

We will cling to the Pillars of the Temple of our Liberties, and if it must fall, we will Perish amidst its Ruins.

FOR PRESIDENT:

JOHN C. CALHOUN,

Subject to the decision of the Democratic Republican Convention, to assemble in May, 1844, as recommended by the States of Maryland, Michigan, Kentucky, Louisiana, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Alabama and Mississippi.

The Presidency.—At the time of our placing the name of the Hon. JOHN C. CALHOUN at the head of our columns as a candidate for the Presidency, we deemed it inadvisable to submit to the action of any Convention; since that time the appearance of things have changed; and it has been decided by a large number of the Democratic Republican States, as the best mode to ensure a unanimity in action, to have the claims of all the Republican candidates placed before a Convention, whose members come directly from the people, upon just and equitable grounds, giving to each State a voice equal to their Representation. We, of course, although reluctantly, must yield to what we believe to be the will of the Democratic Republicans of the Union, with a hope, that the Convention will, on assembling, try all the candidates upon their real merits—throwing aside all sectional prejudices, and selecting the man best calculated to heal all party feuds, as we have no fear of the result. Let what may be the action of the Convention, should they be a fair voice of the Democratic Republican party of the Union expressed, we will be ever ready to support the nominee of the Convention. We have, with these views, made an alteration at the head of our columns.

Gen. Schrieler, of Charleston, has been elected Major General of the Second Division South Carolina Militia.

Robert Adger, Esq., (says the Courier,) has been recognized as Vice Consul of the Mexican Republic for the port of Charleston, S. C., vice R. W. Cogdell, Esq., resigned.

Election.—On Monday the 10th inst., the following gentlemen were elected Mayor and Council of the City of Augusta, Geo.

Mayor—M. Dye. Council—J. G. McWhorter, Philip Crump, I. P. Garvin, H. Hora, J. Phinizy, Jr., C. A. Greiner, John Hill, F. M. Robertson, I. A. Hibler, A. Philip, T. W. Miller, W. A. Beall.

The New Orleans Municipal election has resulted in favor of the Whigs.

Charleston College.—At a quarterly meeting of the Board of Trustees of the College of Charleston, held at the College, on the 10th inst., Mr. William Porcher Miles, a graduate of the institution, was elected to fill the office of Tutor, vice Francis W. Capers, A. M. resigned.

Masonic.—Notice is given by the Macon Lodge, No. 6, to the Masonic Fraternity generally that Jonathan T. Council, a Master Mason, and member of that Lodge, has been expelled by that Lodge, from all the benefits and privileges of Masonry, for gross unmasonic conduct.

General John Armstrong died on the 1st inst., at his residence, Redhook, Dutchess Co. N. Y., aged 84 years. Gen. A. was Secretary of War, during a part of the late difficulties with Great Britain.

Commander Mackenzie.—The Court Martial by whom this gentleman was tried, upon charges and specifications preferred against him by the Secretary of the Navy, on account of the execution of the mutineers on board the U. S. brig Somers, has honorably acquitted him of every charge and specification.

The N. Y. Herald says, that Com. M. was arrested, on the 5th inst., at his residence, at Tarrytown, and held to bail in $2000, at the suit of one of the apprentices on board the Somers, who has laid his damages at $10,000.

Counterfeit Bills of the Central Bank of Georgia, are in circulation in Florida and the interior of Georgia, which are stated to be dated 7th June, 1840, payable to C. C. Bryan, A. M. Nisbet, Cashier, T. Fort, President. The paper is dark, and the counterfeit notes may be easily detected, though their execution is said to be pretty good.

Heavy Damages.—The N. Y. Journal of Commerce says, that "the Sheriff's Jury in the case of Ross vs. Delandorf, for seduction of plaintiff's daughter, have assessed the damages at $10,000, being the full amount laid in the declaration."

No less than four revolutionary soldiers, (says the Philadelphia Ledger,) died on the 12th ult. in Alleghany township, Westmoreland county, Pa., John Delep, aged 80; John Gallagher, aged 104; Robert Doods, aged 79; and John Johnson, aged 103.

Freshet in the Savannah.—We have seen a letter from one of the plantations above, (says the Savannah Republican of the 11th inst.) which states that a larger freshet is now coming down, than the winter has seen for a long time. Already the waters have broken through the dams of some of the upper rice fields. We apprehend that the damage will be serious to some of our planters.

For the Advertiser. AGRICULTURAL MEETING.

