So th for this toll free-bridge !!

If thiver was paved over for a, mile and fo Carolina Cotton would not pass over /m Hamburg to Augusta - that fact has en well settled long since, and it is aming to see those little flickering rush lifs 'resolve.' It only amounts to a Il never do even that, from their profits a Cotton in wagons over this 'Free For the best Stallion, for Harness pur-Bridge.' The day has gone by. The tolls on this Bridge have done much for the prosperity of Hamburg, but freeing it now for Cotton wagons, will not disturb the onward course of the prosperous town of Hamburg.

Those who would go over with their cash, are required to pay toll, and those who are invited to go 'free,' with the passport of a loaded wagon, can do better elsewhere.

" When I leave the streets of Hamburg, for Georgia soil, it will be to take salt va-ter," so says CAROLINA COTTON.

SELF-EXAMINING SOCIETY.

Among the many Societies established in our country, to extend the principles of Christianity. and to improve the morals of the people at large, it is a subject of real regret, that while so laudable a zeal is manifested, and so much pains taken to remove the mote out of our neighbor's eye, there should be no Society formed, no pains taken, to induce men first to cast the beam out of their own : or, in other words, a Society whose end and aim should be For the best pair of Lambs, Cup, to examine our own hearts and lives. and see | For the best Boar, Cup, if we, ourselves, are not guilty of some habits and vices, that need reform, which are equally as bad as those, which we are so ready to dis cover in our neighbors. This Society, it would seem, ought to take the lead of all others; and it shall be the first object of our exertions to suppress the follies and vices of mankind.

" Physician heal thyself," is an admonition coming from the highest anthority, and is as applicable to the Scribes and Pharisces now, as it was 1500 years ago. Did the members of our popular societies as well as others, take e pains to examine themselves, and correct their own faults, that they do so, to hunt up and expose the faults and follies of others, how much more like Christians would they act. How much more happy and peaceable would be the condition of every community and neighborhood! And, were a Society for self-examination once instituted, in this, or any other place.and made as popular as our Temperance Societies, and many others now are, how much less running to and fro, or, of numbers standing in the corners of the streets, thanking God that they are not like other men, should we then behold.

The following Constitution is submitted for the government of said Society :

ARTICLE 1st. This Society shall be known by the name of THE SELF-EXAMINING SOCIE-TY, and shall be composed of members of both sexes, whose hearts and heads are capable of mor l improvement.

ART. 2d. The object of this Society shall be. while we may see all others faults, to feel, and correct our own; to suppress all manner of deceit and hypocrisy, slander and defamation. back-biting, and evil speaking, with all that tends to injure or defraud our neighbor, either of his property or character.

ART. 3d. This Society shall be independent of all other Societies. Each member shall be vested with full power and privilege, to attend to his own concerns, and he shall make it his duty to mind his own business and let others alone, and no Presidents. Vice Presidents, Secretaries. Spies, Informers, Committees, or Delegates, shall ever be chosen by this Society, to watch over the conduct of others, or make reports of their neighbors misdoings, until such a work of Charity, shall have been begun at home.

Ant. 4. There shall be no public of private meetings of this-Society on any appointed day. to manage their concerns or to hear lectures delivered before it, but it shall be the duty of every member to meet himself alone every day. and listen to the lectures of his own conscience. ART. 5th. No money shall be raised from time to time, for funds to support this Society.

Now we are particularly fond of celebrati us, especially those of a n tional character, but when it comes to rejoicing over a fallen political party, and that party too honest and just in their cause and principle, we see danger ahead. It is but the beginning of trouble, and may lead on despoisin. That the cou: tryinen of Washington ! should raise bonfires and revel in excess, merely because their fellow-citizens have sustained a defeat in the election of their candidate, is a proceeding which every patriot should look upon with caution and dread of the future. When it comes, that might and rowdyism rules the ballot box of this country, Heaven deliver us from the consequences. The cloud may be long gathering, but the growling thunder will come nearer and louder-the lightuing will flash in our faces, and the storm burst upon us .- Hamburg Journal

A new paper is to be established at Tuscaloosa, Alabama, called the Free Trader, for the support of Mr. Calhoun. The ednor is SAMUEL A. TOWNES, late of Perry county, of whom the Tuscaloosa Monitor savs :

"Major Townes has a high reputation for ability and honor. He belonged to the Carolina State Rights School, and edited in 1831-2, the Abbeville Whig and Southern Nullifier,' published at Abbeville, (S. C.) His accessi h to the corps editorial of Alabama, will be greeted with kindness and respect by all political pa ties." We are informed that a fire had been built near the cars, but whether it was communicated in this or some other manner, we have not been able to ascertain. We doubt not that an investigation will be instituted, and that in due time the neglect or mischief which led to this calemitious result will be known. We have received some statements from trustworthy sources, to the effect that considerable intemperance exists among some of the engineers and conductors on the road. The observation of several of those gentlemen who lately went to the Macon celebration, or we might rather sny, their information went to establish this fact. Since the above was in type, we have learned that on Saturday night, another car attached to the same train was burnt. containing about twenty bales Cotton. This accident took place some where above the eighty mile station, but we have been unable to ascertain the particulars. [Savannah Republican, 24th ult.

