New Spring and Summer GOODS.

THE Subscribers are now receiving from New York, their Spring & Summer Goods, Embracing almost every article usually kept in this market. We have selected our Goods with great care, and request our customers, and the public generally, to call and examine for themselves, and see that the prices do correspond with the times. We are thankful for past favors, and hope by strict attention to business to merit a continuance.

PRESLEY & BRYAN. April 12, 1843. 4t 11

[CIRCULAR.] To Planters & Merchants.

I BEG leave to inform you, that I continue the WAREHOUSE and COMMISSION BUSINESS at my old stand, known as the WATER-PROOF WAREHOUSE. Detached as it is from other buildings, its location renders it nearly as secure from fire, as if it was fire-proof. The floors have been elevated above the high water mark of the great freshet of May, 1840.

Planters will thus be secured from the possibility of loss and damage by freshets. I avail myself of the present occasion, to return my thanks to my friends and patrons, for their liberal support during the past season. I solicit from them and the public generally, a continuance of this confidence, and assure them that in return for their patronage, I will use my best personal efforts to promote and protect their interests, committed to my charge. In addition to this assurance, I pledge myself that I will in no case purchase a bale of cotton, directly or indirectly. I will attend personally to the sale and forwarding of cotton to Savannah or Charleston; also, to the sale of Bacon, Flour, &c. &c., and to the receiving and forwarding of goods to the up-country. Having a fine wharf attached to my Warehouse, no wharfage will be charged on cotton to my care, either for sale or to be forwarded to Savannah or Charleston.

My commissions for selling cotton, will be 25 cents per bale, and 1 1/2 cents for forwarding. I will also attend to the buying of goods per order.

Very respectfully, yours &c. G. WALKER. Hamburg August 2, 1843. 6m 25