Pursuant to notice, a called meeting of the Edgefield Philosophical and Agricultural Society, was held at the Court House, on Saturday the 15th April, 1842.

Col. Pickens, after making a few prefatory remarks, upon the importance of an Agricultural Survey of the State, offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That this meeting look with great interest to the examinations of Mr. Ruffin the distinguished Agriculturist who has been appointed under a salary from the Legislature, to examine into the state of Agriculture, and to suggest means of improving it in our State.

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed, including the President, to invite Mr. Ruffin to visit this District, and to extend to him all the kindness and facilities in their power, connected with the objects of his investigation.

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to open a communication with the different sections of our District, in order to ascertain as far as they can the State of Agriculture, and the physical developments of our soils, and our resources for improvement, and all other matters that may tend to give Mr. Ruffin condensed information when he arrives amongst us, and also to extend and communicate that information amongst ourselves; and also, to invite our farmers generally, to aid us in obtaining all useful knowledge relating to our District, and that they be requested to attend a general meeting, which this Society will call whenever it is ascertained at what time Mr. Ruffin can meet us.

These resolutions were unanimously adopted. Under the 2d and 3rd resolutions the following committee was appointed, viz: Wm. B. Johnson, F. W. Pickens, J. Terry, N. L. Griffin, and R. T. Mims.

On motion, it was resolved, That the admission fee, instead of Five Dollars, be hereafter, One Dollar.

The Secretary was requested to publish the proceedings in the Edgefield Advertiser, and to state for the information of the Farmers of the District generally, that, although the title of our Society is the Philosophical and Agricultural Society of Edgefield, its objects at present are to foster, more directly, the advancement of Agricultural science, and improvement in our District; and to aid us in these views, we invite the co-operation of all who feel interested in Agricultural pursuits.

WM. B. JOHNSON, President. R. T. MIMS, Secretary.

For the Advertiser. AGRICULTURAL MEETING.

CAMBRIDGE, APRIL 7, 1842. The Cambridge Agricultural Society, held an extra meeting this day, the President took the seat, and requested the Secretary to call the roll, and read the proceedings of last meeting, were being a quorum present, the President stated to the Society the object of calling a meeting at this time to be in regard to a letter from the President of the State Agricultural Society, addressed to the different Agricultural Societies, calling on them, or requesting their aid as far as practicable to Mr. Ruffin, State Agricultural Surveyor; after having the letters of the President of the State Agricultural Society and Mr. Ruffin read for the information of the Society, the President asked what course the Society would pursue in the matter.

When Dr. J. B. Dendy, offered the following resolution which was adopted: Resolved, That a committee be appointed to request Mr. Ruffin to meet this Society at our Anniversary meeting in May next, and that it shall be the duty of this committee, together with the Society generally, to co-operate with Mr. Ruffin in the duties of his survey.

The President appointed Dr. Dendy, Col Whitfield Brooks, Capt. W. H. Griffin, Maj. Wm. Eddins, and Dr. Jno. P. Barrot, said committee. And on motion, the President was added to the committee.

Dr. R. C. Griffin offered the following resolution, which was adopted: Resolved, That each member of this Society be requested to bring specimens of Earth's, Rock, or other Minerals, found on their plantation, with a card attached to each lot of specimens to our Anniversary.

The Society then adjourned to meet on the first Friday in May next. Z. W. CARWILE, Rec. Sec. C. A. S. P. S. The Anniversary Meeting of the Cambridge Agricultural Society, will be held on Friday the 5th of May next. Members are requested to be punctual in their attendance.

Z. W. CARWILE, Rec. Sec. C. A. S. To the Editors of the Charleston Courier: Gentlemen—You may be disposed to insert in your paper this last paragraph of an address delivered to an Agricultural Association in St. Andrew's, the other day, which was general in its application, though the preceding part being local may not be interesting.

