above diseases, and all other chronic (or slow) diseases, perseverance