Travelling by the Great Central Route. -Important Information .- We are rejoic-15 ed to inform the travelling public, that an 12 arrangement has been adopted by which travellers will be taken from Charleston via Savaonah, to Franklin, Alabama, for twenty-four and an half dollars. Passen-10 gers receive tickets at Charleston for the whole route, the only staging being from the point of departure on the Monroe Rail 10 Road to Franklin. The fair by the boats has been reduced to $5 from Charleston to Savannah, and 10 to $7 from Savannah to Macon for all trucellers. This avoids the 65 miles of

The first requisite talent for a man to introduction into good society, in this country, is for him to curse and swear well. Let him be an adept in this, and he will be sure go ahead. In England and Ireland, this practice is held in contempt, even among the lower classes. Here it is considered as smartness and a gift of natural abilities. Children are taught to swear before they can speak plain their mother tongue, and long before they are instructed to say their prayers. Yet we think that our country is the most enlightened in the world; and perhaps it is enlightened in the practice of swearing. Next to an open infidel slanderer, keep us aloof from the profane swearer. It is one of the lowest, and niggardly callings that a gentleman can be guilty of. It shows a want of decency and a proper education, and we would not stigmatize our parents in such a manner-rather keep dark .---Hamburg Journal.

The Cock and the Coon .- Chapman of "The democratic papers announce almost every victory under the figure of a crowing rooster. We had, doubtless some share ourself, unintentionally, however, of introducing this bird as an emblem of democracy. Brave, vigilant, and sprightly, he is always on the watch. So soon as the Sun like a great loco foco match, lightens up the world, and scatters the darkness of night, the cock salutes us with his well known cry of loco fo CO. He is faithful and constant in his attachments, and loaths traitors or those who forsake their friends. When St. Peter like a whig; failed to redeem the promises he made, the cock reprimanded him three times. And through-

IJ SOUTHERN AGRICULTURIST -The Publisher appeals to the planting interest of South Carolina to support this Journal. It has long been devoted to their interest; and the importance of tetaining it as a useful and handy form of information, ought to procure for it such a support, as will enable it to stand its ground with any competitor. If our friends will sustain us in our exertions, we would retain its present pamphlet form, and publish weekly, 16 or 20 pages ;- this would require a greater number of subscribers than we have at present. PROSPECTUS

OF THE Anderson Gazette. HE Office of the Highland Sentinel having been purchased from the late proprietor, the undersigned proposes to continue the publication of a Newspaper at Anderson, to be called the "Anderson Gazette," devoted to Politics, Agriculture, Morals and the dissimination of useful knowledge in the Arts and Sciences

The Anderson Gazette will advocate in Poltics the great Republican doctrines promulgat ed by Jefferson and triumphantly vindicated in Madison's unanswerable report and resolutions of '98 and 9, to the Virginia Legislature ; and as the most infallible means of perpetrating their ascendency in the Administration of the Federal Government, we shall contribute an active and zealous support to the election of JOUN C: CALHOUN to the Presidency in 1844a statesman of experience, patriotism, talents and integrity, altogether worthy of the confi dence of his countrymen, and eminently quali fied to meet the ardnous and varied responsi bilities of that high office.

We shall advocate our principles with firm ness and independence, but shall treat the opinions of those who differ with us respectfully and courteously. Every effort will be used to make the Gazette an interesting and valuable journal, to all clas-ses of readers; and we appeal with confidence to the public for support and patronage in our bout the 1st of November, at $2 00 per annum in advance, $2 50 if paid within the year, and $3 00 if not paid till the end of the year-no paper discontinued till all arrearages are paid ; these terms will be rigidly adhered to.

HAMBURG, October 24.

Cotton .- During the past two weeks up to Monday.last, our Cotton market had a downward tendency, reaching as low as 71 cents from our highest quotations at that time. The accounts per the Great Western laving been considered unfavorable by our principal dealers, the market assumed an unhealthy appearance. However, on Sunday we received European dates of a more cheering nature, and our market since then is quite lively with advancing prices. The receipts since our last report have been nonsually large for the sea-son, and as the weather has been remarkably favorable to the planters for gathering in the staple, we notice but little poor Cotton coming in. Prices, to-day, range from 6 to 71, according to quality; principal sales 63 to 7 cts -