I had proposed to say much on the subject of marl, but as it has been classed among the humbugs of the day, I shall leave it to Governor Hammond and Mr. Ruffin, who having had so much practical knowledge, are more competent to its investigation. It may be proper, however, to make a few observations to prevent any one by misunderstanding the nature of it, from forming expectations of its results which are incompatible with its power to realize. Marl is calcareous earth, is a component part of soils, and constitutes about one eighth of them when in their best state; the remainder is sand and clay, with some other but trifling additions. Now it is by a proper moisture of these parts that a good basis is formed for our agricultural proceedings. Too much sand admits the water to pass through it too freely. Too much clay being impermeable to water, retains it too long; a proper proportion of marl renders the one less friable, and the other less tenacious, and constitute the best medium for the reception of any manure we may put upon it. In its pure state it affords no food for plants. Its merit consists in its neutralizing all acidity in the soil, retarding violent decomposition in putrescent matter, attracting moisture, and above all exciting the alimentary substances to yield their nutrition to the contiguous plants. So that possessing no food itself it facilitates the action of all that constitutes nourishment to vegetables. It will be therefore in vain to expect advantages from its use when there is no putrescent matter for it to act upon; or even where there is, that they will be directly perceptible, if the marl be not well incorporated with the other ingredients. But where or when that is done the advantages will remain as long as it has material to act on allowing none to evaporate, but yielding it gradually to vegetable bodies. I conclude with one observation more, that should Governor Hammond do no other act during his gubernatorial term to hand it down with applause, his selection of Mr. Ruffin as agricultural surveyor of the State will be fully sufficient for that purpose."

Fire in the Woods.—On Sunday last, a very destructive fire broke out in the immediate vicinity of this City, which did considerable damage to the plantations near at hand. We understand that the fencing on the farms of some three or four persons were partly consumed. The fire raged with great fury in the woods; and as there was a large quantity of leaves and combustible matter on the ground, the young growth is more or less damaged, so much so, that it will be some years before another growth of trees will be fit for fire-wood.

A large number of persons were on the ground endeavoring to stop the progress of the flames, but were unable to make much headway, and they were forced, as a last resort, to keep it from injuring the dwellings at Summerville, which were safely accomplished. The fire ceased without much farther damage than as before stated, owing to numerous roads running through the burnt district, and other obstructions lying in the way.—Hamburg Journal.

Fire.—An alarm of fire was given about 2 o'clock P. M. on Sunday last. The woods all around Kirkwood were discovered to be on fire, and the wind, which was blowing a small hurricane was driving the flames with a fearful rapidity, in the direction of the houses, the summer residences of our citizens. At first, it was supposed almost impossible to check the progress of the devouring element, so dense was the smoke occasioned by the burning pines and undergrowth; and had it not been for the promptness of the citizens, an extensive destruction of property must have ensued. For two or three hours, the people contended with the angry element, and by incessant and laborious exertions saved several fine houses from the flames, which seemed at times almost to envelope them. One house only, was destroyed, a dwelling-house belonging to Dr. E. H. Anderson; this it was impossible to save, as the flames had made considerable progress before it was discovered to be on fire. It was remarkable that, although this house was surrounded by others, only a few yards distant, and the wind blowing so fiercely all the time, the fire was kept confined to the burning building. Towards evening, the fire in the vicinity of the houses was so far subdued, that no further damage was apprehended.—Camden Journal, 12th inst.

Correction.—Capt. Post, of the schooner Augusta, called on us yesterday to correct a statement which we were made the instrument, very innocently on our part, of publishing a few days since, in relation to the robbery in the island of Cuba, Capt. Post was made to say that the murderers numbered from 150 to 200, and the occurrence took place on the Havana Rail Road, the cars were thrown off the track, &c. &c. Nearly all of which Capt. Post disavows having stated. A robbery somewhere on the island of Cuba was made—the cars on a railroad were stopped, and the passengers were robbed—and that is about all that was known when the Augusta left Havana.—Mobile Herald, 8th inst.

For the Advertiser. FOR COLD WATER DRINKERS.

A BODY OF FANST GRAY. Well, well, sir, so you've joined at last! I hope you'll drink no more. I've watched you with an aching heart, for eight years now or more; You know I hate to sit alone, not knowing where to go. You'll break my heart, I feel you will, if you keep drinking so. Now, pray my love, put by that frown and do not look so sad, I took the "pledge" just now down town, I know 'twill make you glad; I only stopped at G's gate young J's eye to catch— But when that neat could not resist, I had to lift the latch. It took you then, two hours to leer, two hours to lift the latch? I wish you'd stay at home with me, and approve of that— I heard you singing tother night, you see I know it all. I saw you jig with all your might at Granny C's ball! I did not dance, or if I did, allowing it was true. When a body hears a lively tune, what can a poor man do? My life, my soul, my darling one, I love but you alone— I've sworn off from the grog shop now, of it I've tired grown. Put down your stick, don't take your hat, now prithee dear do stay. You never come at home at all, but you long to run away; There was a time, there was a time, you'd never wish to go, What have I done, what have I done, my dear to change you so? Pooh! pooh! my love, I am not changed— but look it almost eight. My friends are so particular, they never like to wait. Good bye! good bye! you'll come home soon? Oh yes, don't look so strange. He's turned the street, I knew he would, he's gone to the Exchange.

Temperance.—During several evenings the present week, Mr. Carey, of Baltimore delivered addresses in the Methodist Church at this place, and the building was literally crammed. The audience seemed to be highly pleased with the lectures, and we have no doubt much good has been effected.—Greenville Mountaineer.

Commercial. HAMBURG, April 4. Cotton.—We noticed in our report of Wednesday, that our Cotton market exhibited indications of an advance in prices. Since then, an activity has been evinced by buyers, and prices rose full 4 on good and fair qualities, owing in a measure however, to the small quantity coming in. Today, purchasers are not so willing to give full prices of the last three days. We hope, notwithstanding the restraining disposition of dealers, our market should not recede, and must get up a fraction, should the next accounts from Europe be favorable. We quote as extremes of the market 4 to 6 1/2 cts. principal sales 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 cts.

Freights.—To Charleston, per Rail Road, 25 cts, per hundred for Cotton; by River, $1 per bale; to Savannah, 50 cts. per bale. Exchange.—On Charleston, Savannah, and the North, continues at par.—Journal.

AGUSTA, April 13. Cotton.—Since last Thursday there has been continued activity in our market, though less was purchased for shipment; the principal sales were made to speculators, who we believe, will keep their purchase on hand until further advices are received from the other side of the Atlantic. The other home markets having shown more activity, and a small advance in the price of the raw material, owing principally to the reduction in freight, is no doubt the principle cause of the improvement in this market. The receipts continue very light by the rail-road, and only a few bales come in now and then by wagon or boat. The range of prices, for the sales effected is 4 to 6 1/2 cents, the latter figure for good cotton in square bales. The stock begins to diminish, and there is not much cotton offering for sale.

In a statement which we published in our paper of Tuesday last, we omitted to call attention to a fact, which shows that the crop of 1843, may not amount to the estimate generally made.

By a statement we published on the 20th March, we stated that there were received to the latest date, of the crop of 1843, 1,255,000 Estimated the receipt same as last year; for the remainder of the season,

400,000 The crop of 1843 would amount to, 1,255,000

Last Tuesday, we stated that there were received already of the crop of 1843, 1,256,900 Estimating the receipts same as last year, for the remainder of the season,

258,000 The crop of 1843 would amount to, 2,244,900

By comparing these two statements it will be seen that we estimate the crop of 1843 less than ten days ago by about 10,000 bales. The conclusion to be drawn is; that the receipts for the remainder of the season; will not equal the receipts same time last year. If this should be the case, then the whole crop will hardly amount to more than 2,200,000 bales.

We have nothing to notice in regard to our money market, except that the value of Central Bank money has improved about 2 per cent., and is now from 26 to 28 per cent. discount.—Constitutionalist.

COLENSIA, April 13. Cotton.—There has been but little coming in during the week, though somewhat more than during the previous one, and prices continue without change—say 4 to 6 1/2 cents, extremes—most sales at 4 1/2 to 5 1/2.

Exchange.—On Charleston 1/2, and on New York 3/4, prem.

Freights.—Of Cotton, to Charleston, by Rail Road or River, 75 cents per bale.—Carolinian. CHARLESTON, April 14. Cotton.—The receipts of Uplands continue light. For the six days ending on Wednesday Evening, they have amounted to 4500 bales, of which 5536 bales by water and 973 bales by Rail Road. Exported its same time 7947 bales, leaving on hand a shipping stock of 24321 quies exclusive of 5682 bales on shipboard not clear. The market which we left at the close of our last report in a very quiet state did not improve any during the two succeeding days, Saturday and Monday. The sales on those days reaching but 922 bales. On Tuesday a somewhat better demand sprang up and 1637 bales were disposed of. On Wednesday 973 bales and yesterday 876 bales closed the transaction of the five days. We confess ourselves at a loss to define the present real state of our market, our information has been very contradictory. By holders and by some buyers we were informed that no concessions on prices of the last week have been made, but on the contrary that they had been firmly supported, while some purchasers in their operations pretended to have discovered in holders a greater desire to sell and on rather more favorable terms than a week since. The market may therefore be considered as very irregular and the transactions much depending on the circumstances under which they are made. The total sales have reached 4465 bales at the following particulars: 100 bales ranging at from 44 to 7 1/2 cents.—Mercury.
